Gross Ingratitude on the Part of a Destitute Tramp.

SHOOTING IN A MELON PATCH.

Sensational Elopement from Leadville, Colo.—A Prospector Shot and Killed, Etc.

Ben Engelsamp, a saloon-keeper, tried to commit suicide at Leadville on Saturday. He cut an old little sanitarily cut himself about the face and neck. The cause of the attempted self-destruction is not known. He will recover.

The Butte (Mont.) Miner says: A private telegram received in Butte gives the copper production of the United States for July at 7,000 long tons of 15,000,000 pounds. The production of fourteen mines for the same month was 14,500,000 pounds.

Sheriff Hamilton returned yesterday from a hunting trip after game near the Great Falls, Mont., Tribune. He took with him a $100 gun, a $175 rifle, and ammunition enough to exterminate several thousand birds, but brought back all his game in his coat tails pocket.

E. B. Lapham, of Duluth, who has been examining quartz and placer claims in Idaho county, has left for the east, says the Idaho Daily Statesman. He took with him some gold from the Seventh creek placers to show prospective investors. From four pans he recovered 15 cents. He says some wonderfully rich quartz ledges have been discovered recently near Warren.

Laramie Boomerang: There is a rumor afloat that the Union pacific will soon change its divisions, so as to increase the jurisdiction of superintendent Dodge of Denver, by the withdrawal of the Gulf and the abandonment of the Shoshi Park his mileage has been greatly reduced. It is said that part of the Nebraska and Wyoming divisions will be given to Mr. Dodge.

At Milton, Mont., on Friday night, George Cooper, an old prospector, was shot and instantly killed by Hank Beeman, a rounder. Cooper was showing a friend around town, and in visiting a saloon they met Beeman, whom Cooper introduced as "A friend of mine," to which Beeman took exception and shot Cooper. Beeman was a policeman. He also killed a man at Deadwood a few years ago.

C. Dingle, a laborer, was shot on Saturday night near Emma, Colo., by a youth named Harris. Dingle had taken Harris's place on a ranch and the latter became incensed, and while Dingle was working in the field Harris walked up and fired a 32-caliber ball into his head. Harris started to escape and succeeded in getting to Arkansas Junction, near Leadville, where he was captured. Dingle is now at Axton Junction and is not expected to live.

Ed Clapp was shot on Friday night by Cal Burns while in the latter's melon patch at Cheshun, Neb. The shot took effect in the right shoulder. A doctor was called and after removing the pellets and dressing the wound said that unless poisoning set in he did not consider the wound dangerous. No arrests were made, as both parties are friends. Mr. Burns was laying in wait for a "coon" who had been stealing his melons and Mr. Clapp was returning home from a neighbor's house and went into Burns's yard to get a melon.

The Boise (Idaho) County Mining company has let a contract to bore through the false bedrock on its property at Idaho City for the purpose of determining whether or not there is any ground beneath. The contract has been let to Copeland Bros., of Boise. They agree to bore 300 feet from the bottom of the bedrock shaft, which is now 110 feet. They will not down a six inch hole. The contract price is $1,500. Casing and pipe have been sent to the contractors. Work is to begin on or before September 15th and the contract is to be completed on or before December 1st.

Frank Mitchell was sentenced, on Thursday last, to twelve years in the state prison at Folsom, Cal., for arson and robbery. Several weeks ago he came to a ranch in Rinson valley, a tramp and destitute. The proprietor of the ranch, John W. Johnson, gave him a home, and soon after this Mitchell stole some money from Johnson. For this he was forgiven by the rancher, who refrained from prosecuting him. Mitchell's next act was to set fire to the farmer's barn and outhouses, destroying hay, grain, wagons, tools, fowls, and chickens. He admitted the crime and said he did it for fun. Then he was arrested and the judge gave him twelve years to recover from his diabolical freak.

Nevada Enterprise: Wednesday, as Jake Martin's stage, carrying three ladies and a child, reached the culvert between the summit and Spencer's station, near Greenbrook, the horses became frightened by coming suddenly on to a pile of bark which had been left alone in the road. The whole outfit went over the bank, landing bottom up and throwing the occupants out. One of the ladies, Mrs. Gamble, was found under the wagon with the whole weight resting upon her, but beyond a few slight bruises she was unhurt. Mr. Martin and wife, Miss George and little Miss O'Marie were also on the stage, but escaped uninjured. As the stage was twenty feet down in the willows Mr. Martin found it necessary to go to the station for a wagon. Were it not for the thick willows there might have been some fatalities, as it was, not the slightest damage was done to horses, harness, wagon or carrying.

A nice little sensation was created in Leadville city, Colo., on Friday, when the details of an elopement were made public. A few days ago Howard Page, a widower of 40, and Lucy Jeffrey, a little miss of 15, confided they would get married. Page procured a livery team and meeting his fairer by appointment they drove to Kokomo, where they procured a license and were married. They came back here and went to housekeeping. The young girl's parents are bitterly opposed to the match. It seems that Page had been engaged with Lucy's elder sister, but they had a disagreement, when he transferred his affections to the little school girl, who fully reciprocated. A county official who is well acquainted with the parties, says the young bride may be placed under arrest and if deemed advisable by the authorities she will be sent to the reform school. Page, however, says they cannot take her from him, as she is his lawfully wedded wife.
