EDITORIAL NOTES.

——The English poor law boards are now authorized to allow, at their discretion, families, who go into the Union poor houses, to live together, instead of being separated as previously.

One of the Prussian provincial governments has very properly prohibited pigeon shooting matches, on the ground that they come under the definition of cruelty to animals.

——Charles Bradlaugh and Mrs. Besant, while lecturing in an English town recently, were interrupted by persons in the audience. Mr. Bradlaugh intimated that the next man doing it should be put out, whereupon a local tradesman "dared him." The muscular lecturer descended from the platform and the tradesman did not dare him again.

——An exchange remarks that Martin Farquhar Tupper has written the worst poetry in the world, but another remarks that he has written abundance of it, so what it lacks in quality is fully made up in quantity.

THE STORMS.

THIS morning (Oct. 20) daylight revealed that the stormy period of the last week or so at length had resulted in a snow storm, not very deep at present, but apparently not yet over. Rain, hail, and snow we have had now, and the storms have been general throughout the Territory, and indeed far outside, until the soil is pretty well soaked as deep as is necessary, sufficient to last until next spring. It was dry enough before the storm, in very many places, and hard enough in some places, too dry and hard to plough, or for the easy gathering of root crops, many of which are still in the ground, ungathered.

It is not unusual for us to see a rainy, sleety, snowy period about this time of the year, for now is the time when Winter not unfrequently gives us the first sharp intimations of his coming, and sends along his forerunning storms. Nevertheless, it is not necessary, as some do, to jump to the conclusion that winter has actually set in, that we are going to have an unusually hard and long winter, etc. It may be so, and again the contrary may be the case for aught we know, or for aught that known trustworthy indications reveal. It is as likely as not that the present storms will be succeeded by fine weather, a several weeks' term of Indian summer, before real winter fully sets in. In fact, the probability lies that way. That such a favorable time is needed there can be no doubt, and if it is vouchsafed it will be a great convenience and blessing to the community generally, and to the agriculturists and other outdoor workers in particular. The soil is not too dry now to plow or to dig, and if the weather should clear up and be fine for a time, much farm and garden land might be turned over to advantage ere winter sets in. Fall plowing, if the soil is in proper condition for it, will do much good to all but the very lightest soils, of which there are few. On land so plowed the early grain crops can be put in the first opportunity in the spring, thereby in many cases causing a surer and better as well as earlier crops than could be obtained by leaving the land unstirred till spring. Our springs have been late of late years, and the rains have been more frequent and desultory and scattered than was formerly the case, rendering early spring tillage more precarious. Instead of having a fine time and a wet time, of a few weeks each duration, we have been more liable of late years to have a fine day or two and a wet day or two in the early spring.

At present we see nothing to complain of in the stormy weather. It is seasonable enough, and finer weather is behind it.

WHY THE DELAY.

THE Sacramento Record-Union of October 16th, commenting upon the sentence of John D. Lee, says—

"Precisely why the Judge should have postponed the execution to so distant a day we do not understand, nor does it appear to be a particularly judicious or merciful arrangement."

What is known as the Poland Bill says—

"A writ of error from the Supreme Court of the United States to the Supreme Court of the Territory shall lie in criminal cases, where the accused shall have been sentenced to capital punishment, or convicted of bigamy or polygamy."

It is presumable, therefore, that the extended time between the day of the sentence and the day of execution was given to allow of opportunity to appeal.

TO-DAY'S DISPATCHES.

EASTERN.

Much Interest Excited.

NEW YORK, 20. — The Times' Washington special says the threatening aspect of the eastern question has excited much interest here for two days, but has caused no intense excitement as in the cities where commercial affairs are more dependent upon peace or war.

The "Herald" a Three Cent Paper.

The Herald, this morning, announces itself a three cent paper. Other journals must follow, it is thought.

The Irish Address to President Grant Must be Presented by the British Minister, etc.

