THE L. D. S. COLLEGE.

Interesting Commencement Exercises Of That Institution Today.

ORATION BY HON. A. H. CANNON.

Graduates, Addresses, Music, Bestowal of Certificates, Reports and Announcements.

The commencement exercises of the Latter-day Saints' College were held this afternoon at 1 o'clock in the Social Hall.

The decorations were profuse, appropriate and beautiful. A rich feature in it were large numbers of various kinds of palms and other rare flowers obtained from the Salt Lake Temple. The sego-lily, Utah's beautiful State flower, was conspicuous among the many artistically arranged bouquets, while among the bunting of the stage and hangings of windows blue and gold, the Latter-day Saints' College colors, abounded. Above the stage-room was suspended a large silver American star, in the center and on each side of which were rosettes of blue and gold and the space passing over the entrances on both sides was draped with two large American flags.

Miss Roy Grant, in her address on The Nature of the Child Determines Educational Laws, said:

"The child is a bundle of possibilities. The feeling of tension between what the child really is and those possibilities—between the ideal and the real—gives the law to all social institutions, for the object of these institutions is to bring man from his present self to one of higher worth. In reaching this self we rise on the stepping stones of our dead lower selves.

"This need of man's nature gives rise to the school, a place established to aid in the best known way, the growth and development of the human being. The teacher and the complete school system are but the means of guiding this end. The mind is governed by laws, and the best results can be obtained only by finding and using these laws as guiding principles in teaching. The florist, with the knowledge of the conditions which promote plant growth, treats the seed he plants according to this knowledge, and rears a beautiful plant, while he ignorant of principles of plant nourishment gets only a stunted result. So with the teacher who knows the nature of the child's mind; unlike him ignorant of this, he follows the laws of mind growth and helps develop a noble human mind.

"The teacher must be a teacher of minds and not merely of subjects. He must see that the student's knowledge is organized, for only organized knowledge is power. He must deal with principles primary, and rules secondarily. In a word, his work must be not quantity but quality teaching.

The study of child nature is now being extensively carried on, and is giving a new spirit to the educational world. The results now obtained are but a tithe of the good yet to follow."

Hon. Abraham H. Cannon delivered the commencement oration. In brief he said:

"Some of us are looking too much into the future, and forgetting the duties of today. The obligations of the present are for us the most important. But it is well that we build air castles; it is well that we have a purpose—an ideal in life. All our success is owing to the resolutions with which we follow this ideal. By reflection and by prayer we may learn what sphere of life we should work in, and then we should persistently hold to our choice.

Within us is the power and the [illegible]

"Pater [illegible] the great [illegible] and women [illegible] We should be men and women with views of our own. We should act without fear of public opinion, mostly seeking and to afford a tender sympathy.

"Each should strive to become self-supporting, whether by manual labor or by mental work, [illegible] Whatever is done should have character [illegible]

Young people, remember righteousness, noble deeds, [illegible] will gladden you not only here, but in all eternity."

The parting, pretty ladies A Golden Argosy, was beautifully given by Geo. D. Pyper.

Mrs. Alice Rich delivered the valedictory, saying:

"Throughout our life we are influenced by our environment; everything with which we come in vital touch leaves its impression upon us. In school the social life is found with all the principles which govern the larger social order and there is an opportunity for the practice of all the true social relations and duties. The truth has been made prominent that our search for the laws of the Creator brings us to a knowledge of God himself and our relation to Him."

"The bond of friendship which has been formed during the work together will not be broken when we leave school for it is a spiritual band which shall remain through eternity. Let us climb from the heights we have reached to live life up to the realms where we shall meet in glorious brotherhood and sisterhood."

Instructor W. H. Chamberlin had conferred upon him by President Jones, acting as a representative of the general board of education the degree of bachelor of didactics (B. D.)

The president made a few remarks and read his report of the institution for the last year.

Elder John Nicholson, in behalf of the college board, spoke briefly and interestingly.

The remainder of the program was carried out as heretofore published in the News.

Marriage Licenses.

Fred Player, 25, of this city, and Mary L. Spyer, 19, of Murray, were given a license to wed, as were Wm. Apsdale, 23, and Alice Sharp Jack, 22, both of this city.

Returned to Ogden.

R. Chapman and John Wilkinson, the lads from the Industrial home who were arrested yesterday for stealing, were taken to that institution this morning by Superintendent Allison who came down for his wards.

AMUSEMENTS.

Rhea tonight—Josephine, Empress of the French, will be presented by Mlle Rhea at the Theater tonight. An eastern press exchange says: "Mlle Rhea has devoted many months in preparing Mr. Hayen's excellent play; the interest is deep from first to last, and Rhea has not only the support of a remarkably strong company, but one peculiarly capable of interpreting the Napoleonic period. The firing of twenty-one cannons at the birth of the king of Rome is one of the features of the production."

