THAT INJUNCTION.

Sovereign Says He Will Go Ahead with the Proceedings.

OPINION OF TREASURY OFFICIALS.

Objections to the Gold Clause.—A Theory about the Gold Reserve. —A Syndicate of Bankers.

DES MOINES, Ia., Jan. 19.—General Master Workman Sovereign was seen by an Associated Press representative here tonight regarding the proposed injunction proceedings against Secretary Carlisle.

"It may be a good deal like a moose tackling a lion," he said, "but we are going to do it."

A petition praying for an injunction to restrain Secretary Carlisle of the United States treasury from issuing bonds in the sum of $50,000,000, or in any other amount, Sovereign said, would be drawn up here by Judge Cole, sworn to by Sovereign and sent to Washington, to be filed in the United States circuit court of the District of Columbia the first of next week.

Tonight Sovereign sent a dispatch to Senator Allen of Nebraska, asking him to make an argument in the case before the court in Washington.

"As a matter of fact," said Sovereign, further, "if they wish to stick to the legislative $100,000,000, we insist that there is now more than double the present deficit in the treasury, and the amount is to be silver. Again, if they wish to stick to the text of the legal reserve of $100,000,000, we have them, for if the reserve they claim was established by law, then the secretary of the treasury violated the law when he allowed the encroachments of the reserve."

Sovereign expressed fear that the case would be taken out of the court. He is determined to fight the matter until the last trigger is cocked.

CARLISLE DECLINES TO SPEAK.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 19.—The direction accompanying the threatened injunction by the Knights of Labor against Secretary Carlisle, to restrain him against issuing $50,000,000 in bonds, was taken to the treasury department this afternoon and shown to Secretary Carlisle. He declined to say anything whatever on the subject for publication. Other officials of the department were not surprised on hearing of the contents of the document. The feeling of the Knights of Labor and labor unions generally on the bond question is known to be unfavorable, as shown by resolutions against it. The officials unite in the opinion that the secretary has nothing more than a temporary delay to fear our injunction proceedings, and with the law do not think in the least degree probable. It is believed that no delay would be occasioned by these threatened legal proceedings, as even a temporary injunction would be denied.

OBJECTIONS TO THE GOLD CLAUSE.

A strong sentiment is expressed among the silver leaders of the House against the gold clause in Secretary Carlisle's notice of bond sale. Representative Bland (Democrat) says: "The standard silver dollar is full legal tender, and it can be offered and received in payment for these bonds." Some silverites may take issue with Bland on this point.

Aside from the legality of the gold clause, the silver men say it is against public policy to make a public discrimination against one of the money metals now in use, and the effect of the secretary's action is to tend to send gold coin to a premium, and disturb the parity between gold and silver coins.

Representative Tracy (Democrat) of New York, one of the silver leaders of the House, says Secretary Carlisle wants no more silver, for he already has in the treasury much more than he wants. What is needed is gold. It is fortunate, under these circumstances, that the law allows him to secure the particular metal he wants. While the bonds are payable in gold, yet in selling them the secretary has authority to secure payment in any class of coin he needs, as the express purpose of that law was to give means for meeting the needs of the treasury.

NO GOLD RESERVE.

Some treasury officials have a theory that there actually exists no funds that can be properly termed "gold reserve." The so-called gold reserve, which was created by Secretary Sherman under the act of 1875, has been entirely wiped out by the redemption of United States and treasury notes, for which purpose it was originally created. If this theory is carried to its legitimate conclusion, it is held that the government has not been using the gold reserve for the payment of current expenditures, but has been merely drawing on its stock of assets, represented by gold. It is said that certain figures bearing out the deductions above referred to have been prepared for the use of Secretary Carlisle, and he will shortly issue a statement on the subject.

TO TAKE THE BONDS.

NEW YORK, Jan. 19.—It is understood that a syndicate of New York bankers are preparing to offer to take the entire proposed issue of fifty millions of bonds at Carlisle's figures. Boston, Chicago and Philadelphia bankers want a share of them, however, and to prevent them from overbidding it is likely they will be admitted to the syndicate.

Where Bonds Objectionable.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—Senator Vest today stated that he should protest against the designs for the award medals at the World's Columbian exposition. He secured proofs from the Philadelphia mint and on one side of the medal it was discovered that the design was that of a steamer, specimen of American manhood, holding in his right hand a lighted torch and in his left a shield, nearly all the results modernes the design and some other figure will probably be substituted.

A Scare and a Sale.