A Washington dispatch says the presentation of the address from Ireland to President Grant, through Messrs. O'Connor, Powers & Parnell, members of parliament, has been deferred. Powers and Parnell have been informed that, according to etiquette, the resolutions will have to come through the British minister here and the State Department to the President. An obstacle has been found to the success of the first step, in the wording of certain parts of the resolutions. One part cites that having suffered through seven centuries of tyranny, the Irish people make their greetings to the United States and its President, &c. This cannot, it is contended, be passed by without an act of disrespect on the part of President Grant to her Majesty's representative. The resolutions are a magnificent evidence of art and taste, appearing like a plate of the purest alabaster, inlaid with mosaic. They are left in one of the rooms of the White House.

Fatal Accident.

Dr. Julius S. Theband, of East Thirteenth St., who was wounded by the explosion of a cartridge, died last night. He was ramming a charge into the cartridge when the explosion occurred, and a large piece of the cartridge was driven into his body, and lodged between the heart and left lung. Dr. Theband was preparing to go on a shooting excursion when the fatal accident happened. He was forty-nine years of age, and was well known as an author and lecturer.

Arrival of More Gold Coin.

The steamship Russia, which arrived from Europe, to-day, has on board $750,000 in gold coin, making a total thus far received of $1,650,000 this week, of which 900,000 has already gone into the sub-treasury.

Suspension.

W. P. C. Triechel, an old member of the Stock Exchange, suspended to-day.

50,000 English Troops to be in Readiness.

A special from London says the Government has ordered 50,000 English troops to be put in readiness for immediate dispatch, if necessary, to Turkey. Furloughs of all naval officers have been recalled.

An Insane Woman Murders Her Four Children.

GLENLOCH, Pa., 20.—About half past eight this morning, the wife of C. J. Baker, colored, residing at this place, was running along the road in a frantic manner, and when she reached the railroad station she informed a gentleman that she had just killed her four children, and then resumed her wanderings. The gentleman drove to the house, and not finding her husband, hunted him up. The two visited the house and found three children, aged respectively two, four, and six years, in an almost lifeless condition, their heads being beaten to a jelly, with a heavy club. The baby, aged two months, was covered up with a heavy feather bed, the intention of the mother being to smother it. The three children cannot possibly survive. A number of people have gone in search of the unfortunate woman, who is undoubtedly insane.

Unveiling of the Witherspoon Monument.

PHILADELPHIA, 20.—The ceremony of the unveiling of the Witherspoon monument was performed this morning on the Centennial grounds, by D. D. Wood, grandson of Dr. Witherspoon. The exercises consisted of prayer by Rev. Geo W. Musgreve, singing of hymns, and reading, by the Rev. Henry C. McCook, of a brief history of the effort to erect the monument.

Meeting of Boston Ship-owners.

BOSTON, 20.—A large meeting of Boston ship-owners took action to-day, in regard to the excessive tonnage rates at San Francisco. It is proposed to build two tug boats for use at that port.

Gen. Terry and the Hostiles—Appointments.

WASHINGTON, 20.—Advices have been received at the War Department that General Terry will immediately leave Fort Abraham Lincoln in pursuit of the hostile savages.

H. H. Griffith, of Iowa, is appointed receiver of public moneys at Des Moines.

Jno. Young, of New York, has been appointed agent for the Indians of the Blackfeet agency in Montana.

FOREIGN.

GREAT BRITAIN.

The Cabinet Meeting—The "Times" on the Situation.

LONDON, 20.—The Cabinet met yesterday, all the ministers being present.

The Times says the meeting was rendered necessary by the critical state of affairs in Europe, for the negotiations, which have occupied the last twelve months, are virtually at an end, and war between Russia and Turkey is supposed to be unavoidable. Every resolution at a time like this is momentous Even the conclusion that nothing remains to be done is one which a single minister might decline to be responsible for. The ministers met only to conform, by common accord, to the conclusions at which the country had arrived, if the result be only negative, as far as the present action is concerned. This only represents the almost unanimous desire of the nation that there is to be no ultimatum or contingent declaration of war. There will, moreover, be no Autumn session of Parliament. The Cabinet did nothing which can justify the prevailing fears of British participation in the war. It will be understood that this result does not involve the position of a decision respecting events, which are still uncertain, and the position will change continually. It amounts only to this that the existence of virtual war between Russia and the Porte does not create a state of things calling for our interference; that we are not called upon either by the text of treaties or by moral obligations to defend one of those empires against the other. The nations reserve full liberty of action should the compromising of her interests ever call for interference. All we can see at the present is that a war of race and religion, sufficiently formidable, is likely to ensue in Eastern Europe. If it was a permissible policy to wait and see what would come of the struggle between the Turks and their rebellious subjects, it is not now wrong to stand aside and see the development of the same contest. England has never undertaken to interpose in the concerns of the continent without continental allies, and there is no good ground for believing that we should have real support from any power in the event of war.

