KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE.
The most Successful Remedy ever discovered, as it is certain in its effects and does not blister.
READ PROOF BELOW from
Rev. P. N. GRANGER,
Presiding Elder of the St. Albans District.

St. Alban's, Vt., Jan. 20th, 1880.

DR. B. J. KENDALL & Co., Gents:—In reply to your letter I will say that my experience with 'Kendall's Spavin Cure' has been very satisfactory indeed. Three or four years ago I procured a bottle of your agent, and with it, cured a horse of lameness caused by a spavin. Last season my horse became very lame and I turned him out for a few weeks when he became better, but when I put him on the road he grew worse, when I discovered that a ringbone was forming. I procured a bottle of Kendall's Spavin Cure and with less than a bottle cured him so that he is not same, neither can the bunch be found.

Respectfully yours, P. N. GRANGER.

KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE is sure in its effects, mild in its action as it does not blister, yet it is penetrating and powerful to reach every deep seated pain or to remove any bony growth or other enlargement, such as spavins, splints, curbs, callous, sprains, swellings, any lameness and all enlargements of the joints or limbs, or rheumatism in man and for any purpose for which a liniment is used for man or beast. It is now known to be the best liniment for man ever used, acting mild and yet certain in its effects.

Send address for Illustrated Circular which we think gives positive proof of its virtues. No remedy has ever met with such unqualified success to our knowledge, for beast as well as man.

Price $1 per bottle, or six bottles for $5. ALL DRUGGISTS have it or can get it for you, or it will be sent to any address on receipt of price by the proprietors. DR. B. J. KENDALL & CO., Enosburgh Falls, Vermont.

LONDON, August 29th, 1882.

Editor Deseret News:

Because of the very bitter persecutions which have attended the Josephites in London for some time past; between whom and us the world seem to make no distinction or know no difference, it was deemed advisable to discontinue all outdoor preaching in the London district, in order to prevent the public indignation, so strongly aroused against them, from also being directed against us. As a consequence of this policy, which seemed absolutely necessary for the protection and safety of our people, but few strangers, either from prejudice or because our places of meeting were not generally known, attended our meetings for many months, and the labors of the Elders were therefore directed more toward strengthening the branches than in promulgating the Gospel to the outside world.

Soon after our last district meeting, feeling that we had been held in check long enough and that our field of usefulness had been narrowed down beyond all reasonable proportions, we determined upon a change of policy in this respect. We also felt that if it was absolutely necessary for us to endure persecution in order to do good, we would rather receive and do good, than avoid it and remain idle. I say idle. This may need a little qualification. There is always plenty to occupy our Elders in our present large districts among the widely scattered Saints, for about three-fourths of his time is employed in traveling from place to place, but as we cannot obtain public halls for love nor money in which to hold public meetings, we have no opportunity to preach to the people except upon the Sabbath day, and then only in localities where we are widely known, and where the prejudice against us is so strong that none but members of the Church will attend. I have myself endeavored to hire halls in London and other parts of the Conference, desiring to get beyond the old well-warned districts and endeavor to reach the public from new stands, but in every instance have signally failed. My last effort in this direction was at Faversham where a fine large hall had recently been erected by one of the most liberal of all liberal institutions in this country, but upon making myself known as a "Mormon" I was at once met with the reply: "Mr. West, if you were anything else in the wide world but a Mormon you could have our hall and welcome."

