CATCHERS DONT LIKE "SPIT" BALL

Lou Criger Relates Interesting Experiences of the Past

HOW CHESBRO LOST PENNANT.

Wonderful Work of "Cy" Young and How He Manages to Keep in Good Form For Years.

No more interesting and instructive gossip concerning the "spit ball" has been heard than that offered by Lou Criger, the star Boston backstop, who caught 97 games in the season just closed.

"The 'spit ball' is a terror to' the catchers." observed Criger the other day. "My hands were in bad shape most of the time this season and I attribute it to the introduction of the 'spit ball' in the pitcher's repertory. The first time I eaught one of them I thought I was going nutty from the Gibson had seen Chesbro hrow the 'spit ball' and he thought he would try it. #### ON THE RACE TRACK. Sensational Events at Ascot-Two Jockeys Suspended. Los Angeles, Jan. 6.—The first race at Acct proved the sensation of the day. It was a steeplechase and as a result of the race two jockeys were indefinitely suspended and the race given to the herse that finished actually third. Jim Bozeman finished first, but was disqualified for running out of the course and his jockey, McBride, indefinitely suspended for not returning and covering the course when ordered to do so. Flea appeared to be the winner at the first jump, when the jockey, Amos, fell off. The judges decided that Amos deliberately fell off. They suspended him indefinitely. Cazador and Ed Lanigan both ran out of the course, but their riders turned around, came back, covered the course and eventually were given first and second money.

About Richard Croker.

About Richard Croker.

London, Jan. 6.—Secy. Weatherby of the Jockey club declines to discuss the reasons for the actions of the Jockey club in interdicting Richard Croker from training his horses on Newmarket Heath, pointing out that under the Jockey club's rules it is not necessary for the stewards to give reasons for their actions. Mr. Croker wired to the Associated Press from Dublin tonight as follows:

"Haven't the slightest idea why the Jockey club barred my uorses from Newmarket."

It transpires that Mr. Croker's trainer, J. E. Bremer, was summoned to attend the Jockey club offices, where Secy. Weatherby verbally intimated that the stewards would not allow Mr. Croker's horses to be trained at Newmarket. In reply to a question Secy. Weatherby added that there was nothing personally against Bremer.

Curiously, the entries of Croker's horses for the forthcoming races have been accepted by Secy. Weatherby, recently.

In an interview at Dublin tonight Mr. Croker repeated that he was not aware of any action on his part which could have provoked the interdiction. He said he had no idea what course the Irish Turf club would take, but he knew the training of the 40 horses he had in Ireland, and he had no hesitatancy in saying that he took greater pleasure in racing in Ireland than in either England or America.

Jockey Dent Killed.

London, Jan. 6.—At the collseum, the largest music hall in London, and which was opened a fortnight ago, a vivid representation of the Derby is reproduced by a revolving stage. Tonight Jockey Dent, riding the outside horse attempted to pull across, but his horse stumbled on the iron work surrounding the revolving platform and relied over the prosenium into the orchestra. Dent was thrown violently on his head and was taken to a hospital unconscious, where he died soon afterward. he died soon afterward.

Another fatal accident occurred at the Collseum during a rehearsal prior to the opening of the house.

PUNCH MADE A COWARD.

How Jack Root Took Fight Out of Ed

"Did you ever hear of one blow making a coward out of a fighter for the rest of his life?" asked Jack McCormiek recentiv. "I know it doesn't occur frequently, but I know of an instance. I had Ed Denfass on my staft a few years ago, and I thought he would develop into a world-beater. He seemed to have everything any fighter ever had. He was clever, and he could hit like Fitzsimmons. He started out bp whipping Bob Long, and then I matched him with Billy Stift, who was a good man then, and Denfass administered such a walloping to Stift that he was in the hospital two weeks. I don't think I ever saw a man beat up worse in my life. This encouraged me so that I took Denfass and put him on with Jack Root at Chicago. I thought if he could put Stift away so easily he could beat Root, which would give him a world-wide reputation. I got him good- and fit for the fight, and thought so well of him that I told my friends to have a bet on us. In the first two rounds he cut Root all to pleces, and I saw bright visions of a victory coming our way. Honors were even in the third, but in the fourth round Root stepped in close and pushed his left straight into Denfass' stemach, it didn't look like such an awfully hard punch, but Denfass went to his knees and gave no signs of getting up i yelled to him to get up and fight, but he said he was hurt and allowed himself to be counted out while in a kneeling posture. Do you know, from that time I could never induce Denfass to fight a high clars man, the has fought some dubs about Philadelphia, but he won't meet a fighter who has a reputation. That one punch Root gave him made him a cur and quitter."

