APRIL

3. In Pawtucket, R. I., Banker J. B. Kingsbury assigned with liabilities $100,000.
In St. Louis the Martin Clothing company assigned with $100,000 liabilities.

MAY.

2. In Chicago grain speculators Cinder & Martin failed for $200,000.

JUNE.

3. In New York city Jeremiah John Mason assigned with debts of $187,000.

JULY.

13. In Parkes Mitchell & Shaw failed for $100,000.
In Atlanta, Miss., Robert Duncan, leather maker, assigned with debts of $100,000.

AUGUST.

10. In Philadelphia the Mutual Banking association assigned.
22. At Lamoille, N. H., Cutler & Lovett, mill operators, assigned with $50,000 debts.

SEPTEMBER.

14. In Chicago Gilbert & Co., furniture dealers, failed for over $100,000.

OCTOBER.

8. In New York city A. H. Alden & Co., straw goods, assigned with debts of $250,000.
20. In New York city Burkhalter & Co., wholesale grocers, assigned owing $200,000.

NOVEMBER.

18. In New York city Meunier & Co., importers, assigned owing $100,000.

DECEMBER.

8. In Hamburg, the brokers Carow and Bartels assigned, owing 2,000,000 marks.

CELEBRATIONS.

JUNE.

1. 100th anniversary celebration of the admission of Kentucky into the Union.

JULY.

4. Centennial celebration of the founding of Paterson, N. J.

AUGUST.

8. 200th anniversary of the settlement of Gloucester, Mass., celebrated in that town.

OCTOBER.

2. Woburn, Mass., (20 years old) held an anniversary festival.
4. Columbus' discovery of 400 years ago honored by festivities in America and in many foreign countries.
6. General jubilation throughout the United States over Columbus Day.
Dedication ceremonies in Chicago of the World's fair buildings.

NOVEMBER.

2. The Salvation Army met in New York city to hold a continental congress.

THE DEATH RECORD.

THE GRIM REAPER GARNERS A RICH HARVEST FOR 1892.

Great Men and Noble Women Cut Down in Their Power and Beauty—Statesmen, Soldiers, Actors and Authors All Contribute to Death's Plethoric Sheaves.

JANUARY.

5. In Washington, Gen. M. C. Meigs, U. S. A.; born 1816.
6. In Grand Rapids, Mich., Gen. Ebenezer Stevens, prominent Mason; born 1820.
8. In Vienna, Prince Frederick of Saxe-Weimar; born 1828.
12. In Egypt, Kheديو Tewfik Pasha; born 1852.
13. In Washington, Rear Admiral C. R. P. Rodgers; born 1819.
15. In Franklin, N. H., Daniel Barnard, attorney general of New Hampshire; born 1806.
16. In Boston, C. A. White, composer of music; born 1838.
18. In London, Prince Albert Victor, eldest son of the Prince of Wales; born 1864.
In Philadelphia, George S. Knight, comedian.
In New Haven, N. C., Gen. Robert Rawson, Confederate officer; born 1820.
In London, Cardinal Henry Edward Manning; born 1808.
In Rome, Giovanni Simeoni, Italian cardinal; born 1816.
In Syracuse, N. Y., Judge William C. Roger; born 1811.
19. In Rome, Randolph Rogers, noted American sculptor; born 1825.
20. In Cambridge, Mass., Joseph Lovering, Harvard professor; born 1813.
In New Bedford, Mass., C. H. Peabody, noted newspaper man; born 1818.
In Cambridge, Mass., Christopher P. Cranch, artist and poet; born 1814.
22. In Washington, Joseph P. Bradley, justice of the United States supreme court; born 1813.
23. In Brooklyn, W. E. Robinson, "Hotchkiss," dramatist and statesman; born 1814.
26. In Rome, Rev. Rowland B. Howard, secretary of the American Peace association; born 1826.
28. In New York, Gen. Henry A. Barnum, war veteran; born 1826.
In Nantucket, France, Rev. Charles H. Spurgeon, noted preacher.
In Louisville, Ky., Dr. Basil Manly, Baptist theologian; born 1825.

FEBRUARY.

8. In San Francisco, Moses Hopkins, millionaire; born 1817.
In London, Sir Morell Mackenzie, cancer specialist; born 1837.
9. In Washington, Andrew Bryson, rear admiral U. S. N.; born 1832.
In New Orleans, Capt. John Hughes, prominent steamboatman; born 1805.
In New York, John Jay Knox, noted financier; born 1828.
27. In St. Louis, Capt. W. M. Connor, hotel owner and patron of the turf; born 1840.
28. In Elizabeth, N. J., John G. Shea, historian; born 1824.

MARCH.