Tomorrow night Nell Gwynne will be given. It is a historical play of the time of Charles II of England.

Next week we will have the pleasure of seeing Mr. John Drew and Maude Adams at the Theater, Monday and Tuesday evening; Christopher Jr. will be given and Wednesday night the [illegible] will be the bill. This engagement will be in the nature of a society event.

MINOR MENTION.

THE MINING MARKET.

Trading Still Continues Dull on the Stock Exchange.

AJAX AND RICHMOND ANACONDA

Are the Only Stocks Dealt in at Today's Call—Rich Strike in Idaho—Dips and Spurs.

There is still no improvement in the local mining stock market, the trading continuing sluggish and the brokers [illegible]. Today's work was no exception to the dullness of the past week or so, and but one of each class of stocks was considered for transfers. Ajax was the leading property on the listed side and met with exchanges aggregating 300 shares—100 at 94 cents and 200 at 97½ cents. The unlisted stocks were represented in the trading by Richmond Anaconda, which found favor to the extent of two sales of 1,000 shares each at 4½ cents per share.

Sioux Consolidated assumed quite an interesting aspect and quotations kept closer to each other than for some time past, while Mercur went down to [illegible] in the bidding, and was offered at [illegible]. Mammoth kept up its usual interest, although no sales were negotiated. Two new stocks made their appearance on the unlisted call, bearing the names of Montreal and Petro at Bingham, but neither met with attention further than quotations. The latter was wanted at $3.75 but no stock made its appearance at any figure.

The closing figures were as follows:

One hundred shares of Ajax at 94 cents and 200 at 97½ cents; 2,000 Richmond Anaconda at 4½ cents. Total shares sold, 2,300.

Rich in Gold.

The Albion, Idaho, Times in reporting a strike in that locality says that Mr. and Mrs. John Odermott came in from Elba precinct, Wednesday. Mr. Odermott brought in some of the finest gold specimens, taken out of the Alice mine, ever taken out of the mountains of Cassia county. It is estimated by experienced miners that this rock will go over $1,000 to the ton. This rock was taken out about five feet below the surface, and Mr. Odermott is now down about sixteen feet and says the ledge is widening the further down he goes. The owners of the Alice are highly elated over the prospects of the property.

Dips and Spurs.

The Sheep Rock Mining company held a meeting yesterday afternoon and reorganized with the following officers: [illegible] Bamberger, president; [illegible], vice president; [illegible], treasurer, and William [illegible], secretary; Henry [illegible], W. F. Hahn, C. W. [illegible], [illegible] and William Campbell were elected directors.

The Gold Stone Mining company, which filed articles of incorporation [illegible] capital stock [illegible] shares and owns properties in Lemhi county, Idaho. Its officers are George [illegible] president; William E. Hubbard, vice president, and W. [illegible], secretary and treasurer, with the addition of [illegible] and Lewis W. Clark to the directorate.

The Hirefield [illegible] says that several years ago it is said a man out found a piece of float on the hills between [illegible] and [illegible] that assayed [illegible] to the ton in silver. The [illegible] created no little excitement at the time and the ledge was hunted for quite diligently for a while but with no success. On Tuesday, [illegible] John [illegible], the [illegible] at [illegible] went prospecting and found what he believes to be the ledge. On Thursday samples were [illegible] to be assayed. [illegible] Wednesday [illegible] we are informed, by [illegible] that the samples are very [illegible]

American Fork Worth: Joe Gerrish [illegible] Thursday morning for [illegible]

River, Utah, [illegible] Charles Armstrong, Pete Logan and Joe Burk, all miners at Mammoth, returned home Wednesday on account of the strike at that place.....Several wagon loads of ore have been seen passing through town on their way to the smelters this week. This looks like business. Let the good work go on.....Ned Wilde made a trip to American Fork canyon this week to see about his mining property there. Ned is a hustler and we hope he will strike it rich soon..... About twenty-five men left here Tuesday morning for American Fork canyon on account of the big washout there. The canyon people seem to be working under difficulties.....Bosman & Co., the lessees of the Wild Dutchman and other mines, are the first ones to ship ore this month from American Fork canyon.

BASEBALL CHALLENGE.

Rio Grandes Out With a "Defi" to the Union Pacific Iron Backs, Big Glaves and First Basers.

