EVENTS IN THE WEST

A Record of Occurrences in Neighboring States and Territories.

GOLD-BEARERS FROM THE KLONDIKE.

Eight Second Cabins Brought Between Lives in Peril and Fifty-six Lives from Cody Morris.

An average of four letters a day are written to the Mayor of the Christian Endeavor city of Cheyenne.

Pete Gerrie, who has played many parts in the Montana Republican field, is the nominee of the Silver Democrats.

John Grove, who is now a lumberman in Oregon, is the oldest Elk living, being 84 years of age. He was born in Kentucky.

At the North Pacific Association meeting, which adjourned Saturday, twenty-one new members were added, four being from Portland, three from Spokane and seven from Seattle, which brings the total up to 1,000.

John B. Rose, professor of political economy in the University of Washington, died Sunday morning, shortly after the Sunday school class in which he was teaching had left his room. He was 40 years of age. His remains, it is believed, will be taken to the home of his father, who lives in the east.

Stockyards in Illinois daily visited Omaha and the Pacific. At the Omaha and the Pacific. At the Omaha and the Pacific. At the