Preparing for an Emergency.

PLYMOUTH, Eng., 20. — Orders have been received at the Devonport dockyards to complete the repairs on the four turret steamships, Cyclops, Hydra, Gorgon and Hecate, each carrying four guns, and an ironclad steamer, the Agincourt, carrying twenty-eight guns. Three composite gun vessels are building here, and two others in private yards are being prepared for commission.

Russia Has Only Turkey to Face—the Queen will Hold Council on Monday.

The Berlin correspondent of the Times telegraphs it is understood that the Austrian reply to the Czar's second letter, while promising neutrality in the event of the Russian invasion of Bulgaria, practically reserves for Austria the right of operating in any other part of Turkey.

The Times' Paris correspondent says there is no doubt of the complete accord between Russia, Germany and Austria. It can be easily seen that England and France will not break their neutrality, therefore Russia only has Turkey to face. The only minister of the Ottoman cabinet who believed Turkey might defend herself and receive European aid, has fallen.

The cabinet is now convinced that Turkey cannot count on the accord of Europe in her favor, and that Turkey cannot longer maintain complete dominion of the Balkan peninsula. If they hesitate about the six weeks' armistice it is because they wish to know the conditions to which they have to submit. What Russia wants is now known, and the Ottoman cabinet will probably resign themselves to it. Russia wishes the absolute independence of Servia, on the recognized independence of Montenegro, with an extension of Territory and the annexation of the port of Spezzia, and the political and administrative autonomy of Bosnia, Herzegovina and Bulgaria. She wishes the strip off Bessarabia, taken from her in 1856, and to have the liberty of the Dardanelles established.

The Queen will hold a council next Monday.

Will Present His Credentials.

CONSTANTINOPLE, 20. — General Ignatieff, Russian ambassador, will present his credentials to the Sultan to-day. It is believed that negotiations are about to reopen between the Porte and the ambassadors of the Powers on the basis of the English proposals.

The Cabinet Decides Upon the Abstention Policy.

The British cabinet, at its meeting yesterday, decided upon the policy of abstention, for the present at least, and in this policy they have the support of the press and people.

TURKEY.

More Serious Fighting.

BELGRADE, 20.—Serious fighting took place near Satchair on Tuesday and Wednesday. The Turks are trying to force their way to Paratchin, whence their march to Belgrade would only be interrupted by weak fortifications at Chuprla. Considerable anxiety prevails here as to the issue, especially as this movement seems to be made in concert with the operations on the Drina. The weather has suddenly changed from a tropical heat to heavy rains, gales and cold. This favors the Servians.

A Grand Potlatch.

There was a mighty gathering of Indians at Saanich yesterday, upward of 3,000 redskins, in 275 canoes, were present. The occasion of the assemblage was a grand potlatch of over $15,000 worth of goods being given away. English blankets to the value of $5,000 were thrown from the top of the lodges to be scrambled for by the natives below, who stood armed with long poles stuck full of nails at one end, to secure the prize as soon as it fell. In addition to these, some curious "percecees," made by the natives themselves from the wool of the mountain sheep, were also thrown. Three hundred guns, among which were some very fine double-barreled pieces with percussion locks, were then thrown down and caused a series of tremendous struggles, which lasted in some cases for nearly an hour. Pieces of board representing sums ranging from $100 to $500 were then scrambled for after the same fashion. Three brothers gave 3,500 blankets as their contribution, which had all been paid for by the products of the chase. The stock of gifts being exhausted, the natives all got into their canoes and left, thus ending one of the largest meetings of the kind which has taken place for some years, and probably the last of any magnitude which will occur, as the rising generation of Indians seem to care little about perpetuating the customs of their forefathers, and this, as well as many other practices, will soon be numbered among the things of the past.—British Columbia Colonist, Sept. 30.
