

camped at Mozura, oppose the cession of Dulcigno. It is said the Turkish regulars are fraternizing with them.

A dispatch from Chaman on Sunday says: Gen. Roberts marched from Khelat-i-Ghilseai for Candahar on the 5th inst. He took with him all the British garrison and handed over the fort to the Ameer's officials. He expected to reach Candahar on Monday and attack Ayooob Khan on Tuesday. He has sent a plan for combined action with General Phayre if the latter can reach Takht-i-Pulon Monday. This, however, is impossible in consequence of the scarcity of food and forage and the wholesale desertion of drivers.

The garrison of Khelat-i-Khilzai and Candahar will increase General Robert's force to 15,000 men. Of these 1,000 will probably remain in the citadel of Candahar, leaving 14,000 available for attack on Ayooob Khan.

Violent gales and thunder storms have done much damage around Madrid. All trains are delayed. The railway near Escurill is destroyed. Similar accounts are received from the northern and western provinces.

Ottawa, Canada.—Thomas Stanley's barn in Pontiac County, burned Sunday morning. His two children, a boy of seven years and a child of nine months old, were burned to death.

LONDON, 31.—In the House of Commons, to-night, the debate on the Constabulary bill was resumed. Parnell asked if Forster, in the event of landlords continuing to abuse their power, would advise summoning Parliament during the recess to pass a law protecting the tenants. Mr. Forster did not expect it would be necessary during the winter to ask Parliament to pass a coercion bill or interfere for the protection of tenants, but if he were convinced the law as it stood was an instrument of injustice, he would not be an instrument for enforcing it. The Constabulary bill, after a brief debate, passed by a vote of 105 to 76. The House shortly after passed all the remaining votes of estimates.

In the House of Lords the ground game bill passed its second reading by a vote of 65 to 20. The Lords acted on the advice of Lord Beaconsfield, who advocated a number of amendments in committee rather than rejection. Though he objected to the bill he thought the Lords would be taking up a feeble position when on the eve of a constitutional struggle in joining issue with the Commons on such a secondary question.

The vote by which the House of Commons passed the Irish constabulary bill last night was 105 to 29. The government's majority was 76. Two Englishmen, Joseph, member for Newcastle-on-Tyne, and Charles Bradlaugh, member for Northampton, both radicals, voted in the minority. About 20 conservatives supported the government. There was no attempt at obstruction.

The House of Lords this evening, passed the employees liability bill, as amended in that body. A motion to insert that section claims be preferred against an employer in case of injury caused by negligence on the part of any person in the service of such employer, was negatived without division.

The savings bank bill was read the second time.

The British political officer at Candahar telegraphs on the 25th that the country is quieting down. Ayooob's force is reduced to regulars and a small number of Ghazis. It is reported he wishes to retreat to Garat and Girishkh, but is prevented by the Cabul troops. The siege is practically raised. A large quantity of food was brought in yesterday.

Three large Jesuit schools in Paris have been entirely evacuated and the authorities have walled up the doors of the establishments. New civil directors have already been installed in vacant posts. With regard to other schools affected by the March decree, it is rumored that the government and various unauthorized religious con-fraternities have agreed upon the terms of a letter which is to take the place of a demand for authorization hitherto required by law. By this letter the heads of schools will bind themselves to hold aloof from political questions, and not to take an attitude of hostility towards the present order of things. In the presentation of this letter to the authorities the government will consider congregations as legally authorized.

Twenty-eight members of the German Reichstag and Landtag have published a declaration announcing their secession from the national liberty party. They declare it is their intention to uphold the political liberties already achieved and to combat oppressive indirect taxes. They also insist upon religious freedom being guaranteed by legislation.

In the interview yesterday, Bismarck advised the Prince of Roumania to maintain good relations with Austria, as Roumania's best bulwark against the agitations on the Balkan Peninsula.

Bismarck went to Potsdam yesterday and visited the Prince and Princess of Bulgaria, who returned the visit at Berlin to-day, remaining some time at the residence of the Chancellor.

The Albanian chiefs declare that when the ships appear the Albanians will enter Montenegro and Nelake Podgeritza. Riza Pasha, the Turkish commander, reports the state of affairs very critical and the Albanians much excited. Riza Pasha is guarded by 15,000 soldiers.
