MR. GREENWALD!

Here is a Case For Your Prompt Investigation.

For some years the ditch on the north side of South Temple street, from Third West street west to Eighth West, gives out at times an unbearable odor, as if some rotted were decayed matter. Residents and property owners along the street complain very much of the annoying vapors that arise from it and if something is not done to investigate will be demanded. From the east side of Third West to the west side of Fourth West the ditch is covered and it is impossible to see without proper investigation, just where the filth is stagnated, but it is certain that it remains between those two points. Prompt attention to the cause of the nuisance will greatly relieve residents along that thoroughfare street and doubtly avert a most unsavory complaint.

Salvation Army Festival.

Staff Captain Gordon Baker of San Francisco, recently from the Hawaiian Islands, has just arrived in Salt Lake City to take charge of the Salvation Army in Utah and eastern Wyoming. The members of the Army commenced marching out from barrack to their hall this Saturday evening to welcome their new leader. Mr. Baker states that he met Elder Anthon Jensen in the Hawaiian Islands, and that they had a very pleasant time together. He also says the Mormons are doing good work among the native Kanakas, in fact have more converts than any other denomination, with the exception perhaps of the Catholics.

Had His Hand Cut Off.

Dillon, Montana, Tribune: August Raymond, a former resident of Malden county, who he worked at mining, is in the county hospital minus his right hand, which he lost by being run over by the cars a little way this side of Melville Tuesday morning. He was trying to board the train, when he missed his footing.

Raymond was following up thieves who were getting away with some of his property and he expected to overtake Jack Dunn near Dillon. He asked Sheriff Hamilton about the matter and told him to be on the lookout. To one of the parties Raymond has loaned his team, saddle, blankets, etc., to visit Lewis City, and the fellow was trying to get away with them. This man was later joined by several others and they turned into a corner on Antelope creek, Idaho (or Raymond says) and stole over head of horses. Raymond set out to overtake the party and trying to recover his lost goods, so that when he arrived at Dillon he was flat broke. Sheriff Hamilton says he is a good man but very unfortunate. He is certainly unfortunate in having lost his hand in addition to losing his property.

Farewell Sociable.

A farewell sociable will be tendered to Elder Anton Hupenbach in the Sixteenth ward meeting house on Tuesday evening August 4th at 8 o'clock. An appropriate program has been arranged, including songs, recitations, quartets and instrumental music. Elder Hupenbach leaves for the mission field of Germany in a few days.

Today's Priesthood Meeting.

The monthly meeting of the Priesthood of the Salt Lake Stake of Zion convened in the Assembly Hall, this city, today, Saturday, at 11 a. m. President Angus M. Cannon and counselors presiding. After the usual opening exercises the roll was called showing as follows: Three High Councilors, five Patriarchs, Elder John Morris and William C. Dunbar of the Presidency of the High Priests quorum, fourteen Presidents of Seventies and nine home missionaries.

All the wards in the Stake were properly represented excepting the Twelfth city ward, and Mount Hawes and Mill Creek, of the county.

The second, Third, Fifth, Ninth, Twelfth, Sixteenth, Eighteenth, Nineteenth, Twentieth, Twenty-first and Twenty-fourth quorums of Elders were represented by their presiding officers.

The Lower Provo stake was represented by members from the First, Second, Ninth, Nineteenth, Center, Big Cottonwood and South Cottonwood wards.

Upon the recommendation of their respective Bishops, six young men received certificates authorizing their ordination to the office of Priest, each of whom promised to faithfully perform the duties of this high and holy calling to the best of his ability if retained in this Priesthood.

Elders Angus M. Cannon, Joseph E. Taylor and Charles W. Penrose, of the Presidency of the Stake, addressed the meeting in a spirited manner, the burden of their remarks being directed to the Bishops to be more faithful in their duties as their office implies, to act righteously in all matters, as common judges in Israel, in the fear of the Lord.

Adjourned to meet in Stake Conference, September 5th, 1896, at 10 a. m.

AMUSEMENTS.

The Lyceum theater reopens its doors next Monday evening, Aug. 3, with Alper's Stock company in a repertoire of comedies and melodramas. The company comes with good press notices, the principals have all New York reputations of merit, and good, smooth performances are assured. It is proposed to have a semi-weekly change of program alternating with comedy and melodrama. The engagement will open with the comedy The Statesman, which will be presented the first three nights, followed by Milton Nobles's western play From Sire to Son.

The Alper's company comes here from Louisville where they have filled a five weeks' engagement playing several of Milton Nobles's plays. The manager of the company, Mr. Shearer, is the son of the late druggist in this city, Dr. Shearer.

