AT SPRING VALLEY.

White Miners as Indignant as Their Colored Brethren.

CORRESPONDENTS DRIVEN AWAY.

Patterson of the Trouble Wired to Governor Altgeld—Mass Meetings and Threats.

SPRING VALLEY, Ill., Aug. 6.—The situation is very quiet in the city. The negroes are making no efforts to get back. The reports of armed negroes coming from Peoria and Chicago to arrest Sunday's affair caused no unusual excitement here. They would have not only the Italian miners to deal with, but every white miner in the city as well, numbering about 1,500.

Word was sent to from Ladd and Tiskilwa this morning, promising the whole all the assistance necessary in case of an invasion. In case of an invasion, 3,000 men, white miners, could be mustered together in this city in less than two hours. They do not express the least sorrow over the event of Sunday. They claim to have endured the outrages of the blacks as long as they could.

They claim that the newspaper stories of negroes being shot and lynched are largely overdrawn. About ten to twelve were assaulted with sticks and stones, but no attempts were made to kill. Had the mob had so disposed, not one could have escaped. The prisoners, as stated on the ground while the fighting was at its height, was to scare them into leaving, never to come back again.

A meeting of miners was held today. Several papers were demanded for their highly colored and distorted stories. One news correspondent who was compelled to flee from the town yesterday, has not returned. It was the attitude these and business men who counted him to leave, so enraged were they at his sensational reports.

Mayor Delonge received an anonymous letter this morning, postmarked Chicago, threatening to wipe him and the entire city out of existence if he did not use his position to get the blacks back again. No direct trouble will again break out. If they make an attempt to come back. The Spring Valley coal company have representatives at Hazleville trying to persuade the blacks to return, but the latter are satisfied to keep away.

The miners are still idle. Five days thought was the time given the negroes to get their effects out of Spring Valley. Nearly all their furniture has been moved to Hazleville, where most of them are getting work. In all probability the Spring Valley miners will return to work tomorrow morning.

Governor Altgeld wired to Mayor Delonge today, asking particulars. The mayor telegraphed this reply:

"Spring Valley has been made by the municipal authorities of this city to protect life and property. No lives have been lost, nor has the property been destroyed by mob violence. One Italian resident had been fatally injured by the negro highwaymen. Everything quiet and newspaper reports exaggerated. Three negroes injured who refused to vacate location and insisted on remaining. They are not seriously injured."

Information is received tonight that the governor is on his way here, and a mass meeting of miners will be held when he arrives.

REFUGEES FROM SPRING VALLEY.

CHICAGO, Aug. 6.—Two colored women, Mrs. Mary Stanton and Mrs. Rosie Dixdee, refugees from Spring Valley, arrived in this city tonight, and the reports they gave of the treatment of the colored people at that place have inflamed the negroes of Chicago to the highest pitch. Mrs. Stanton is a widow, and since the attack made by the Italians on the colored men at Spring Valley her two sons have disappeared, and she believes that they were murdered. Mrs. Dixdee has heard nothing from her husband since that time, and believes he is dead. Both women say that the reports of the outrages have been in no way exaggerated. They say that the colored women and children were assaulted by the Italians and brutally treated.

THEY GO TO INVESTIGATE.

CHICAGO, Aug. 7.—Fifty colored men left the C., R. & N. depot at 12:25 a. m. for Spring Valley. They go to investigate the trouble between members of their race and Italians. At first it was reported to send 200 armed men to the scene, but calmer counsel prevailed and the fifty were despatched to spy out the land and see if justice could not be secured without an appeal to violence.

IN CHINA.

Further Details of the Outrages on Foreigners.

CHICAGO, Aug. 6.—The following letter from the Rev. M. Upscraft, dated at Chung King, June 18, was published here this evening:

"The present occupation of the missionaries in Chung King may be considered as a permanent council of war. As the reports come in from different parts of the province, we begin to understand how widespread and serious are the riots. So far as can be learned, not only Cheng Tu, but the far western part of the province has been raided.

"The annual festival of the Fifth Moon (May 26) found a wisely-scattered flow of French, Americans and English to Tatsienlu, the capital of Tibet, yet before the fast had closed, the central stronghold had fallen and the mission premises at Cheng Tu were devastated, the resident priesters on the Yalung, Extravagant stories of child-eating, treasure-hunting, mutilation and other practices, absurd and false, were spread, and a spark set the whole ablaze.

"Beginning with the Canadian Methodists, and spreading with political impartiality to Catholic China Inland and American Methodist missions, the baleful foreigner was rooted out, houses torn down, trees uprooted, and the whole left in a wreck and ruin, the full tale of which will never be told. Having made such a success of their first raid, Kiating, Chung Chow, Yu Chow, and Fu, and many other places were either looted or attempted, and a reign of terror was inaugurated."

