CHICAGO, 10. — The Journal's Washington special says the grand jury of Caroline County, Maryland, will investigate the Bennett-May duel and indict the principals and accessories thereto, if the affair is found to have occurred there.

Ex-Governor Osborn, of Kansas, who is here, denies the story that he has a confession of the parties who claim to have lynched old man Bender and family, nor does he know of such an occurrence.

COLUMBIA, S. C., 10.

His Excellency D. H. Chamberlain, Gov.

Dear Sir—Recurring to the views severally expressed by us during a personal conference which we had the honor to hold with you yesterday in regard to the political complications which have grown out of the late canvass in this State, we beg leave to apprise you formally of the conclusions we have reached after mature deliberation and the gravest reflection, which we have been able to bestow upon the subject. Whilst we are no less inspired with admiration for the dignified and resolute manner in which you consistently maintained your claims to the gubernatorial chair by virtue of the election held in November last, and though we are solemnly impressed with the validity of your title to the office, we are unanimous in the belief that to prolong the contest in the absence of that moral aid to which we feel ourselves justly entitled at the hands of the national administration, installed in a larger measure through some agencies which are held to be insufficient for our maintenance, will be to incur the responsibility of keeping a live partisan prejudice which are in the last degree detrimental to the best interests of the people of the State, and perhaps of precipitating a physical conflict that could have but one result to our defenceless constituency. We cannot afford to contribute, however, indirectly, to such a catastrophe, even in the advocacy of what we know to be our rights. We are agreed, therefore, in counselling you to discontinue the struggle for the occupancy of the gubernatorial chair, convinced as we are that in view of the disastrous odds to which its maintenance has been subjected by the action of the national administration, your retirement will involve no surrender of principles, nor will its motive be misapprehended by the great body of that political party to which, in common with ourselves, you are attached, and whose success in the past in this State has been ennobled by your intelligent and unselfish services. We have the honor to be,

Very respectfully yours.

COLUMBIA, S. C., 10.—The United States troops were formed in line and moved out of the State House at noon, to-day.

Chamberlain has just issued the following address, on retiring from the contest for the governorship:

"To the Republicans of South

Carolina:

"By your choice I was made governor of this State in 1874. In the election last November I was again, by your votes, elected to the same office; my title to the office, upon every legal and moral ground, is to-day as clear and perfect. By the recent decision and action of the President of the United States, I find myself unable longer to maintain my official rights with the prospect of final success, and I hereby announce to you that I am unwilling to prolong a struggle which can only bring further suffering upon those who engage in it. In announcing this conclusion it is my duty to say for you that the republicans of South Carolina entered upon their political struggle for the maintenance of their political and civil rights, constituting beyond question a large majority of the lawful votes of the State. You allied yourselves with that political party whose controlling and inspiring principle has hitherto been the civil and political freedom of all men under the constitution and laws of our country. By the heroic efforts and sacrifices which a just verdict of history will rescue from the cowardly scorn now cast upon them by political placemen and traders, you secured the electoral vote of South Carolina for Hayes and Wheeler. In accomplishing this result you became the victims of every form of persecution and injury. From authentic evidence it is shown that no less than 800 of your number were murdered because they were faithful to their principles and exercised the rights solemnly guaranteed to them by the nation. You were denied employment, driven from your homes, robbed of the earnings of years of honest industry, hunted for your lives like wild beasts, your families outraged and scattered for no offense except your peaceful and firm determination to exercise your political rights. You trusted, as you have a right to trust, that if by such efforts you established the lawful supremacy of your political party in the nation, the government of the United States, in the discharge of its constitutional duty, would protect the lawful government of the State from overthrow at the hands of your political enemies. From causes patent to all men, and questioned by none who regard the truth, you have been unable to overcome the unlawful combinations and obstacles which have opposed the practical supremacy of the government which your votes have established.

"For many weary months you have waited for your deliverance. While the long struggle for the presidency was in progress you were exhorted by every representative and organ of the national republican party to keep your allegiance true to that party in order that your deliverance from the hands of your oppressors might be certain and complete. Not the faintest whisper of the possibility of a disappointment in these hopes and promises ever reached you while the struggle was pending. To-day, April 10th, by order of the President, whom your votes alone rescued from an overwhelming defeat, the government of the United States abandons you; deliberately withdraws from you its support with the full knowledge that the lawful government of the State will be speedily overthrown by a new interpretation of the Constitution of the United States. At variance alike with the previous practices of the government and with the decision of the Supreme Court, the executive of the United States evades the duty of ascertaining which of the rival state governments is the lawful one, and by the withdrawal of the troops now protecting the state from domestic violence, abandons the lawful state government to struggle with an insurrectionary force too powerful to be resisted. The grounds of policy upon which such action is defended are startling. It is said that the north is weary of the long southern troubles. It was weary, too, of the long troubles which sprung from stupendous slavery, and lured for repose. It sought to cover them from sight by wicked compromises, with a wrong which disturbed its peace, but God held it to its duty until, through a conflict which racked and agonized the nation, the great crime was put away and freedom was ordained for all.