SWITH MAKES BIG SCORE.

Points of Being Perfect.

Capt. A. W. Smith of the Brilliants lowfirg team. In a match game yesterday afterneon, came within three points of making a perfect score. It is very seldem indeed, that the 360 mark is reached, but Smith made a record of 297, and there was no let up in his splendid work until the last frame. The former state record was held by R. W. Young, and was 259.

"PENNY" GOSSIP.

Auto owners will hold a meeting Mon-day night to organize a club. The meet-ing will be at the Salt Lake automobile company's place,

A hockey game was played by picked teams at Fifth North rink last night. The team representing the State street rink won by a score of 3 to 9, The winners lined up as follows: T. Folger, F. Folger, Baker and Myers, forwards; Tozer, cover point; L. Teter, point; O. Erickson, goal.

Chicago, Jan. 6.—John J. Rooney of Chicago defeated Capt. Visiler the Boer wrestler, in a mixed match here tonight. The match was at two styles, catch-as-catch-can and Graeco-Roman. Visiler won the first fall Graeco-Roman, and Rooney the second and third, catch-as-catch-can.

Milwaukee, Jan. 6.—Willie Fitzgerald of Brooklyn got the decision on points over Maurice Thompson of Butte, Mont. at the end of a six-round bout before the Badger Athletic club tonight. The fight was fast from start to finish. Fitzgerald went after his man from the start, in the opening round landing hard right to the jaw. While Thompson got in a few telling blows and fought gamely throughout the bout his blows lacked steam and he was really no match for Fitzgerald.

Young O'Loary of Milwaukee won from for Fitzgerald.
Young O'Leary of Milwaukee won from Carl Walters of Chicago in six rounds.

Virtual extinction marks the race of negro jockeys. Of the few remaining in this country that still pursue this calling with success 8. Bonner is by far the best, and takes rack as a lightweight with the topnotchers of the white bove now riding on the San Francisco tracks. Bonner's appearance in California was halled with enthusiasm, and signalized by a decisive and clean-cut victory on Dr. Leggo in the fifth race on Dec. 15. in which that sterling coit and premising Derby prospect vanguished the best we have of his age hereabouts.

Tug Wilson, the English fighter who Tug Wilson, the English fighter who managed to stay four rounds with John L. Sullivan in the Madison Square Garden. New York, in 1882, is in this country on a visit, and recently visited Sullivan's saloon in St. Louis, John was not at home, but was giving a monologue in a neighboring town, so that he did not see the man who earned a not of money by falling to the floor every time Sullivan aimed a punch at him. Wilson made enough money out of that "fight" to set himself up in business in England, while Sullivan has nothing.

Corbett reached the record probably for training penses when he fought Charley Mitchell Florida. He had three cottages at Mayport, He employed John Donaldson as a heavyweight Dan Creedon as a middleweight, Connie M. Vey as Donaidson as a heavyweight. Dan Creedon as a middleweight, Connie MeVey as a wrestler, and Tom Tracey as a lightweight to train him. He put up a handball court that cost him $2500, and engaged an expert at that sport also. He had from 10 to 100 visitors at his training quarters every day and entertained them royally. He trained three months and spent nearly $8,000, It cost his $1,000 in legal proceedings to get out of Floridh after the fight was over. But Brady hied a special train, making a quick dash to New York, and cleared about $25,000 out of an exhibition in Madison Squaro Garden while popular excitement over the fight was at fever heat.

Brady's theatrical experience enabled him to book Corbett to advantage on the road. In the year following his fight with Sullivan Corbett is said to have netted $250,000, and he spent it all. He samply squandered money. When he got hard up he took small things, such as $1,888 for giving his name to a cigar. Brady and Corbett had made arrangements for photographs of the fight with Fitz at Hot Springs which would have netted them each $100,000, but the match did not come off. Corbett made money even while he was training.