But to return to my subject. Several weeks ago we began to hold out-door meetings, appointing one in each of the three branches of the London district upon the Sabbath afternoon, between the afternoon and evening services. We also had 10,000 tracts published, (a copy of which I send you) containing a brief outline of our faith, giving scriptural references substantiating our doctrines, and announcing our places of meeting in London, to all of which a free and cordial invitation was extended to all lovers of the truth. Our plans worked admirably, for soon we began to be rewarded by a large attendance of strangers at our in-door meetings, and to receive many earnest inquiries after the principles of the Gospel. In fact, so much did we feel encouraged by the Sabbath out-door meetings, that we concluded to extend our labors in this respect, and upon visiting the Park and learning when and where public meetings could be held, soon succeeded in appointing one for every evening in the week, except Saturday, and of continuing our open air services upon the Sabbath day as well. We have thus far met with much success and courteous treatment at the hands of the general public, several hundreds of whom have often gathered around us and listened attentively for an hour or more to our discourses, but the ministers who have ever been known as the bitterest opposers of progress, light and truth, have attempted on some occasions to oppose and disturb us. In a few instances they have undertaken to harangue the crowd after we had finished, seeking to arouse them against us; and once they organized themselves into a mob and followed us out of the Park, showering all kinds of indecent epithets and bitter denunciations upon us. But as the crowd which had listened attentively to us for about an hour had been strongly influenced in our favor, they took no part with these self-constituted emissaries of Satan, but following us quietly, receiving our tracts and making further inquiries about our doctrines.

On Tuesday evening last, at the time appointed for our service to begin in the Regents Park, we repaired to our usual place of meeting, and to our astonishment, found it already occupied and a sectarian meeting in progress. It proved equally as well for us however, for almost immediately it began to rain, and we were compelled to return to the office near by for shelter, while the assembled crowd of oppositionists received a thorough drenching. By our rapid retreat from the storm we also eluded their observation, and no doubt they had the satisfaction of supposing that they had not interfered very much with our programme after all, for we could not have held a meeting there had they not been there. It is to be hoped, therefore, that their sad experience in this brave exploit for the protection of poor, suffering humanity against the attacks of the "Mormon" Elders will have a tendency to cool their ardor in future, and impress upon them the gravenecessity of "finding out which way the wind blows" before they again enter upon such a noble, philanthropic expedition!

Those who labored in the British Mission many years ago and have not been here since, can have but an imperfect conception of the difference between the labors of the Elders then and now. According to a statistical report dated July 10th, 1852, and published in the Millennial Star of that year there were 32,340 Saints in the British Mission, and forty branches in the City of London alone. From the statistical report of December 31, 1881, we learn that there were then but 5,180 Saints in the British Mission, and but four branches in the City of London. The district now included in the London Conference, embracing Buckinghamshire, Bedford, Hereford, Essex, Middlesex, Kent, Surry, Sussex, Hampshire, Berkshire and Wiltshire, about one-fourth of England, was then divided into many conferences, and wherever the Elders went they found many Saints, who were ever ready to administer to all their wants, and to shower upon them the rich hospitalities that flow from the love of the Gospel, and a plentitude of this world's goods. Even in 1862 the Lambeth Branch of the London District, which was one of the many large branches of the great metropolis, numbered over 1,000 souls, twice as many as the whole of London contains to-day, and as many, or more than can now be found in the entire London Conference, covering, as it does, an area many times larger than ever occupied by it before.

As a consequence of this great change the Elders have long journeys to make on foot to reach the Saints, from whom alone they can count upon receiving the necessities of subsistence, and the hospitality of shelter from the storms that are so frequent in this ever-changing and changeable climate.

As a general thing our Elders have no money to hire halls, could they be obtained, none with which to purchase tracts (and all have to buy their own tracts, except in very few instances, or distribute money, and some of them would oftentimes go hungry and lie out in the street, were it not for the little means that is sent them by kind friends in the land of Zion. I now call to mind one Elder presiding over a large district embracing two counties in this conference, who has but two sleeping places among the Saints, and as they are so far apart he cannot reach them oftener than once a week. During the remaining time he is compelled to pay for a bed in a public-house or elsewhere, or sleep out of doors. Another good, faithful Elder who is now a president of a Conference, told me only the other day that he had received but sixpence in his former field of labor, in a period of eight months. Were the Elders in these lands required to strictly observe the injunction of the Savior to His Apostles, contained in the fourteenth verse of the tenth chapter of St. Matthew, their labors would soon be confined to very narrow limits, and the work of "binding up the law and sealing up the testimony would soon be effectually consummated with respect to the greater part of this nation. But in the mercy of God and our brethren, whose sole right it is to direct in these matters, it is deemed best that this should not be done for the present, and our Elders in consequence, labor cheerfully and zealously, not feeling discouraged that it is as I have described for they know that this is but the gleaning after the harvest is over, and that though but few receive their testimony, it is quite as necessary that the wicked should be warned and have an opportunity to reject the gospel as it is that the righteous should be sought out and gathered to the land of Zion. Therefore we thank God for the reward of souls, though few in number, which He gives us from time to time, and await patiently the great and grand consummation of His glorious purposes and decrees.