1. In Raleigh, ex-Governor W. W. Holden; born 1818.
2. In New York, Mrs. R. G. Frazer, actress; born 1809.
In New Haven, Noah Porter, president of Yale college; born 1811.
4. In New York, James S. Moore, tariff expert; born 1821.
5. In New York, Edwards Pierrepont, ex-minister to England; born 1817.
In Boston, Waldo Adams, of Adams Express company; born 1832.
6. In Burlington, Gen. J. W. Singleton; born 1818.
In Dover, Del., ex-Senator Willard Saulsbury; born 1820.
8. In Washington, Gen. C. W. Field, Confederate officer; born 1828.
10. In Astoria, N. Y., Gen. T. W. Sweeny, U. S. A.; born 1820.
12. In Salt ... N. H., Gen. George Stark, civil engineer; born 1823.
In London, Miss Amelia B. Edwards, novelist and novelist; born 1831.
13. In Sarnia, Canada, ex-Premier Alexander Mackenzie; born 1822.
14. In New York, Roswell Smith, president of the Century company; born 1828.
In Brooklyn, S. D. Gross, W. W. Burns, U. S. A., retired; born 1815.
15. In Paris, William Astor, grandson of John Jacob Astor; born 1848.
16. In New York, Gen. William Wells, Vermont veteran; born 1832.

MAY.

In Baltimore, Gen. George R. Clemens, Union veteran.
In Pittsburg, Father Stanislaus, Passionist priest; born 1815.
In Chicago, Charles Harris (Carl Pretzel), American writer; born 1841.
18. In Buffalo, O. G. Warren, proprietor of the Buffalo Commercial; born 1818.
In Washington, John B. Barlow, United States senator from Virginia; born 1826.
In Pittsburg, Gen. Thomas A. Rowley, Mexican veteran; born 1817.
In London, James R. Osgood, American publisher; born 1836.
In Indianapolis, Gen. A. D. Streight, Union veteran; born 1826.

JUNE.

1. In Jersey City, Miss "Hildy" Morgan, expert horse and trick reporter; born 1845.
In New York, Sidney Dillon, railroad magnate; born 1809.
In Washington, L. L. Polk, president of the Farmers' Alliance; born 1837.
In Philadelphia, Rev. Father Stollinger, priest and physician; born 1827.
In Chicago, Eugenia Blaine; born 1857.
2. In New York, Gertrude Dunn Gen. Campbell, old time actress; born 1816.
3. In Washington, Senor Mata, ex-minister of foreign affairs in Chile.
In Philadelphia, F. P. Prudhomme, expert marksman; born 1845.

JULY.

10. In Bloomfield, N. Y., G. W. Bunker, lawyer and orator.
In Port Gibson, Miss. Gen. Carl Gustavus Rodney, Union officer; born 1818.

AUGUST.

12. In Boston, Wash., George O. Morgan, noted engineer.
17. In Dodge Ferry, N. Y., Gen. W. Field, of Lincoln's bodyguard.
18. In Springfield, Mass., Rev. Terry Clarke, prominent writer.
In London, Theodore Cook, founder of an opinion company.
19. In Milton, Mass., ex-Governor H. J. Gardner of Massachusetts.
20. Very Rev. John W. Mulroy, vicar general of Portland, Ore.; born 1841.
In Washington, Anthony Kennedy, ex-senator from Maryland; born 1815.
In Leadville, Gen. S. S. Fry, Union soldier; born 1834.
21. In Quincy, Ill., Gen. John Tillson, editor of the Quincy Whig.
24. In New Haven, Gen. W. P. Trowbridge, Columbia college professor; born 1811.
In New York, Josephine Pollard, authoress; born 1842.
25. In Catonsville, N. Y., Myron H. Clark, ex-governor of New York; born 1806.
In Brooklyn, E. L. Lord, architect of Mark Twain's house; born 1852.
In Lexington, Dutch Island, George William Curtis, noted author; born 1824.
27. In Philadelphia, Colonel Dougherty, colonial soldier and lawyer; born 1816.
In Portland, Me., Judge Nathan Cutler, prominent Maine lawyer; born 1815.
28. In Isle of Shoals, N. H., Gen. J. R. Anderson, ex-Confederate soldier.
In Hampton Falls, N. H., John Greenleaf Whittier, poet; born 1807.
In Utica, N. Y., Francis Kernan, ex-senator from New York; born 1816.
29. In Cincinnati, Rev. Isaac Brown, inventor of the typewriting machine; born 1826.
In Brooklyn, Dr. M. K. Fisher, he was the oldest practical Elks Mason in America; born 1822.
31. In San Francisco, William Dresser, California cattle king; born 1836.
In Montgomery, Ala., Thomas H. Watts, ex-governor of Alabama; born 1819.
In Peach, N. Y., Gen. Daniel Ullman, Union veteran; born 1810.
In Dubuque castle, scotland, the Duke of Pitlochry.
28. In Scandinavia, O., Gen. John Pope, U. S. A., retired; born 1822.
29. In St. Louis, Patrick Scanlan Gilmore, celebrated bandmaster and composer; born 1829.
In Peekskill, N. Y., Gen. J. W. Husted, prominent New York politician.

OCTOBER.