Baseball is to be resurrected in this city. The office employes of the Rio Grande Western have declared themselves to that effect. More than that they have compelled their fellow-clerks of the Union Pacific to assist them. They did it by issuing a challenge to the latter to play a match game with them on Saturday, June 20. The surprising feature of the "defi" is that the challenge was promptly accepted, for the Rio Granders boast of some hard hitters, good catchers and fast sprinters. But then the Union Pacific boys have among their number three of four veteran knights of the diamond whom they say would long ago have been playing with some national team had the inducements been great enough. Passenger Agent Bixby and Freight Agent Eccles say that if the Union Pacific lads do not win a victory over their opponents that they will obtain an order from the receivers discharging them without a hearing. The Rio Granders have also received notice that they must either vanquish or vanish and they are preparing to vanquish.

According to their captain they will take the field as follows: W. J. Kidd, c.; Alma Smith, p.; W. E. Simpson, first; W. C. Melrose, second base; E. R. Dickinson, short stop; H. F. Clough, third base; J. S. Darke, l. f.; H. H. Lavake, c. f.; H. Cunn, r. f.; alternates, W. J. Caverly, J. Brinker and J. F. Evans.

The personnel of the Union Pacific team will be forthcoming as soon as they have recovered from the shock occasioned by the challenge.

Declared a Dividend.

The Home Fire Insurance company held its regular monthly meeting yesterday, at which time a quarterly dividend of 1½ per cent on the capital stock was declared. Rulon S. Wells resigned as secretary on account of his leaving shortly for Great Britain, and H. G. Whitney was elected in his stead. The company also decided to insure plate glass hereafter.

Saltair Beach Notes.

All Hallows' college will spend Tuesday next at Saltair.

Saturday will be public school day at Saltair. The Grant school will furnish a program of exercises.

The University goes to Saltair tomorrow. A large turnout is expected. Dancing will be kept up until midnight.

A decidedly novel proposition has been made the Saltair Beach company by a couple of theatrical men. It is to produce the opera Pinafore on the lake at Saltair within the next week or so. The plan is to erect a temporary ship a few hundred feet from the pavilion, on board of which the opera is to be given. The company has the matter under consideration.

Following are the dates of excursions already booked for Saltair: June 11th, University Field Day Club; June 13th, Public school day; June 15th, J. P. Coney, leader of the commencement of two years ago will speak at [illegible]; June 16th, All Hallows college; June 19th, Knights of Pythias; June 24th, Scandinavian Day, together with the Ladies Auxiliary to Order of Railway Conductors (Ogden); June 25th, I. O. O. F.; July 17th, M. I. A. day; August 12th, Convention of United States Fire Chiefs.

Gray Wants $2,136.10.

John G. Gray filed a suit against Simon Eiseman and Henry Eiseman in the Third district court this afternoon for judgment in the sum of $2,136.10 damages and costs, with interest from May 2, 1896, and for costs of suit. The suit grows out of a judgment heretofore given against the defendants and in favor of J. B. Simon & Co. in the circuit court of the city of St. Louis, state of Missouri.

A Vessel Stranded.

VINEYARD HAVEN, Mass., June 10. —The three-masted schooner Edward C. Allen from Captain Mitchell, from Baltimore for Portland, sank off Job's Neck on the south side of this island this morning. From what has come ashore of the vessel and articles of clothing that have been picked up, it is feared all on board are lost.

Joseph Dedericks Gets a Verdict Against the Street Railway.

SUIT ON A PROMISSORY NOTE.

Boyd Park and Others Sued by the First National Bank of Dillon—Little & Roundy Case.

The damage case of Jos. Dedericks against the Salt Lake City Railroad company, was concluded before Judge Street this morning, and the jury this afternoon brought in a verdict for plaintiff in the sum of $1,500.

The action was brought to obtain judgment for damages in the sum of $10,000 for injuries which Dedericks received in a collision with a street car belonging to the defendant street railway company.

Mr. Dedericks was riding in his buggy when at a street crossing a car, running at a high rate of speed, ran into his rig, demolishing it and breaking one of Mr. Dedericks's ribs and otherwise severely injuring and bruising him.

In the case of the Deseret National bank against Little, Roundy & Co. et al, the attachment was dissolved and the levy released in accordance with remittitur. Further hearing was set for Saturday next, when a motion on judgment pleadings will also come up.

The suit of the First National bank of Dillon, Mont., against Boyd Park et al, on a promissory note, came up at 2 o'clock this afternoon before Judge Street and the following jury: F. L. Kent, Edward Pickering, J. H. Woodman, Edward Johnson, John Gallacher, Sr., A. S. Post, L. J. Starbuck and Greg L. Little.

STATE NEWS.

Millard Blade: Friday morning about 2 o'clock, as the Millard train was pulling out of Clear Lake station, going north, a man named Casey, of Casselly, who was beating his way, tried to board one of the cars, but missed his hold and fell, his left hand getting between the bumpers, smashing it in a horrible manner. The unlucky fellow was brought to Fillmore Friday morning, where Dr. Kent dressed the wound, taking the first finger off and putting several stitches in the little one.