"It is said that if the majority of the people of the State are unable, by physical force, to maintain their rights, they must be left to political servitude. If this doctrine, never before heard of in our history, shall prevail, its consequences will not long be confined to South Carolina or Louisiana. By the action of the President no court of the State has jurisdiction to pass upon the title to my office. No lawful legislature can be convened except upon my call. If the use of these powers promised ultimate success to our cause, I should not shrink from any sacrifices which might confront me. It is a cause in which, by the light of reason and conscience, a man might well lay down his life, but to my mind my present responsibility involves the consideration of the effect of my action upon those whose representative I am. I have hitherto been willing to ask you republicans of South Carolina to risk all dangers and endure all hardships until relief should come from the government of the United States. That relief will never come. I cannot ask you to follow me further. In my judgment I can no longer serve you by further resistance to the impending calamity. With gratitude to God for the measure of endurance with which he has hitherto inspired me, with gratitude to you for your boundless confidence, with profound admiration for your matchless fidelity to a cause in which we have struggled, I now announce to you and the people of the State, that I shall no longer actively assert my right to the office of governor of South Carolina. The motives and purposes of the President of the United States in the policy which compels me to pursue my present course, are unquestionably honorable and patriotic. I devoutly pray that events may vindicate the wisdom of his action, and that peace, justice, freedom, and prosperity may hereafter be the portion of every citizen of South Carolina.

(Signed)

"D. H. CHAMBERLAIN,
Governor of South Carolina."

The following correspondence has just transpired:

State of South Carolina, Executive Chamber, Columbia, S. C.

Sir—Having learned that you now purpose to turn over to me the executive chamber with the records and papers belonging to the executive office now in your possession, I beg to inform you that I will send a proper officer to receive the same at any hour you may indicate as most convenient to yourself.

I am, very respectfully, your obedient servant,

WADE HAMPTON,
Governor.

To Hon. D. H. Chamberlain.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

"I had no appetite; Holloway's Pills gave me a hearty one."

"Your Pills are marvellous."

"I send for another box, and keep them in the house."

"Dr. Holloway has cured my headache that was chronic."

"I gave one of your Pills to my babe for cholera morbus. The dear little thing got well in a day."

"My nausea of a morning is now cured."

"Your box of Holloway's Ointment cured me of nodes in the head. I rubbed some of your Ointment behind the ears, and the nodes have left."

"Send me two boxes; I want one for a poor family."

"I enclose one dollar; your price is 25 cents, but the medicine to me is worth a dollar."

"Send me five boxes of your Pills."

"Let me have three boxes of your Pills by return mail, for Chills and Fever."

"I have over 200 sought testimonials as these, but want of space compels me to conclude."

For Cutaneous Disorders, and all eruptions of the skin, this Ointment is most invaluable. It does not heal externally alone, but penetrates with the most searching effects to the very root of the evil.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS invariably cure the following diseases—

Disorder of the Kidneys.—In all diseases affecting these organs, whether they secrete too much or too little water; or whether they be afflicted with stone or gravel, or with aches and pains settled in the kidneys over the regions of the kidneys, these Pills should be taken according to the printed directions, and the Ointment should be well rubbed into the small of the back at bed time. This treatment will give almost immediate relief when all other means have failed.

For Stomachs Out of Order.—No medicine will so effectually improve the tone of the stomach as these Pills; they remove all acidity occasioned either by intemperance or improper diet. They reach the liver and reduce it to a healthy action; they are wonderfully efficacious in cases of snail—in fact they never fail in curing all disorders of the liver and stomach.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS are the best known in the world for the following diseases: Ague, Asthma, Bilious Complaints, Blisters on the Skin, Bowels, Consumption, Debility, Dropsy, Dysentery, Erysipelas, Female Irregularities, Fevers of all kinds, Fits, Gout, Headache, Indigestion, Inflammation, Jaundice, Liver Complaints, Lumbago, Piles, Rheumatism, Retention of Urine, Scrofula or King's Evil, Sore Throats, Stone and Gravel, Tie-Boloureux, Tumors, Ulcers, Worms of all kinds, Weakness from any cause, etc.