Elder Evans, of Salt Lake City, writes me that he has recently baptized seven persons in the Wilts and Berts District. Elder Nye of Ogden baptized two at West Dayton on Sunday last, and night before last I had the pleasure of baptizing three persons making eleven in all that I have baptized since my arrival in London.

AGITATOR
Ahead of all Other Competitors!

SALT LAKE CITY,
August 12th, 1882.

J. W. Lowell, Esq.,

Dear Sir.—The J. I. Case Agitator we bought of you last season is the best machine we ever saw or used; it will thresh more grain and thresh it better and cleaner than any other machine we have ever seen, and we can confidently recommend it to any persons wishing to purchase a good Thresher.
Yours, etc.,

John W. Lowell,

Dear Sir.—The Agitator Separator and Woodbury Power that we bought of you, we can truly say give entire satisfaction. It beats anything that we ever saw to thresh and clean. We have run seven different kinds of machines, but this is the champion. The cleaning and the separating are perfect. We have not had a man find fault with it yet, and we believe that the people here will testify to our statement as being the truth. It comes as near being perfect as it is possible for a machine to be. We cannot tell you upon paper all its superior qualities or how much we think of it, but can say this, that could we not get another like it, no money would buy it.
Yours truly,

John W. Lowell,

Dear Sir.—Our machine, Agitator, is doing excellent work. Cleans the best and threshes faster than any Thresher we ever saw.
We remain,
CORRY & HUNTER.

LEHI, Utah County,
February 7th, 1882.
To John W. Lowell, Esq.,

Dear Sir.—As our opinions have often been asked about the merits of the Agitator Threshing Machine we purchased from you last fall, we take pleasure in sending you the following as our experience with it. To answer the numerous inquiries, and perhaps others who would like to know, we recommend the following points of superiority over all other machines we are acquainted with—

1st.—Lightness of draft. Our team of five span of average native horses and mules, being fully equal to the work, and without crowding or hurrying them, they gave us all the speed and power we needed.

2nd.—Thorough threshing and cleaning, and that without extra effort on our part; such a thing as the sieves being crowded or clogged, or requiring the attendance of one person at the tail end of machine having never occurred or been needed.

3rd.—Lightness of wear. After having threshed 18000 bushels of grain, lucern seed, etc., the general wear on the machine being scarcely perceptible.

4th.—Lightness of running expenses. By comparing notes with our friends of other machines, we find ours have not exceeded half of theirs.

We also consider the capacity for threshing in quantity, superior to other makes of machines. Although the farms here are small, necessitating a great deal of moving, and often to distant points, yet we threshed as high as 800 bushels per day.

We also consider the Straw Stacker, End Shake, Elevator principle and many other points are all worthy of notice and examination of any and all persons who may contemplate purchasing a machine.

A. J. EVANS,
M. T. WOODHOUSE,
H. M. ROYAL,
M. B. BUSHMAN.

I have helped wear out four machines of other kinds, and I heartily endorse all of the foregoing points.

A. D. RHODES, JR.

CEDAR CITY, March 18th, 1882.
Mr. J. W. Lowell.

We bought one of the J. I. Case 32 inch Agitator Threshers last year and consider it by far the best Thresher ever brought to this country. It runs very light, saves all the grain and is a very durable machine. We threshed grain at the rate 2½ bushels per minute.
Yours, etc.,