A second letter from Dr. Upscraft, dated June 20th, describes the situation further, as follows:

"Follow the details of the riots in the western part of the Szechuen filter down to us here. Three separate parties of refugees have left for the coast, and from each of them we gather more knowledge of the extremes of these days. Were the mob first struck the Canadian Methodist place, in the northeast corner of Chung Tu, it was towards evening of the fifth feast day. Stones were used first; then the doors burst in, and the chinese had possession of the outer yard. Two plucky Anglo-Chinese stood off that yelling host and made them run, with the only show of resistance possible, while messengers were sent to the Yamen to urge the military officials to instant action, but in vain. The forces of fear and custom both operated to prevent promptness, and so they waited until the mobs gathered in numbers and strength and impetus, and the inadequate but heroic garrison saw their hopes of safely carried off by the flying hours."

The Vigilant Withdrawn.

NEWPORT, R.I., Aug. 6.—The Vigilant has withdrawn from further contests with the Defender, Mr. Willard intimating in a letter to the regatta committee of the New York yacht club that the Defender jockeyed his boat so unfairly at the start of today's race and off Sandy Hook on July 22nd that he declined to meet her again.

When Mr. Willard handed the letter to the press tonight he remarked that the Vigilant was in the service yet, to be used to defend America's cup. Mr. Iselin was taken aback at the news that the Vigilant had decided to withdraw, but he would make no answer to the letter.

If any additional test had been needed to show that the fastest yacht Defender is a better all-round boat in light weather than the contentious Vigilant, it was furnished today when these yachts raced over a twenty-one-mile equilateral triangular course outside of the harbor for a $200 cup, offered by Mr. J. K. Drexel. The course was one which gave the contestants a chance of showing what they could do. They started out on a beat of seven miles to windward, then had a full reach of the same distance, and finally a run home before the wind for seven miles more. In the first two legs the Defender easily showed her superiority.

When the Defender and Vigilant were jockeying for position across the line, the big yachts came pretty close together at one time. Both were on the starboard tack, so there was a question as to which one had the right of way, excepting by the rule that the overhauling vessel should yield. In this case the Defender was the overhauler, but the Vigilant, as she did off Sandy Hook, waved off and avoided what possibly might have been a collision.

Name.	Start.	Finish.	Time.
Defender	11:17:00	3:32:42	3:15:42
Vigilant	11:20:00	3:37:18	3:17:18

SOLD TO ENGLISHMEN.

The Amazonds and Other Mines in Montana.

NEW YORK, Aug. 6.—A morning paper will say: It was reported yesterday that Hamilton Smith, the mining expert of the Exploration company of London, had concluded negotiations for the purchase of a controlling interest in the Amazonds mine of Montana, as well as for other mining interests in that state. The terms of the transaction are private.

Another Murder Mystery.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 6.—The police still have another murder mystery to unravel. A stranger was found dying from gas asphyxiation in a room in a notorious house. Nothing was found on the man's person to give any clue to his identity. His pockets were turned inside out, and it was evident he had been robbed.

Sunday Law Void.

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 7.—Justice of the Peace Hawthorne, before whom Dan Lucas, the Main street barber who took the lead in fighting the new law against Sunday shaving, was tried, has given his decision holding that the law is void because it does not give defendants the right of trial by jury, which is guaranteed by the Constitution and it is likely that next Sunday a large number of the shops will be again opened.

THE DURRANT CASE.

Fourteen Jurors Will be Impanneled to Try the Prisoner.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 7.—District Attorney Barnes announces that for the purpose of avoiding delays that might arise from the sickness or death of a juror, fourteen jurors will be impanneled to try Durrant. The attorneys on both sides have agreed to this action from the fact that the trial is expected to last several months. The two extra jurors will attend the session of the court regularly the same as the other jurors, but will take no part in formulating a verdict unless called upon to act as alternates. The law authorizing the swearing in of extra jurors was passed two years ago by the California legislature.

CLARK KNOWS ABSOLUTELY NOTHING.

CHICAGO, Aug. 7.—Charles Clark, the missing witness in the case of Theodore Durrant, to be tried in San Francisco for murder, was interviewed just before his departure for the West last night. He emphatically declared that he knew absolutely nothing that had any bearing on the murders, and that beyond a casual remark the lawyers for the defense had sought to stay proceedings by the use of his name. He said he did not know Durrant and never saw him.

One of the murdered girls, Blanche Lamont, he knew by sight, but he had never met her to her. He had seen her on a street car with a young man, and he had made a remark to that effect to a lawyer.

The outcome has been his figuring as an important witness. He had thought it over for days, and had concluded that it was only two or three weeks before the murder when he last saw the girl and that her companion was not Durrant.

TROLLEY CAR ACCIDENT.

Passengers Surrounded by Electric Flames and Panic Stricken.