COUNCIL BLUFFS, Ia., Jan. 19.—Leon W. Lozier, the well-known banker of this city, last evening attempted to commit rape on little Madeline Anderson, five years old, daughter of Chris Anderson. Lozier was caught at Omaha and placed in the county jail, and loud threats of lynching were heard. When taken to jail he was followed by an excited crowd. Lozier urged the officers to hasten, as he was afraid he would be lynched. He denies the crime, but the evidence is strong against him.

A large crowd surrounded the jail where Lozier is confined. Rock as lynching him. Sheriff Hazen made a speech, saying he would defend the prisoner with his life. The Dodge Light Guards were called to the scene, and at a late hour the mob was dispersing.

THE MONTGOMERY.

A New Cruiser Covering Herself with Glory.

NEW LONDON, Conn., Jan. 19.—The new cruiser Montgomery made her official trial trip today, in the words of some members of the official trial board, "covering herself with glory," and acquiring the title of "speed of her class." She made the extraordinary speed, as estimated, of 19 knots an hour, with the tide against her going out and in her favor returning, and entering these figures is a slight correction for that change, which is likely to be in her favor, the result of the trial assures the builders of a premium of at least $170,000, and perhaps $250,000.

The Harvard-Yale Debate.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Jan. 19.—The fifth debate between Harvard and Yale was held here tonight. Harvard was awarded the decision by the judges. The question debated was "Resolved, That Independent action in Politics is Preferable to Party Allegiance." Yale had the affirmative.

Railroad Negotiation and Suicide.

ST. PAUL, MINN., Jan. 19.—F. B. Jixon of Jixon & Gaiteins, dealers in railroad supplies, for many years a leading business man of this city, committed suicide this afternoon by shooting himself in the head. Business depression was the reason for the suicide.

A Contest Decided.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 19.—The House committee on elections by a practically unanimous vote, today decided in favor of Thomas Settle (Rep.) whose seat was contested by Welborn (Dem.) from the Fifth North Carolina district.

The Revenue Bill.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 19.—The Democratic members of the ways and means committee met this evening and decided to report the income and revenue bill, with the income tax provision, to the full committee and to the House on Monday.

THE EVENTS FROM ABROAD.

Minister Willis's Astonishing Proposition to Prest. Dole.

A Proposed Monetary Union of the Leading Countries of the World —African Scrape.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 19.—The steamer Monowai arrived from Sydney, Auckland and Samoa, via Honolulu, late this afternoon. She brings full Hawaiian advices to the Associated Press, a week later than the previous advices.

HONOLULU, Jan. 19.—The candidacy of Walter G. Smith, editor of the Star, to fill the vacancy to be created upon the return of Hon. F. M. Hatch, who will resign to accept the position of minister of foreign affairs, still holds a prominent place in Hawaiian politics.

Both Minister Willis and Consul-General Mills appear to be sore on account of the treatment of the United States government in Hawaii, as well as on account of the personal snubbing they claim the American residents here have given them lately.

The government is determined to celebrate the 17th of January as a national holiday, and preparations are being made to carry out a big demonstration.

The question of a republic still occupies attention, but the government delays action, awaiting the absolute rejection of Hawaii's hopes by the United States Congress.

Rumors of an expected royalist uprising were prevalent recently. In an interview with Marshal Rickenson that officer said: "The government is fully prepared in most any outbreak, either here or on the other islands. The royalists have threatened so long that the royal standard will be raised on one of the other islands, that we are prepared to thoroughly squelch any uprising that may be made, either through irresponsible persons or through the influence of Spreckles, of the Cornwall house."

Just previous to the sailing of the Monowai a sensational rumor was current, which was traced to an authoritative source, that a few days after President Dole's reply was delivered to Minister Willis, and before the full details of Willis's demands and Dole's reply became public, Willis called upon Dole and endeavored to persuade him to return all his (Willis's) correspondence on the subject of annexation and expunge from the records Dole's reply and everything relating to the subject, and maintain absolute secrecy about the whole transaction.

Dole flatly refused to enter into such a plan and it is said that Willis then attempted to force Dole to act according to his wishes and threatened to take the American men-of-war out of the harbor and practically break off diplomatic relations between the United States and Hawaii. Dole still refused to enter into the project and Willis's alleged attempt to nullify his resignation policy failed.

Plan for a Monetary Union.

LONDON, Jan. 19.—The correspondent of the Standard at Berlin says: Those persons interested in promoting a new monetary consensus have prepared a plan for submission to the governments most closely concerned in the silver question. The plan will propose that the United States, France, England and Germany form a monetary union upon the following basis: The United States to buy and use for currency purposes $50,000,000 in silver yearly, and France, representing the Latin Union, to purchase $50,000,000 (francs) worth. England and Germany to withdraw all gold coinage and paper money under the value of £1 sterling and to buy £500,000 worth of silver yearly in the open market, and have coins under £1 in value against the full amount deposited for silver coinage; India to resume the unlimited coinage of silver; the price of silver to be fixed by the countries mentioned at a second of the persons interested say, 58 per ounce above the London rupee price, and to be alterable only at the beginning of each year. If the average London price of silver falls at any time 15 per cent below the conversion price the members of the union are to have the option to withdraw and dissolve the union.