Coalville Times: The Weber river has been very high and almost all the bridges above Oakley are gone. It is reported that the bridge is the only one on the river that has not been damaged by the high water, either by cutting around or by washing out some of the smaller bridges near the river. As George Gibbons and family were driving across the bridges near Robert Young's ranch, where the river is divided, the first bridge [illegible] as soon as he got off it [illegible] stream. When he drove on the [illegible] it started and by hurrying [illegible] across safely. It is reported that [illegible] Roundy, who lives west of here, moved out at 3 o'clock in the morning through [illegible] feet of water. W. H. Smith woke up and found some two feet of water in his house. Luckily for him he has the McCowan house that he uses for a shop which he went into. D. B. Dull had to wade through water almost waist deep to get to his barn. The river is said to be the highest that has been known for years, and is high again this morning, lacking only about two inches of being as high as it was Saturday morning. Some say the snow has not started out of [illegible] & Moreland fork and from Henney [illegible] where the high water came from. If that be the case we will be able to hold all the bridges on the river. H. W. Mecham came down from his [illegible] up the river and he says we may look for higher water than was ever seen here before. He is one of the oldest settlers here and has a chance to know. .....At Hoytsville everybody is busy planting potatoes and gardens. We think summer has come at last, and hope it will remain with us for some time.

PROVO.

PROVO, UTAH, - JUNE 10, 1896.

Garden City Notes.

Wm. O. Sperry has filed a complaint in the Fourth district court against the Provo Grocery Co., which he [illegible] several years ago, to collect $1,000 with interest from Nov. 29th, 1893, [illegible] $280.60 paid on the note. The note is secured by mortgage on Provo [illegible]. Confession of judgment has been [illegible] by the defendant corporation. J. R. Boothe's signature appears on the mortgage as president of the Grocery company; he is also attorney for the plaintiff in this case. There is a French proverb in regard to an attorney who pleads his own case, but the above situation would break up any system of proverb making.

James Lombardi was brought in by Sheriff Brown and Deputy Williams last night from Tintic on a charge of selling liquor without a license. He pleaded guilty this morning before Justice De Moisy and was sentenced to pay a fine of $50 and $12 costs, which he paid.

Mary Jane Higley has commenced suit for divorce against Leon Higley, on the ground of desertion and failure to provide. Plaintiff asks to be permitted to resume her maiden name of Mary Jane Jolie. The parties intermarried in American Fork in April, 1889.

Miss Bertha M. Wilson of New York will give an entertainment in the Proctor academy tomorrow evening, consisting of [illegible] in costume of a large number of [illegible] variety of [illegible].

[illegible] Bros. circus, was in the city yesterday arranging for his show, which will exhibit here July 29th.

Mr. Claude Flemington and Miss Alice Ward will be united in marriage this evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Ward.

Commencement exercises will be given this evening at the Proctor academy; a fine program will be rendered by the students.

Maryland Democrats.

BALTIMORE, Md., June 10.—Chairman H. W. Talbott of the state central committee called the Democratic state convention to order today and announced Senator Gorman as temporary chairman.

The senator said: "We come together today not to discuss local affairs. I would not give much for the democracy of a man who would rake up the embers of the past and air a private grievance at the expense of his party." The speaker referred in complimentary terms to President Cleveland and his administration. The Republican party, he said, was "a party of the dead". He urged the Democrats to bury all differences, and act in harmony in selecting an acceptable man to lead them, "for in this," he said, "the only hope of this great country lies."

Major Stewart moved that all election cases be read before they were referred. This was the first gun of the silver men. The vote was looked upon as a test. The motion was overwhelmingly defeated. Not more than a dozen voting aye. The convention took recess to enable the committee on resolutions to formulate a report.

The committee on permanent organization reported the name of Gorman for permanent chairman, which action the convention ratified. Gorman made another speech in which he said he would join his hearers in reorganizing the party "so that never again in this generation would it pass from the control of this state and nation." The committee on resolutions then reported.

The resolutions favored tariff for revenue only and endorsed the vigorous policy of President Cleveland. The financial plank is a straight out endorsement of the present gold standard currency and an emphatic condemnation of the free coinage of silver at a ratio of 16 to 1.

Major Stewart presented a minority report in direct contravention to this, the reading of which was hailed with loud applause, and which he offered as a substitute for the financial clause of the majority report.

Stewart made a speech of an hour's duration upon the silver question, at the conclusion of which his motion was overwhelmingly defeated and the majority report adopted.
