CASTING COPPER 17.

Business was moderately heavy for "Blue Monday" on the Salt Lake Stock Exchange. This morning the transactions footing up to nearly 40,000, Bullion-Beck was the first on the list to be traded in, the sale being 3,000 at $1.10 per share each.

Daly West opened very strong and there was a chance for the stock all over the pit. It brought as high as $2.80 per share, which is the high water mark for this prime security. There was a lull in the call until Grand Central was reached, when the shares quickly changed hands at $1.36. But it closed weak, being freely offered at lower figures with no buyers.

Mammoth was more than having the past few days, selling as low as $1.32. It gained strength during the call, however, closing at 38¢ bid and $1.41 asked.

Northern Light was very unsteady, thus holding the stock being anxious to sell and at the same time to hold up the market. Consequently little of the stock was sold, the price ranging from 19 cents, offer 18, to 20¢.

One block of 200 shares of Peru was clipped off at 79 cents, but after that buyer and seller could not get together.

There was a lively scrimmage over Uncle Sam, Colorado Chief, Colorado Chief and Yellow Jacket, closing exactly at the finishing, the former selling and the latter buying, the price ranging from $2.35 to $2.60.

Bullfrog was weaker and made a feature in the trading, bringing 45c and $1.05.

Six thousand shares of Horrocks went at from 6¢ to 6½.

The closing quotations were as follows:
