$10,000 FOR INJURIES

Charles E. Frick Sues the Union Pacific Receivers for Damages.

MRS. LE CLARE WANTS A DIVORCE

From Her Husband, James—Law and Motion Calendar in the Equity Division Called Tomorrow.

Charles E. Frick commenced action today in the district court against the Union Pacific Railway company to receive to recover damages in the sum of $10,000 and for costs of suit. The complaint alleges that on June 29, 1896, Elmer Leroy Frick, a boy twenty-six months of age and son of the plaintiff, was crossing the defendants' track near Tenth South street, when he was struck by an engine and thrown in the air a great distance, resulting in permanent injuries and disfigurement, including a fracture of the skull, bruising of the head and body and a jarring of the nervous system. The complaint alleges that the train was at the time running over the prescribed limit of eight miles an hour within the city limits and was making a speed exceeding twelve miles an hour.

Wants Freedom.

Lucretia Le Clare today entered suit in the Third district court against her husband, James C. Le Clare, praying the court that the bonds of matrimony existing between them be declared void. Mrs. Le Clare denies in her complaint that she married her recreant lord and master on January 9, 1889, in Walsenburg, Colorado, and that on March 1, 1895, the master of her household, disregarding his marriage vows and obligations, deserted his post of duty and has since continued to absent himself from the plaintiff. Mrs. Le Clare wants no alimony, but will be satisfied with a plain, every-day divorce.

Missionary Sociable.

A farewell sociable will be tendered Elder John L. Harding, who will shortly leave to fill a mission in Scandinavia, to the Thirteenth ward meeting house, on Friday evening, the 11th inst., beginning at 8 o'clock. A social dance Saturday morning to return to our mountain homes, the choir and friends intending to take sections, part to take the Rio Grande Western and the rest the Colorado Midland. The two roads run parallel for several miles, and we had quite a lively race, which was enjoyed very much by the young folks. A few stopped at Manitou to take a ride on the cog railway up Pike's Peak. Those on the Rio Grande Western railway had a stop of about ten minutes at the hanging bridge and Royal Gorge to view the beautiful scenery.

We arrived at Leadville about 1:30, where there was quite a crowd collected at the depot to see the Mormons. We stopped a few minutes and sang for them, which was received with cheers. Our next stop was at Glenwood Springs, and although it was after 12 o'clock there was quite a crowd to greet us. The choir gave two selections, after which the train conductor escorted us over to the springs and the Colorado hotel.

We arrived at Grand Junction at 11 about 7 a.m., where the other section was waiting for us. The two trains were coupled together and we pulled out for home.

There were only two accidents on the entire trip—Brother W. H. Fisher had the misfortune to have his head come in contact with one of the car windows, breaking the glass and cutting his forehead and his left hand quite badly from the pieces of glass lodged in his hand; Harv. Horne cut a wheel on the back truck of a car and the car was thrown up on steps and leaning out. When we left Evergreen and the Pass, thirteen of several of the ladies, we had a cow trip home. It was a trip long to be remembered. ERNEST B. FERRON.
