TELEGRAPHIC.

HAWAIIAN REVOLT.

Sharp Fighting and Some Bloodshed in Honolulu.

ROYALIST REBELS CAPTURED

Arms Found in the Ex-Queen's Residence—A Surprise in Diplomatic Circles.

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL., Jan. 18.—The steamer Alameda arrived from Auckland and Sydney via Honolulu this afternoon and brings news of revolution and bloodshed at Honolulu. Charles L. Carter, who was one of the annexation commissioners, was killed and several other government officers were wounded. There has been much fighting and at least twelve native have been killed. Nearly 200 rebels are under arrest. Robert Wilcox is the leader of the rebels. The fighting was still in progress when the Alameda left Honolulu on January 11th but the government forces had practically overpowered the rebellious. The Associated Press has the following cablegram:

HONOLULU, Jan. 11.—Forty-eight hours of intensely exciting suspense ended this morning shortly after 8 o'clock, when the monarchists were brought to bay by the loyal troops, after a bloody battle in the streets. The rebels were driven from their last stronghold in Palama, and surrendered unconditionally. The loss on both sides is not known, but it is believed to be very heavy. The government forces had 5 killed and 15 wounded, among the latter being Captain Parker, of the Marine battalion, who was shot through the lungs. The rebels had 7 killed and 20 wounded, among the latter being Robert Wilcox, who is shot through the thigh. The government forces had 200 men in the fight, and the rebels had about 150. The government forces had 2 Gatling guns, and the rebels had 1 Gatling gun. The rebels had 200 stand of arms, and 1,000 rounds of ammunition were found in the Queen's residence. The rebels had 1,000 rounds of ammunition. The rebels had 2 hospitals, one in Palama and one in Kaiulani hall. The government had 1 hospital, in the Palace. The government forces had 2 ambulances, and the rebels had 1 ambulance. The government forces had 2 Red Cross flags, and the rebels had 1 Red Cross flag. The government forces had 2 surgeons, and the rebels had 1 surgeon. The government forces had 2 chaplains, and the rebels had 1 chaplain. The government forces had 2 newspapers, and the rebels had 1 newspaper. The government forces had 2 bands, and the rebels had 1 band. The government forces had 2 generals, and the rebels had 1 general. The government forces had 2 colonels, and the rebels had 1 colonel. The government forces had 2 majors, and the rebels had 1 major. The government forces had 2 captains, and the rebels had 1 captain. The government forces had 2 lieutenants, and the rebels had 1 lieutenant. The government forces had 2 sergeants, and the rebels had 1 sergeant. The government forces had 2 corporals, and the rebels had 1 corporal. The government forces had 2 privates, and the rebels had 1 private. The government forces had 2 horses, and the rebels had 1 horse. The government forces had 2 saddles, and the rebels had 1 saddle. The government forces had 2 bridles, and the rebels had 1 bridle. The government forces had 2 saddlebags, and the rebels had 1 saddlebag. The government forces had 2 blankets, and the rebels had 1 blanket. The government forces had 2 canteens, and the rebels had 1 canteen. The government forces had 2 haversacks, and the rebels had 1 haversack. The government forces had 2 knapsacks, and the rebels had 1 knapsack. The government forces had 2 tents, and the rebels had 1 tent. The government forces had 2 wagons, and the rebels had 1 wagon. The government forces had 2 mules, and the rebels had 1 mule. The government forces had 2 drivers, and the rebels had 1 driver. The government forces had 2 officers, and the rebels had 1 officer. The government forces had 2 men, and the rebels had 1 man. The government forces had 2 women, and the rebels had 1 woman. The government forces had 2 children, and the rebels had 1 child. The government forces had 2 houses, and the rebels had 1 house. The government forces had 2 churches, and the rebels had 1 church. The government forces had 2 schools, and the rebels had 1 school. The government forces had 2 hospitals, and the rebels had 1 hospital