The Evening paper is the paper of Today, the morning paper is the paper of Yesterday.

DESERET EVENING NEWS.

5 O'clock -EDITION.-

TRUTH AND LIBERTY.

TUESDAY, MARCH 19, 1895, SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH.

NO. 98 VOL. XXVIII.

EVERY SOUL LOST.

Four Hundred and Twenty Officers and Men of the Reina Regente

FOUNDED NEAR GIBRALTAR.

Only Twenty Men Left Out of Twenty Twelve of the Reina Visiting Above the Water.

CADIZ, March 18.—The Spanish cruiser Alphonso XIII reports having found the missing mother Reina Regente sunk near Rafe Ammonte, but only twenty in close of the crew were saved. The Alphonso XIII has returned to the scene of the wreck with steam to recover the bodies. The Reina Regente carried a crew of 420 men and men and all are believed to have perished.

Senor Don Moreno, formerly officer in the Spanish navy, in the Chamber of Deputies March 18, read a statement of the former commander of the Reina Regente, in which the writer recalled the course as a vessel unmanageable without a heavy storm, owing to the crowded condition of the ship, the heavy armament, which became so out the over weight of the officer's sent gave was reduced to two men, by his orders "men for the number of sailors.

In Cuba and Cienegas, where most of the crew belonged there has been the GREAT and sorrowful grief for the disaster the cruiser was reported sinking.

The Reina Regente, about two years ago, left for New York on the occasion of the Columbian exposition which escorted from the Atlantic the Committee over. The vessel was launched in 1887 and was one of the second class of protected cruisers of the same build, and in ship being Alfonso XIII and is 7 feet, all of 1,000 tons, 12,000 horse power and expected to steam 20 knots. The armed cruiser was not carrying but 20 feet 8 inches, but are displacement of 1,000 tons. The cruiser deck was 14 inches thick on its slope and but carrying lower non armed deck and the gun shields were inches thick. The armament consisted of two Hontoria guns, one on each side forward of the conning tower and two gun shields aft, six of Hontoria guns in the forward side, the forward and after pair in second middle middle pair in rear, with two 32 rapid fire and contingent. He was also filled with 1 torpedo tubes.

Blame Was.

NEW YORK, March 18.—A. Barclay Walker, the father Alice was the the is sitting trial today. Dum Dum to the Dum Dum, defending the father of the Outside. The Rainbow are complete.

A SQUAD IN THE CASE.

Jail for Cash Goes to the Amount of Thousands.

CHICAGO, March 18.—Christopher E. Gordon, Iowa, and cashier of Sigel Smith & Co., wholesale coal merchants, Kansas, and all accounts [illegible] Detectives have [illegible] in Iowa since Tuesday. A [illegible] is said to be in the case.

Another Fair Will.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 18.—It now [illegible] has reported latest will of James G. Fair was left to the charge of Mr. Nettie L. Chalmers, a principal [illegible] Fair, who was a great friend of Senator Fair. The will was written in the house of a Mrs. Hopkins, with whom Mrs. Craven was living, and in the presence of both witnesses. Mrs. Craven says it came about in [illegible]

When Fair and gone to visit her, the conversation turned to wills, so Senator Fair said that his lawyer at all events is not to get any [illegible] would like it. Fair made some other remarks which led Mrs. Chalmers to think he meant a new will was not time and had to make a provision [illegible] for the support of [illegible] Fair and [illegible] years of age [illegible] the last seventy agreed [illegible] down and wrote the most [illegible] which had been present [illegible]

The Mrs. assigned for keeping the [illegible] in the safe ground is [illegible] the [illegible] and look at [illegible] of the will when Fair died, and [illegible] will was unexpectedly [illegible] in the case of later date.

The [illegible] of Charlie Fair's [illegible]

Bullfrog Was up to Shenanigans.

[illegible] was up to Shenanigans [illegible] the bullfrog's [illegible] the bullfrog's [illegible] the bullfrog's