The Miracle, after phenomenal two weeks' run at Garfield Beach, presents its final performance tonight. Manager Blakemore is seriously contemplating visiting Ogden, Logan and adjacent towns with the company at an early date.

ARMADO ON SOUL AND FUSEY.

Prof. William Armado, public educator in the high schools of Chicago, and secretary of the famous Washington Fair International Statesmen, will give an evening on "Hing and Fuey" at the Assembly Hall on Thursday evening, August 20th. Prof. Armado will be remembered very favorably by many Utah people, by the Tabernacle audiences especially. In addition to appearing on Salt Lake City, he will also hold forth at Brigham City, Ogden and Logan. Prof. Sheperd has given to the church practically right to control the Prof. Armado, and it is expected that the church members will turn out in a body to greet the gentleman.

OGDEN.

OGDEN, UTAH, AUG. 1, 1896.

Junction Jots.

The business men of Ogden do not wish to pay more than their share of the city taxes. At the meeting held last night to consider the proposed license ordinance, the following resolution was adopted by a unanimous vote: "Resolved, That it is the sense of the meeting of business men assembled, that the proposed tax is excessive, unjust and unconstitutional, and that a committee of ten be appointed to wait upon the city council next Monday night and protest against the proposed ordinance, and present a petition to the same effect, signed by the merchants of this city."

The city school term will begin September 7. The school census is completed, the report for the past 1895 and 1896 shows:

	1895	1896
First ward	267	270
Second ward	271	277
Third ward	250	270
Fourth ward	200	210
Fifth ward	1,000	1,000
Sixth ward	1,000	1,000

A woman was arrested last night for shop lifting at Wright and Sons' store.

Sheriff Wright has been hustling for W. J. Scandrett, city auditor, but cannot find him. He has a writ of mandamus to serve on him. The Supreme Court of the State in the case of Hanna vs Beardsley declared the office of auditor of Ogden City vacant.

A 5,000 edition of "The Resources and Product of the New State of Utah" is just about complete. The book is the production of the chamber of commerce of Ogden and is for free distribution throughout the East.

Ogden news boys were out in full force at Saltair yesterday. They had the name of being the first excursionists over the Union Pacific this year to Saltair.

PROVO.

PROVO, UTAH, AUG. 1, 1896.

Closing Lectures.

Professor Griggs delivered the closing lectures of the course he was engaged to deliver before the Brigham Young Academy summer school yesterday. The morning lecture was on "Child Study." He declared the future by a simplicity on footing study in science and in good books. Books did not emphasize the moral study. Aesthetic pleasure is found in the Bible, morally unexceptionable, in fine literature, in music, in the contemplation of the beautiful in nature, and in the study of the Bible. Prof. Armado will be remembered very favorably by many Utah people, by the Tabernacle audiences especially. In addition to appearing on Salt Lake City, he will also hold forth at Brigham City, Ogden and Logan. Prof. Sheperd has given to the church practically right to control the Prof. Armado, and it is expected that the church members will turn out in a body to greet the gentleman.

The following cases for commercial term of court in this district have been set: August 17th, Utah county; September 14th, Utah county, and October 26th, Wasatch county.

Notes and Personals.

John Cheshire came down from Salt Lake yesterday as a witness in the court in the vs Boley. Mr. Cheshire was Deputy Marshal at the time he was a member of U. S. marshal under Marshal Dyer, about ten years ago, and was busy recalling the acquaintances he made. One of them called attention to the trip made by Mr. Cheshire after a witness, which, at the time, was considerable of an affair. He had Pierce in charge and took the train for Salt Lake, leaving there about 9 o'clock. Pierce came in contact with a man who was coming to Utah Creek, where he subsequently lived, and returned to Juab, reaching Provo the next morning at 8 o'clock.

Sheriff Carter of Sanpete county and Sheriff Brown of Utah county have received word from Sheriff Pope of Uintah county that he has arrested a man whom he believes to be James Mabel, one of the men indicted for the murder of Sheriff Ingersoll. Word of Mabel has been sent to Sheriff Pope.

Judge Jones and family returned from Ann Arbor, Michigan, Thursday evening. The judge has concluded a successful course of law studies, and Miss Lou Jones has improved her musical talents while away.

Joseph Hayden, a Dump who was working on the tracks of the car under the charge of the patrolman, "jumped his job" yesterday. No effort will be made to get him to return.

Sylvester Tolesco was before Justice Dickson yesterday, on a charge of assault and battery, preferred by the