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 7.—A peculiar trolley car accident happened last night on Massachusetts avenue near Delaware street, in which Mrs. Barnes Cregle received fatal injuries and fourteen others had a narrow escape. A Clifford avenue car, with fifteen passengers, became tangled up in a broken trolley wire that fell and twined itself about the car. Electric flames flashed and crackled about the windows and the car was thrown from the track with a jolt. The passengers became panic stricken and rushed for the door. Mrs. Cregle threw herself from the car. The conductor closed the door and prevented others from jumping.

Alleged Commissioner Arrested.

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 7.—Jasper Taylor, who was arrested two days ago on a charge of passing counterfeit money, was arraigned before United States Commissioner Thomas yesterday and sent to jail in default of $1,000 bond.

Mary Brown and Alice Bates, two of the witnesses, displayed quite an extensive knowledge of the case, and were arrested on suspicion of being in, located to the counterfeiting. They will have a hearing today.

MURDEROUS ASSAULT.

No Reason Apparent for the Brutal Outrage.

SALINA, Kas., Aug. 7.—B. F. Caswell, a farmer living seven miles northwest of here, was decoyed from his home last night by a stranger who said he had a sick horse and wanted assistance. When half a mile from home the pair were met by two pals of the stranger who covered Caswell with rifles. He tried to escape when one of the men fired, the bullet striking him in the head and the other man striking him twice over the head with his rifle, partly stunning him. The three then bound Caswell's hands, gagged him and forced him to walk a mile and a half, though he was nearly fainting from loss of blood. After beseeching the farmer for some time they finally let him go, first threatening him with death if he told of the occurrence.

Caswell's condition is critical. There is no clue to his assailants and no cause for the commission of the outrage is known.

Lord Shelto Going Home.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 7.—Lord Shelto is going home. His unusual and sensational visit on this coast will terminate inside of ten days or two weeks.

Pocoiflor Robbed.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Aug. 7.—The Argentine pocoiflor was robbed early yesterday morning of $200 in money and a watch. The burglars cut a panel out of the back door and blew the safe door off. They escaped after firing four shots at James Gerard, who lives over the pocoiflor and who called to them to halt. The robbers overlooked $900 in the bottom of the safe.

Skeletons Identified.

WATERLOO, O. T., Aug. 7.—The three skeletons found west of here three weeks ago have proved to be the remains of two Fowler boys and their farmer-in-law, who were killed by Indians in 1859. The remains were identified by an ankle tassel which was found near the remains.

Relatives of the Fowlers residing in Canton, Ohio, to whom place the remains will be taken for burial.

All Texas Represented.

FORT WORTH, Tex., Aug. 5.—The entire state of Texas is represented at the free silver convention being held here today. President men of the state are attending the affair.

THE TROUBLE CAME BACK.

Mr. J. H. Hixson's Experience is a Type of a Large Class.

The Chief Difficulty Met With in the Permanent Curing of Catarrh and Catarrhal Chronic Diseases.

"About a year ago," says Mr. J. H. Hixson, who lives at Wamego, Pottawatomie Co., Kan., "I took treatment with Doctor Shores. I was treated for two months and my improvement was such that I thought that I had heard and my treatment and discontinued without the consent of Doctor Shores. He advised me and might do so to continue carefully with the treatment, and I did so for a time, but I grew careless, and thinking I was well, I left off. Well, sleep is the best part of rest cures. I saw my mistake, for in a few weeks again took sick and was as I was in an awful condition again.

"I believe I had catarrh just about as bad as anybody ever had. I could not from exposure. I came to the conclusion that I was sick and which hitching etc. in the morning in the house, I coughed and after cold, and blow it, relieve the catarrh gave a through hold on me and my whole system was affected. I suffered in every way. Not only with pain, inconvenience and appreciation but my head was always worthwhile disturbing and I had cases and blow out great chunks of green matter, which had a horrible smell. I could not sit before anyone for minutes without coughing and blowing out this disgusting stuff. The catarrh affected my ears and made me almost deaf. I would frequently have ringing and roaring noises.

"This last spring, however, I went back to Doctor Shores and cleared myself under treatment again, convinced in which a very plain case. In two weeks, as before, I felt that I was nearly well, but he insisted upon my continuing under treatment, and this time I followed the directions and I am well. Do not stand to close him now and continue his treatment faithfully until I am cured and there is no possibility of the trouble coming back."

Mr. Hixson is a prominent and an old soldier in Union, is well known, and his statements are one for implicit confidence, and any of our readers in Kansas can be satisfied by a visit to Wamego. Mr. Hixson is especially anxious to verify his statement, by asking one or more of his friends.

Mr. Hixson's case is one of the most difficult cases with catarrhal and strong constitutional diseases. Patients who make the common mistake of thinking they are cured by the first or second month's treatment, and discontinue treatment, are sure to have a relapse. The permanent cure of this is especially to all fair minded people. It takes time to overcome the effects of this catarrh and the constitutional disease. Who proposes to accomplish a cure in less time is proposing something that he cannot do.