Important Caution.—None are genuine unless the signature of J. HAYDOCK, as agent for the United States, surrounds each box of Pills and Ointment. A handsome reward will be given to any one rendering such information as may lead to the detection of any party or parties counterfeiting the medicines or vending the same, knowing them to be spurious.

*Sold at the manufactory of Professor HOLLOWAY & Co., New York, and by all respectable druggists and dealers in medicine throughout the civilized world, in boxes at 25 cents, 50 cents and $1 each.

There is considerable saving by taking the larger sizes.

N.B.—Directions for the guidance of patients in every disorder are affixed to each box.

IMPORTANT NOTICE!Readers and Heads of Families

CUT out this notice and send it to the Graefenberg Company, 56 Reare St., N. Y., together with TWENTY-FIVE cents, and you will receive by return mail, postage paid, a copy of their valuable family medical book, entitled:

The Graefenberg MANUAL OF HEALTH.

It contains 300 pages, handsomely printed on fine paper, and is written in language plainly understood by every one.

Centaur
Liniments.*The Quickest, Surest and Cheapest Remedies.

Physicians recommend, and Farriers declare that no such remedies have ever before been in use. Words are cheap, but the proprietors of these articles will present trial bottles to the local men, gratis, and will guarantee more rapid and satisfactory results than have ever before been obtained.

The Centaur Liniment, White Wrapper, will cure Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Lumbago, Sciatica, Caked Breasts, Sore Nipples, Frosted Feet, chilblains, Swellings, Sprains, and any ordinary FLESH, BONE OR MUSCLE AILMENT.

It will extract the poison of bites and stings, and heal burns or scalds without a scar. Lock-jaw, Palsy, Weak Back, Caked Breasts, Earache, Toothache, Itch and Cutaneous Eruptions readily yield to its treatment.

Henry Black, of Ada, Hardin Co., Ohio, says: "My wife has had rheumatism for five years—no rest, no sleep—could scarcely walk across the floor. She is now completely cured by the use of Centaur Liniment. We are very thankful to you, and recommend your wonderful medicine to all our friends."

James Hurd, of Zan'sville, O., says: "The Centaur Liniment cured my Neuralgia."

Alfred Tush, of Newark, writes: Send me one dozen bottles by express. The Liniment has saved my leg. I want to distribute it, &c. The sale of this Liniment is increasing rapidly.

The Centaur Liniment, Yellow Wrapper, is for the tough skin, flesh and muscles of HORSES, MULES AND ANIMALS.

We have never yet seen a case of Spavin, Swelling, Ring-bone, Wind-gall, Scratches, or Pol-Evil, which this Liniment would not speedily benefit, and we never saw but a few cases which it would not cure. It will cure when anything can. It is fully to spend $20, for a Farrier, when one dollar's worth of Centaur Liniment will do better. The following is a sample of the testimony produced.

"J. F. JERSON, MO., Nov. 10, 1873.

"Some time ago I was shipping horses to St. Louis. I got one badly crippled in the car. With great difficulty I got him to the stable. The stable-keeper gave me a bottle of your Centaur Liniment, which I used with such success that in two days the horse was active and nearly well. I have been a veterinary surgeon for thirty years, but your Liniment beats anything I ever used."

"A. J. McCARTY, Veterinary Surgeon."

or a postage stamp we will mail a Centaur Almanac, containing hundreds of certificates, from every State in the Union. These Liniments are now sold by all dealers in the country.

Castoria is the result of 20 years' experiment—by Dr. Samuel Pitcher, of Massachusetts. It is a vegetable preparation, as effective as Castor Oil, but perfectly pleasant to the taste. It can be taken by the youngest infant, and neither gases nor gripes. Dr. A. J. Green, of Royston, Indiana, says of it:

"First—I have tried the Castoria, and can speak highly of its merits. It will, I think, do away entirely with Castor Oil. It is pleasant and harmless, and is wonderfully efficacious as an aperient and laxative. It is the very thing."

The Castoria destroys worms, regulates the stomach, cures Wind Colic, and permits of natural healthy sleep. It is very efficacious in Croup, and for Teething Children. Honey is not pleasant to the taste, and Castor Oil is not so certain in its effects. It costs but 25 cents, in large bottles.
