

ELEGANT PEAU DE SOIE COAT.

The social record has had a decrease in comparison with last week, the events having been fewer and less elaborate. A few weddings, and quiet events in honor of present and prospective brides have taken place, and these, with a small number of Kensingtons and dinners, have made up the list.

Thursday night witnessed the nuptials of two of Salt Lake's popular young people, Miss Margaret Young and Mr. Lucien A. Ray. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Young, Elder H. P. Richards officiating, and a wedding supper was served afterward to the guests present. The bride was beautifully gowned, the decorations artistic, and the event, though quiet and limited to the immediate relatives, a very pretty one. The following friends were present: Maj. R. W. Young, Mrs. R. W. Young and family, Mr. Henry P. Richards, Mrs. Henry P. Richards, Mrs. Margaret J. Young, grandparents of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Oster, Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Young, Mr. William P. Richards, W. A. Ray and Mrs. Ray, father of the groom; Prest. Ira D. Hinckley and wife of Fillmore, grandfather and grandmother of the groom; Mr. Will Ray, brother, Miss Leda Rawlins, Miss Minnie Ray, Mr. Don Ray, Mr. Paul Ray, Miss Angeline Holbrook.

On Thursday at noon, Miss Anna W. Koepf, recently of Los Angeles, and Mr. J. Milton Allen were united in marriage, Bishop G. F. Whitney performing the ceremony at the home of the groom's mother, Mrs. Julia Allen. The parlor in which the nuptials were solemnized was tastefully decorated with American Beauty roses, a screen of autumn leaves across the bay window forming a background before which the bridal couple stood. The dining room was in pink, white and green, asters and ferns being used. The bride wore a handsome going away gown of navy blue, with hat to match and carried roses. The newly married couple left shortly after the ceremony for Denver, but will return to Salt Lake to reside.

A most enjoyable surprise party was perpetrated upon Miss Mattie Hamner, Wednesday evening in honor of her birthday. The rooms were beautifully decorated with cut flowers and ferns and guessing games were the feature of the evening. The invited guests were Misses Minnie Morris, Leona Needham, Clara and Maria Tuckfield, Ruth Holding, Flossie Watson, Fannie and Della Crockett, May and Annie Oswald, Hazel Pond, Jennie and Kathryn DuChene, Miss Hamner and Miss Wilkens, Mr. George Butler, Arthur Bolton, Dave Sprunt, Leo Butler, Evan Gamit, Will Dardthy, Cleve Simms, Heber Essman, George Holding, George Burt, Lawrence Beamer, Ed Shoutis, Frank Eardley and Will Pollock.

Word comes from Judge and Mrs. C. R. Diehl that they had a very pleasant time at Portland where they met several of the former's college friends. From there they went to San Francisco and visited a number of friends, and thence to Stanford where they will spend the coming week before returning from their wedding trip to their Salt Lake home.

On Wednesday the marriage of Miss May Margette and Mr. Harry Oster took place in the Temple, and in the evening a reception was held in their honor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Richards on Second street. The appointments were extremely pretty, and the entire event a delightful one.

Mr. George A. Smith of Lehi, chief bookkeeper of the Utah Sugar company, was married in the Salt Lake Temple Tuesday to Miss Emma A. Fenton of Pleasant Grove. Both are widely known and highly respected throughout Utah country, particularly in business circles. Mr. Smith has been with the sugar company for years and his bride was long associated with the Clark Mercantile company of Pleasant Grove. Mr. and Mrs. Smith will spend a couple of days in the capital and then return to Lehi to make their future home.

Mrs. Francis Armstrong entertained at a pleasant affair on Thursday, "43" being the amusement of the afternoon. The rooms were prettily decorated with palms, ferns and autumn flowers, and about 20 guests enjoyed the event. The prizes in the contest were won by Mrs. Albert Barnes and Mrs. P. W. Madison. The guests were: Mrs. Sarah Dinsdale, Mrs. P. W. Madison, Mrs. H. W. Madison, Mrs. Arnold, Mrs. Snell, Mrs. Albert Horne, Mrs. Lamborne, Mrs. W. B. Bean, Mrs. E. L. Burton, Mrs. D. H. Livingston, Mrs. W. E. Armstrong, Mrs. William Armstrong, Mrs. Albert Barnes, Mrs. Joseph Smith, Mrs. Henry Coulam, Mrs. O. P. Arnold, Jr., Mrs. Joseph Wells, Mrs. Emma Sildaway, Mrs. Fannie Sildaway, Mrs. Elizabeth Moyle, Mrs. Magale Moyle, Mrs. Comstock, Mrs. Theodore Burton, Miss Sadie Smith, Miss Lizzie Arnold, Miss Birdie Arnold.

Tonight the Utah Press association will be entertained at the home of the Misses Campbell on North State street and an informal program given by a number of the members will be one of the features of the affair, which promises to be a pleasant one.

Among the delightful affairs of the week were the functions given by Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Miller. On Wednesday Mrs. Miller was hostess at an elegant party, about 30 being present. The rooms were prettily decorated with autumn leaves and plumosa and prizes were won by Mrs. George Stein and Mrs. Warren C. Ingue. Yesterday Mrs. Miller gave a delightful Kensington, and last night Mr. and Mrs. Miller entertained at cards, a large number of friends being present to enjoy the pleasant event.

An interesting nuptial event of the day evening at the Salt Lake theater to see "The Toy Maker," followed by a supper at the Vienna cafe. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Brown and Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Daly.

Mrs. Harry Hathaway is in the city and will visit for some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Byron Groo.

Mrs. G. Swan has returned from the coast.

The marriage of Miss Pauline Groo and Mr. Arthur Davies will take place next Tuesday night at St. Mark's cathedral.

The Misses Holmes left Tuesday for Chicago, to re-enter college.

Mrs. George M. Hanson of Ogden is spending a few days in the city with friends.

Mrs. A. G. Andrews and Mrs. John Reed have issued invitations for an afternoon musicale to be given at the home of Mrs. Andrews next Friday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Melvin of Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Banks of Chi-week was the wedding of Miss Alice Minnie Bartch and William H. Child which took place on Tuesday at the home of the bride's parents, Judge and Mrs. Bartch. The house was adorned with a profusion of flowers and greens for the event, and a large number were present. The newly married pair left on the 10:50 train for a trip to the coast.

Mrs. D. E. Moore was hostess at a delightful card party on Wednesday evening in honor of her daughter Mrs. Wragg of Spokane. The rooms were decorated with autumn leaves and flowers, and a pleasant feature of the afternoon was an impromptu program.
