Postmaster Thomas is arranging for the collection of letters from the larg-er business houses between 4 and 5 p. m., daily, by special carrier. This improvement was suggested by the congested condition of the letter doxes when the late afternoon carriers made their rounds between 5 and 6 o'clock Parties sending out circulars generally take that time to dump their mail mat-ter into the boxes which loads the carter into the boxes which loads the car-riers down so that important letters that otherwise would get off eather are delayed. There is no special appropria-tion for this service, but the postmas-ter believes he can so arrange matters that it can be introduced. This will that it can be introduced. This will prove of great value and convenience to business men.