This plan will be accompanied by a long series of remarks and comments, which will include a document attempting to prove that an acceptance of the proposed regulations by England and Germany will be perfectly compatible with their maintaining the gold standard, and an attempt to explain the high exchange price of silver by the necessity for offering the owners of silver mines a profit sufficient to induce them to dig their output.

In Darkest Africa.

LONDON, Jan. 19.—The foreign office received a dispatch today from Lieutenant Colonel A. B. Ellis, the British officer in command of the troops at Sierra Leone, west coast of Africa. Colonel Ellis reports that Inspector Taylor of the Hausser police was pursuing Dorbelle, who overthrew Lavalja a friendly country. During the pursuit the column arrived at Kenyamma December 31st, and found the place to be a perfect charnel house. Scores of slaughtered captives, including women and children were strewn about, and sixty wounded people were among the all alive. The chiefs from the patrolling bodies were outside in the extreme.

Inspector Taylor started in pursuit of the Moas who did the bloody work, and came close upon them January 2nd at Bagwema. The border police found the place strongly protected by stockades and other defenses. The police, however, carried the place by storm in a separate of an hour, killing 200 Moas and wounding 17 others. In addition the border police rescued all the guns and ammunition of the Moas and rescued 400 slaves, a majority of whom were women and children.

Trouble in Samoa.

APIA, Samoa, Jan. 3, via San Francisco, Jan. 19.—The native in the district of Hana rebelled and proclaimed Tamasese king. Tuis Tamasese is a son of the former German puppet king and he has a large following. The people of Savii have declared allegiance to King Malietoa, and are gathering to his support.

Miscellaneous Court Affairs.

NEW YORK, Jan. 19.—A meeting of the reorganization committee of the Nicaragua Canal company was held yesterday at the office of the company.

Servian Crisis.

LONDON, Jan. 19. A dispatch to the Times from Vienna says: Telegrams from Belgrade, Servia, indicate that the crisis in the government is rapidly approaching a state of confusion. The relation of the cabinet with the king are almost as strained as they possibly could be.

Special services in the Standard and other papers confirm the rumors that a serious crisis exists in the Servian government. Ex-King Milan left Paris last night for Belgrade.

Recruits for Honolulu.

HAVERHILL, Mass., Jan. 19.—For several weeks parties have been in town securing men ostensibly to go to Brazil to fight in the Brazilian army. It is rumored, however, that the real destination of the men is Honolulu, where they are to fight for Queen Liliuokalani. One of the prospective recruits, Samuel Mellor, states that he promised to sign articles and was promised a lieutenancy and $100 per month if he would go to the Sandwich islands. Forty-six men promised to sign articles.

A Case of St. Vitus Dance Cured, Demonstrating the Skill of the Physicians of the Zion Medical & Surgical Institute.

The $5 Rate for All Diseases Closes Feb. 1st.—Nervous and Chronic Diseases a Specialty.

George Stanley, Esq., a prominent business man of Payson City, Utah, in conversation with the writer, said: "My little son, Raymond, was a great sufferer when I consulted Drs. Shores & Shores of the Zion Medical and Surgical Institute, located 34 East and South St., Salt Lake City. After an examination the doctors informed me his disease was cases for St. Vitus dance; and I asked him the question, Can he be cured? The doctors answered me with an unqualified yes, and it gave me great pleasure to state that after two months' treatment by those eminent specialists in chronic and nervous diseases that he was entirely cured. He commenced to gain before from the first. My little boy's case was certainly a bad one. He began to look bad, and was peevish and fretful, his temper was irritable, his sleep was disturbed by disagreeable dreams. He was very flighty and nervous, could not sit still. The movements of his face would twitch, his gait was peculiar, being slow and stealthy. No matter where the bad was placed it could not be kept steady. So grave were all these symptoms that it seems almost a miracle that he was restored to perfect health in so short a time.

"I heartily recommend Drs. Shores & Shores."

The above case is one of special interest to parents. Many children are subject to the same nervous symptoms, yet in a milder form. This should never be neglected. All such cases, if taken in the early stages, can be cured. Drs. Shores & Shores have proved this fact in the case of little Raymond Stanley.

REMEMBER,

All patients who apply for treatment during the month will be treated until cured for $5 a month, medicines furnished FREE.
