Kapelmaster of State Siblorn is reported to be dangerously ill. Monsier Siblorn is 78 years of age.

Captain Pedersen, the Arctic explorer, has been engaged by Weimes to partake in his next expedition to the North pole.

A big political mass meeting arranged by the party of the right was held at Fredrikstad the other day. Thousands of people were present, and speeches were made by minister Berg and Dr. V. Nielsen.

The party of the left came out victorious in the Christiania elections. There is no doubt now that the radicals will have a majority in the Storting, and the time is now apparently ripe, when there will be a separation, perhaps a war, between Sweden and Norway. King Oscar and the Swedish Riksdag are—under no circumstances—willing to accede to the demand of the Norwegians for their own consulate and a separate minister of foreign affairs.

OBITUARY NOTE.

JAMES BEVAN.

James Bevan, who died at Tooele on October 28th, and who was buried at that place three days later, was born October 28, 1821, in Herefordshire, England. In the year 1840 he became converted to the faith of the Gospel taught by the Latter-day Saints, and in 1842 emigrated to America and settled in Nauvoo, the gathering place of the Church at that time. He suffered in the persecutions brought to bear against the Mormons in the early days.

While journeying to seek a resting place for the saints in company with the main body of the Church, a common saying made for 50 of the best men in the Mormon camp came to form a battalion and march to Mexico to subdue the enemies of the United States, he was chosen as one of the band, taking his knapsack and gun and tramping over the mountains and across the plains. When peace was declared and the battalion disbanded in 1847, he returned with the battalion to Salt Lake valley, arriving three days after the pioneers. He joined them in subduing the sagebrush plains and providing the people gathered there to the best advantage the resources of the Indians. In the summer of 1848 he returned to Council Bluffs, remaining there until 1852, when he returned to Utah and settled in Tooele City. In 1857 he was set apart as one of the council of the Forty-third quorum of seventies, and at the death of John Shields, Brother Bevan succeeded him as the senior president of the quorum. His good advice and example endeared him to its members and he constantly seconded his efforts.

He served as president of the visiting Teachers' quorum for a number of years, and was a very active and efficient officer in the Tooele ward.

He was the father of twenty-three children and had forty grandchildren. He leaves a wife and a numerous progeny to mourn his departure.—Tooele Transcript.

GEORGE BEVIER NAY.

November 2nd, in the Eleventh ward, Salt Lake City, Georgia Elliot, daughter of James and Annie Nay, at the age of 19 years, 2 months and 12 days.

Funeral services were conducted at the residence of her parents, Elliot's court, on second South street, Bishop Robert Morris presiding. The speakers dwelt upon the plan of salvation as revealed in the last dispensation for the living and the dead, and gave much consolation to the bereaved parents. It was related how the deceased had expressed a wish to be baptized and have the ordinances of the Temple performed for her. Sir. Scoggin's by in the Church, she had her baptismal, and had found in consolation, however, in the various churches she visited, and was a lady respected by some the everlasting Gospel as revealed through the Prophet Joseph. Comforting words were made by Elder Angus M. Cannon, president of the Salt Lake stake, upon the resurrection and for the redemption of the dead who had died in the work during the dispensation, and Bishop Morris pronounced the benediction.

The deceased was a beautiful and promising young woman, a good type of virtue, purity and good works.—Jenn. Millennial Star, please copy.
