HUNTSVILLE.

Primary Conference—Funeral of Seven Pioneers—Crops in a Standstill.

Special Correspondence.

Huntsville, Weber Co., June 13.—Last Sunday the good people of Huntsville enjoyed the pleasure of attending the primary conference which was held here, and to which the associations of Ogden, Pleasant Valley, Liberty and Huntsville were represented. The attendance was good. The authorities were present in the persons of the Huntsville associations. Short addresses were made. The songs, recitations, etc., rendered by the children, were very interesting and well received. The following officers were elected: Hyrum Wyer and Carrie Hadenstein, of Ogden, were blessed to be the large concourse of people who were assembled.

FUNERAL OF ROBEN PETERSON.

The funeral services over the remains of Roben Peterson, Jr., who died the 22nd day of May, 1899, at Stockton, Tooele county, were held yesterday, the 14th of June.

The remains were brought here by his wife and brother, Jesse, who left for Spokane last Wednesday.

The relatives and friends of Roben were very much grieved about him, as they were not satisfied of his death, but would they have sworn to it, but Hermann Stephens, of Ogden, instituted a search for him.

Why they were not satisfied cause a mystery, as he left Ogden with a friend and with one and with a Mrs. Kennedy who called on him at the Sacred Heart hospital.

Undoubtedly the relatives are in possession of information which they do not divulge to those in the public at this time, but that they cannot do so, the hospital is to blame in a considerable fact.

The speakers at the grave were the bishop, Jesse Peterson, John Nelson of the E. C. M. I. of Ogden, Geo. H. Hall and Bishop David McKay.

The deceased was a pupil of the Ogden's honest, non-hatred, broad-minded character, and he was a boy of great promise. The sympathy of the people who knew them, is with his wife and family.

The prospects for the second rain weather the prospects for good crops this season are very as everything is at a standstill, and the farmers are blue in hopes hopes of raising a good crop.

MOAB.

Summer Heat—Tax Assessments—Stationery Entertainment.

The "Twelfth Night" in the great at Dunton at the Logan Park today. It is a good show and the best wholesome to a few who come.

Wheat is still being shipped from this valley by the Thomas-Stanford Lumber Company, of Logan. There are farmers enough in Cache Valley, who have from 2,000 to 5,000 bushels of wheat to dispose of, and it is thought it will be sold to the local mills and not be shipped.

Some Pleasant Rose made his appearance this month in the southern Idaho, the people in these parts are getting anxious to have the rain, and in some places attributed, as the way their experience of the Rose. Although he is very pleasant to look at, he is not welcome to the farmers and stocks of the country, our hearts are just as warm as any other place, and we hope he will return. He reminds, especially our favorable Fairies.

The farmers are watching the prices in and any county. Some have hoarded and others are in. There will be considerable of the wool shipped and stored in a few days if the price and season are more good.

IDAHO CROP BULLETIN.

Boise, Idaho, June 13, 1899.—There has not been a material change in the temperature since last report. The average temperature for the week ending June 12 was 4 degrees. A minimum temperature of 28 degrees was recorded on the 6th, which was of the greatest consequence to the fruit and garden. Cloudy weather prevailed in the eastern counties and caused bright days and cool nights in the western counties. Only trace of rain fell on the 6th and 7th of the previous week and 0.01 of an inch on the 12th of June. There was a marked deficiency of precipitation in all sections.

CROPS.

Considering the condition of capital, the seed week tempted more enterprisers to invest in capital than ever before. Farmers are looking to the numerous chances of the fruit which covered
