NEWS OF THE WEST.

A Young Man with a Fortune Driven Crazy by Dissipation.

SUICIDE OF AN OLD PIONEER.

Child Falls a Lamp over and is Burned to Death on the Hall—Gasoline Explosion.

California has in the neighborhood of 25,000 acres in almond orchards.

D. H. Bellew, a wealthy old man of Long Beach, Cal., was struck by a train and killed on Monday night.

The Lost, Montana, Herald says that during the cold weather of last week a band of Wilson brothers' sheep piled up and that something over 1,000 head were smothered to death.

While attempting to stop a runaway horse Tuesday evening, A. A. Allen of Los Angeles, Cal., was thrown down and dragged quite a distance, his skull being crushed from ear to ear.

News comes from Keswick, Cal., that there was an explosion of gasoline there Tuesday evening, resulting in the burning of twelve men. Among them Arthur Dean, who is badly burnt.

Conductor William Allison was run over and killed by his train at Sarkville, Col., on Tuesday. He was running ahead of the train to make a coupling when he slipped on the ice and fell on his back across the track.

A collision occurred between two freight trains in the Colorado Midland yard at Glenwood Springs, Col., on Tuesday night. None of the trainmen were injured and the damage done to the engines was not great. The failure of the brakes to work was the cause of the accident.

Adolph Whitebread, a California pioneer, committed suicide at Weaverville, Cal., on Tuesday morning by slashing his throat from ear to ear with a razor. He had recently taken the gold cure for alcoholism, and it is thought the change and the medicine was too severe for a man of his age, as his heart became affected.

A young man with a fortune was committed to the Uniah asylum at San Francisco on Tuesday. The unfortunate is Fred Reiner, a former resident of San Raisel. Reiner some months ago inherited a fortune of $250,000 from the estate of his mother in Germany. He has since devoted himself to a wild orgie of dissipation with the result that he is now a wreck both in body and mind.

Ed. Morrison of Green river, Montana, met with a serious accident at the stock yards in that city on Friday last. He was assisting in unloading cattle and was in one of the chutes opening the door to let the cattle out of the car. He had thrown the door aside and was in the act of shoving the bull bar (a board that is used to keep the cattle in the car when the door is open) when a steer leaped over the top of the bar on top of Morrison, throwing him to the ground and breaking his leg above the ankle.

The body of Mrs. Catherine Quinn who was well known in Alameda, Cal., as "Mother Quinn," was discovered in Brickyard slough, which has but a few inches of water and runs into the Alameda river. High street bridge was from cliff nation by drowning. No one knows just how Mrs. Quinn met her end, but she was 86 years of age, decrepit and poor, and is supposed to have wandered to the small hours of the morning to the point where her dizziness or weakness she fell and died. Those who knew her well do not think she committed suicide.

Great Falls Leader: The storms of the past month, it is estimated by local railroad men, have already cost the Great Northern railway company $1,000,000. This amount only includes the actual money to be paid out to gangs of men employed in clearing the track, the loss of traffic in abandoned trains and the care of passengers while snowbound. On top of all this comes the report that several suits are to be brought against the company by stockmen for stock lost while en route east during the stormy months.

Eddie Matthews died Monday night as the result of burns received in a fire at his home in San Francisco. The child's mother is lying at death's door. The latter has been ill for some time past. A nurse has been attending her and looking out for the two children, Eddie and May. Monday morning the children awoke and the nurse dressed them. Both were then seated at the kitchen table to await their morning meal. It was still dark, and an oil lamp was lighted upon the table. The mother called to the nurse, who responded to the summons, and then the accident occurred. Eddie pulled away at the tablecloth. The lamp fell upon his clothes and they were in flames in a moment. They blazed up and the poor child ran to his mother's room. The sick woman got out of her bed, and after a great effort extinguished the flames, but her boy had been fearfully burned about the face, chest and arms.

Making Poultry Pay.

Just why some cannot make the poultry yard a paying institution is quite plain. Like everything else, it all lies with the man and how he goes about it. One fellow goes at it, He has read considerable about it. He builds large and completely fitted up houses in the most practical way, buys high priced thoroughbred fowls and starts in to make it go. It takes such a man about one season to learn that he knows little and needs experience. This is bought from a small beginning and with several years' actual work with them. Branching out largely at first is seldom done by a prudent or practical person. Anybody can feed and perhaps rear a brood of chicks. To keep a few hens for private use where they live upon the refuse of your table is one kind of chicken business, but when you are in it for your bread and butter, with knowledge and perhaps thousands under your care, it is quite another matter. It can and is paying live workers, but never drones. Don't go at it unless you have patience, tact and lots of ambition. These are very essential points of value to any man who hopes to succeed.

County Name.

Two long word name were said for a new spinn recently at Lincoln, England, which a third brought $1,000.
