FRAGMENTS.

THREE were no cases set down for hearing in the Police court this morning.

SANDY Reel is still very convalescent around the city, as the yellow flags indicate.

JOHN Anderson has moved rooms in the Eagle block on Second South street, and will at once take up his quarters there for the pursuit of legal business.

THE residence at No. 70 east Third South street was entered by burglars last night during the temporary absence of the family and remained unmolested. Nothing, however, of value was stolen.

JAMES Carroll, the gymnastic coach who operates the Constitution building entrance, was arrested for signs on a charge of nailing the public telephone claims to the building.

WHEN the members of the Territorial Board of equalization had got through their work yesterday afternoon, they took a spin out to Saltair and were highly pressed with the present appearance of things there.

THE closing exercises of the past school year at the Utah Deaf Mute Institute will be held tomorrow morning beginning at 10 o'clock. The exercises will be of an interesting character and the public are invited to attend.

THE News acknowledges the receipt of an invitation to attend the eighteenth annual commencement exercises of St. Mary's Academy, Salt Lake City, being a composition of the Sisters associated jubilee to Right Reverend L. Scanlan, at 10 a. m., June 11th.

Hon. A. O. Smoot Hurt.

The Provo Enquirer says that on Tuesday afternoon Hon. A. O. Smoot, president of the Utah Stake, received several injuries by being struck by a tree that was felled by his workmen. A heavy blow on the back of the neck, two scalp wounds, a punctured wound between the shoulders, an injury in the small of the back, at the knee, and on the right foot were the extent of the accident. Dr. Hardy attended the patient, and says that while the injuries are painful they are not dangerous, and that the patient will soon be almost as good as new.

Bound Over.

J. H. Wallin, editor of the Fuel, the Democratic paper at Montpelier, Idaho, who was arrested Saturday night last on the charge of using the mails for a lottery scheme, by Postoffice Inspector Foster, waived his examination before United States Commissioner Bishkoverder in Pocatello and was held under $500 bonds to await the action of the United States grand jury. Wallin is an aspirant for the postoffice at Montpelier and it is generally conceded he is endorsed by Utah Democrats, also by ex-Governor Stevenson.

The Palace Bath House.

Mr. E. L. Anderson, lessee of the Palace Bath House on Commercial street, takes exception to the comments of the press regarding its appearance and unsanitary condition. Notwithstanding this complaint the fact remains that the building has been thrice condemned by the city officials and will soon be torn down.

UTAH UNIVERSITY.

Interesting Commencement Exercises at the Theater Today.

PRESENTATION OF DIPLOMAS.

The University Confers Its Highest Degree of Honor on Dr. John R. Park, Its Former President.

The commencement exercises of the University of Utah were held in the Salt Lake Theater today beginning at 10:30 o'clock. The auditorium and dress circle were filled with University students and their friends. On the right of the stage sat Dr. John R. Park, Acting President Joseph T. Kingsbury, Chancellor Harkness, Professors Stewart, Allen, Montgomery, Howard, Kerr, Abel, Walling and Marshall, President Joseph F. Smith, F. M. Lyman, Governor West, A. K. Hyde, Dr. Moses H. Hardy, Bishop Leonard.

On the left were the graduating students, the young ladies being clad in beautiful white dresses and the gentlemen wearing black.

Professor Carelson's orchestra rendered an excellent musical selection, after which prayer was offered by President Joseph F. Smith.

A interesting paper on Roseau was read by Miss Emily Farnes and extensively listened to from commencement to close.

The article showed much thought and care in preparation and the lady was warmly applauded for her able effort as she took her seat.

Joseph Hinde Swenson, a graduate in the mining course on Wednesday conferred the degree of Bachelor of mining engineering, delivered an extemporaneous address on the silver question.

Mr. Swenson surprised his friends very much and he was frequently and warmly applauded.

Chancellor Robert Harkness said the University under the law was empowered to confer honorary degrees on persons who had been eminent in the service of that institution. For twenty years Dr. John R. Park was the president of the University. The great institution in fact, might be called his own child. He had bestowed his love and had years upon it. He was not in its home today but he had never left it in spirit and it was certain that he never would.

The influence of the University and Dr. Park was far-reaching and the family felt they could do nothing less than confer the greatest honor in its power upon Dr. Park—that of doctor of law.

The degree was conferred by Chancellor Harkness upon Dr. Park amidst an enthusiastic outburst of applause.

Acting President Kingsbury then delivered a long and earnest address full of good advice to the graduating classes to their course of conduct in the pursuance of occupations which they may hereafter follow.

President Kingsbury then presented diplomas and certificates of graduation to the following:

LIST OF GRADUATES.

General Science Course—(Degree of Bachelor of Science)—William Lorenzo Emery, Salt Lake City; Eugene Temple Hills, Salt Lake City; John Gustave Linn, Heber City.

Mining Course—(Degree of Bachelor of Mining Engineering)—Joseph Swenson, Salt Lake City.

Four Years' Normal Course—(Degree of Didactics)—George W. Dexter, Callaway; Heber Kimball Merrill, Richmond; Robert Lindsay McGinty, Sugar House; James Edward Moss, Salt Lake City.