Prince Ouktomsky assumed command of the Port Arthur squadron after Ad-miral Makaroff was drowned as a re-sult of the sinking of his flagsaip, the battleship Petropavlovsk, at the en-trance of Port Arthur, April 13. Later the prince was replaced in command of the squadron by the late Rear Admiral Withoft and after the latter was killed during the naval battle of Aug. 10, Prince Ouktomsky again assumed command of the squadron and it is said, contrary to orders, returned to Port Arthur, for which it was alleged he was to be tried by court-martial. This, however, was denied, but the prince was succeeded in command of the haval forces by Rear Admiral Wiren. Recently, it is understood, Prince Ouktomhas not been attached to any of the Russian ships, The name of Rear Admiral Dochinsky has not figured in the cable dispatches from the far east.

MIDSHIPMAN MANN.

Held by Magistrate to Answer Charge of Assault.

Philadelphia, Jan.*7 .- Richard Mann, a midshipman in the United States na-val academy at Annapolis, was held in $500 bail for a further hearing by a magistrate here today, charged with assault and battery. Mann came here last November with a battallon of midshipment to attend the army and navy football game. According to the story told to the magistrate, John Lyons, aged 11 years, of this city, grabbed Mann's megaphone and ran off with it. Mann, it is asserted, gave chase and when he came up with the fugitive a scuffle ensued, during which Lyons was kicked and severely injured. He was a patient in the University hospital until yesterday. Mann was brought from Annapolis and Lyons appeared against him today. The magistrate expressed the opinion that any person had the right to pursue a thief, but he continued the case in order to give Lyons an opportunity to show, if possible, that the assault upon him was unlawful.

BRITISH NON-CONFORMISTS.

Archbishop of Canterbury Appealed to for Assistance. London, Jan. 6 .- The archbishop of Centerbury, replying to a memorial from Baptists and Presbyterians of America, asking his assistance to prevent the hardships, suffered by non-conformists of Great Britain who object conscientiously to the payment of the educational tax, incloses a copy the educational tax, incloses a copy of a previous reply to the same subject to a memorial from the Baptists' convention in New York. This reply contrasts the bishop of Canterbury's difficulty of understanding the political situation in counection with the presidential election in America with the difficulty of American citizens might experience in understanding the complex educational problems of Great Britain, and maintains that the act under which the tax is levied does not interfere in the smallest de. does not interfere in the smallest degree with religious liberty and that the whole tendency of the bill is to remove so-called non-conformist difficulties. He says the present controversy in Great Buttain would be found to "have other origin and interests than those purely educational."

The archbishop in a letter enclosing this reply says it has afforded him great pleasure to help cement the friendship which he hopes will continue between members of the church of England and their Christian brightnen in America, and continues:

in America, and continues:

"You may rely on my doing everything in my power, not only in England but throughout the world, to remove any mischievous causes of misunderstanding among Christian people."

Columbia May be Shoal Water.

Portland, Or., Jan. 7.—Unless the present Congress passes a river and harbor bill, the Columbia and Williamette rivers will become shoal water ufter the spring freshet and will only be navigable for vessels of light draft. Unless an appropriation is made to relieve the situation, the work of keeping the rivers in navigable condition will cease, and with the stopping of the present improvements all shipping of importance will be cut off. Major Langfeitt, who is superintending the improvements on the two rivers, estimated some time ago that it would require $1,260,000 to complete the work maped out for the coming season, half of this amount being required for improving the roadway between Portland and the sea, $500,000 for the Celio canal, $90,000 for the Willimette above Portland, $00,000 for the improvement of the Columbia river between the mouth of the Willamette and Vancouver, Wash., and $10,000 for the improvement of the Snake river.

What "Weakness" is and How We Cure It.

So-called weakness in men is merely a symptom of chronic inflammation in the prostate gland, brought en by early dissipation or by the improper treatment of some contracted disease. A complete and radical cure is therefore a question of restoring the prostate gland to the normal state, and this we accomplish promptly and completely without the use of internal vemedies. Our treatment is a local one entirely. It is original and scientific and has been proven absolutely effective by thousands of tests. We are convinced that by no other methods can full and permanent restoration of strength and vigor be accomplished.

Absolutely painless treatment that cures completely Investigate our method. It is the only thoroughly scientific treatment for this disease be-ing employed.
