

THE DISTRICT COURT.

Orders Made in the Two Divisions at This Morning's Session.

RULINGS BY JUDGE WATCH.
 Settlement of the Bill of Exceptions in the Thiede Murder Case—Miscellaneous Matters.

The most interesting feature of today in the Third Circuit court was the arraignment of Mrs. Mulvaney and Charles Valentine Solan Judge Jarrish. The proceedings lasted but a very short time, being purely formal. A crowded audience was there nevertheless. The particulars of this matter will be found in another column. Here we mention but courts held adjourned Judge Bartholomew tomorrow morning and Chief Justice Merritt until 2 p.m. today.

Judge Merritt's Program.

In the case of C. L. Sanford vs. Frank Drake, previously argued and submitted be, the motion for a new trial was denied, an exception to the ruling being entered. The court remarks that the decision was based entirely upon the law on the matter.

ed in another animal, the motion of the dance and that a normal was denied, the judge observing that at the present time there was no sufficient showing to warrant him in issuing such a decree. J. Sawyer

It should be shown in the future that there had been any fraud in the transaction, the defendants would still have a remedy.

signs, vs. H. H. Hays, the defendant's counsel, who motioned for judgment in the proceedings was denied.

George Mason indicated that he had no other cases under investigation, but he would defer his testimony there for the present, as requested by the state.

THE THREE DINNER CLAM, ANGLIAN DISTRICT ANGLICAN HOUSE

to Judge Getty, the defendant's counsel, his proposed amendments the bill of exceptions in the case of the three trials, under various heads for wife murder, and whose a number of the courts have sustained.

the starting term of the Festival Systems Corp. The matter was subsequently turned over with Justice Harlan to consider and the bill of exchange was settled.

WALLY CALLS IT "JUNGLEBOY."

young daughter, she will file the non-directed verdict of acquittal. Not to be outdone, the grand jury presented an indictment charging the defendant with kidnapping her from the state with intent to Warrant has since been exhibited in a postmortem, pending his trial at a February term of court. Having been held in a hotel home, his attorney, W. Kelly, this morning applied to the assigned by prosecuting Attorney Howard, whereupon Mr. Holly protested against the "legal jugglery" which had been performed by the prosecutor throughout this case. He said it was asked the defendant in the prosecution until February or March, and entreated the court to grant the present request, saying that upon Walker's behalf a defense of error in judgment marked that from all that was said before the grand jury, he thought it best place for the defendant, in the service of his family, was the pen-

Before Judge Merrell.
Ezekiel Holmes vs the Mirga. F. case Co. Case continued for the 1st by consent.

Lucy H. McCornick et al. vs. James H. McCornick. Order of dissolution and cause of action and transfer same to law and motion calendar.

Interest National bank vs. Thomas Snarr, administrator, et al. This case

Wynn Library Co., et al vs Harbo
G. Station et al. Motion of the plaintiff for the appointment of a receiver denied, after argument.

In the case of Frank P. Lewis Harvey Murty, the clerk was instructed to issue a citation for the defendant to appear and answer plaintiff's statement of contest on January 2nd.

In the case of Arthur Hosen, P. H. Lannan et al, ten days ad-

Going to Idaho.
Judge Harsh will leave tomorrow.

for Pocatello, Idaho, where he will spend Christmas. His visit there will, however, be of short duration, as he expects to return to Salt Lake on Tuesday or Wednesday next.

Look Out for the Date.
The stenographic competition for the covered part of assistant official stenographer of the Third district commences at 10 o'clock tomorrow.

next, at 1130 in the Supreme Court.