Three Years' Normal Course—Hannah Eliza Allen, Salt Lake City; William G. Betts, Heber City; Emily Marie Bowman, Petersoni; Clara Edith Cooper, West Jordan; Laura L. Fewer, Salt Lake City; Emily Farnes, Salt Lake City; Sarah Alice Gillel, Salt Lake City; Adolph Harmon, Ephraim; Ephraim Hansen, Richfield; Edna Marinda Hyde, Salt Lake City; Jesse Warren Hoopes, Salt Lake City; Alice Hansen, Tooele; Andrew Larson, Ephraim; Nephi Larson, Inga; Raymond Gilford Naylor, Salt Lake City; Alfred Joseph Rigby Jr., Salt Lake City; Frederick William Reynolds, Wasatch; John Franklin Rawson, Fairview; George N. Sorensen, Mendon; Lucy Van, Salt Lake City; Olive Van Cott, Farmers' West; Lewis Grant Wickersham, Wickersham, Wash.; Maude Wiscarr, Salt Lake City.

Wreaths, bouquets, baskets and pillows of flowers were presented to the graduates until the stage was almost converted into a conservatory.

Governor West delivered the closing address. He said the presence of the graduating class was an exhibition of their first great triumph. The University of Utah was an institution of which every loyal citizen in Utah should feel truly proud. Those who had been educated in it were doing good service today wherever they could be found. Well did they build who founded the University of Deseret. It was a monument fitting the earnestness of a great people.

Prayer was offered by Right Rev. Abel Leonard after which the exercises ended.

IN MONTANA.

A New Branch of the Church Organized in Anaconda.

On the 19th of May a meeting of the members of the Church residing at Anaconda, Montana, was held at the living home occupied by Elder Rufus N. Wixom, No. 627 east, Park avenue, Anaconda. The meeting began at 8:30 p. m. There were present of the Twelve Apostles, Elders Franklin D. Richards and Brigham Young. After the opening exercises, Elders Richards and Young made brief remarks on the duties of the Saints and the blessings to be received through the Gospel.

Those present were asked for an expression of their feelings regarding an organization of a branch of the church at Anaconda. All stated that they were in favor of such organization.

Elders Richards and Young then proceeded to organize a branch. Elder Samuel Spillman was set apart as presiding Elder of Anaconda, with Elder Rufus N. Wixom as his first and Elder Leonard Jones as his second counselor.

Elder Richards then gave instructions regarding the duty of a branch president in keeping records, blessing children, baptisms, meetings, recommends, etc., and the meeting was adjourned to a week.

Elder Wilford Day stated that from home on the evening of the 15th, he was set apart to go to office the next day by Elder Richards, after which the two brethren of the Apostles took their departure for Salt Lake City.

THE ALUMNI BANQUET.

An Enjoyable Time at the Utah University Last Night.

The Alumni association of the Utah university gave an enjoyable entertainment and ball last night on the occasion of the seventh anniversary. Dancing was inaugurated at 9 o'clock and was kept up until 1:30 when there was an adjournment to the refreshment room. Speeches were then made by Acting President Joseph T. Kingsbury, Hon. F. J. Cannon, Ex-Chancellor O. F. Whitney, and Governor West.

Miss Lucy Van Cott spoke interestingly on "Out with which we start out."

Lieutenant Richard W. Young made a few appropriate remarks and gave an extemporaneous selection one of the happiest reunions ever held by the Alumni was a no end.

The company has been strengthened by new voices, and all the costumes are new and obtained especially for this production, an enjoyable performance is assured.

Gleason, his wife, to recover $250 on a promissory note, with interest at 1 per cent per month. Frank Pelton is the plaintiffs' attorney.

Wells, Farge & Company this morning, in the same court, planted a suit seeking to recover from T. P. Murray, W. L. Dyer, F. D. Egan, E. T. Burton Jr., W. H. H. Stofford, W. G. Van Horne and H. IN EASTERN ARIZONA.

Long Continued Drouth.—Sickness and Deaths.—Sabbath and Other Meetings.

ALPINE, Apache County, Arizona, May 30th, 1893.—The spring here has been very dry and windy, owing to there being but little snow and no rain during the winter months. Recently, however, we have had a little rain which is bringing our crops up slowly. The outlook for Eastern Arizona is rather gloomy, unless we have some more rain soon, as far as crops and grass are concerned. We still hope that the much needed downpour will come in time to secure crops. I do not remember seeing so long a drouth in this country during a succession of thirteen years. The failure of crops so much would cause a good deal of suffering to the people.

There has been considerable sickness in this valley during the last three months, with five deaths, including a new born infant. The parents had taken heavy colds bring on lung fever of pneumonia.

Brother E. A. Noble and family have been bereaved of two children, a son and daughter, the former twelve years of age, who died in March; the daughter, sixteen years old, died on the 25th inst. She was a very estimable young lady, who was highly respected by all who were acquainted with her. Almost the entire population followed the remains to the last resting place. This community, as a rule, turn out en masse on all such occasions.

Sunday and other meeting are well attended. All the organizations are in good running order. The people are rejoicing in the Gospel and, as a rule, living up to their privileges, so far as I can see.