2. In Paris, Ernest Bigot, French philosopher; born 1818.
In Washington, Dr. J. H. Douglas, physician to Gen. Grant during his last illness; born 1824.
In Portland, Me., Rev. Samuel Longfellow, the poet's brother; born 1819.
In London, Sir Alfred Tennyson, poet laureate; born 1809.
In Bay City, Mich., Gen. R. F. Pettigrew, ex-Spiegelberg, Ill., Rev. Francis Springer Berry; born 1816.
3. In New York, Professor William Swinton, author; born 1833.
In Washington, Caroline L. Scott Harrison, author; born 1858.
In Boston, C. A. White, composer of music; born 1838.
In London, Prince Albert Victor, eldest son of the Prince of Wales; born 1864.
In Philadelphia, George S. Knight, comedian.
In New Haven, N. C., Gen. Robert Rawson, Confederate officer; born 1820.
In London, Cardinal Henry Edward Manning; born 1808.
In Rome, Giovanni Simeoni, Italian cardinal; born 1816.
In Syracuse, N. Y., Judge William C. Roger; born 1811.
19. In Rome, Randolph Rogers, noted American sculptor; born 1825.
20. In Cambridge, Mass., Joseph Lovering, Harvard professor; born 1813.
In New Bedford, Mass., C. H. Peabody, noted newspaper man; born 1818.
In Cambridge, Mass., Christopher P. Cranch, artist and poet; born 1814.
22. In Washington, Joseph P. Bradley, justice of the United States supreme court; born 1813.
23. In Brooklyn, W. E. Robinson, "Hotchkiss," dramatist and statesman; born 1814.
26. In Rome, Rev. Rowland B. Howard, secretary of the American Peace association; born 1826.
28. In New York, Gen. Henry A. Barnum, war veteran; born 1826.
In Nantucket, France, Rev. Charles H. Spurgeon, noted preacher.
In Louisville, Ky., Dr. Basil Manly, Baptist theologian; born 1825.

FEBRUARY.

8. In San Francisco, Moses Hopkins, millionaire; born 1817.
In London, Sir Morell Mackenzie, cancer specialist; born 1837.
9. In Washington, Andrew Bryson, rear admiral U. S. N.; born 1832.
In New Orleans, Capt. John Hughes, prominent steamboatman; born 1805.
In New York, John Jay Knox, noted financier; born 1828.
27. In St. Louis, Capt. W. M. Connor, hotel owner and patron of the turf; born 1840.
28. In Elizabeth, N. J., John G. Shea, historian; born 1824.

MARCH.

1. In Raleigh, ex-Governor W. W. Holden; born 1818.
2. In New York, Mrs. R. G. Frazer, actress; born 1809.
In New Haven, Noah Porter, president of Yale college; born 1811.
4. In New York, James S. Moore, tariff expert; born 1821.
5. In New York, Edwards Pierrepont, ex-minister to England; born 1817.
In Boston, Waldo Adams, of Adams Express company; born 1832.
6. In Burlington, Gen. J. W. Singleton; born 1818.
In Dover, Del., ex-Senator Willard Saulsbury; born 1820.
8. In Washington, Gen. C. W. Field, Confederate officer; born 1828.
10. In Astoria, N. Y., Gen. T. W. Sweeny, U. S. A.; born 1820.
12. In Salt ... N. H., Gen. George Stark, civil engineer; born 1823.
In London, Miss Amelia B. Edwards, novelist and novelist; born 1831.
13. In Sarnia, Canada, ex-Premier Alexander Mackenzie; born 1822.
14. In New York, Roswell Smith, president of the Century company; born 1828.
In Brooklyn, S. D. Gross, W. W. Burns, U. S. A., retired; born 1815.
15. In Paris, William Astor, grandson of John Jacob Astor; born 1848.
16. In New York, Gen. William Wells, Vermont veteran; born 1832.

MAY.

In Baltimore, Gen. George R. Clemens, Union veteran.
In Pittsburg, Father Stanislaus, Passionist priest; born 1815.
In Chicago, Charles Harris (Carl Pretzel), American writer; born 1841.
18. In Buffalo, O. G. Warren, proprietor of the Buffalo Commercial; born 1818.
In Washington, John B. Barlow, United States senator from Virginia; born 1826.
In Pittsburg, Gen. Thomas A. Rowley, Mexican veteran; born 1817.
In London, James R. Osgood, American publisher; born 1836.
In Indianapolis, Gen. A. D. Streight, Union veteran; born 1826.

JUNE.

1. In Jersey City, Miss "Hildy" Morgan, expert horse and trick reporter; born 1845.
In New York, Sidney Dillon, railroad magnate; born 1809.
In Washington, L. L. Polk, president of the Farmers' Alliance; born 1837.
In Philadelphia, Rev. Father Stollinger, priest and physician; born 1827.
In Chicago, Eugenia Blaine; born 1857.
2. In New York, Gertrude Dunn Gen. Campbell, old time actress; born 1816.
3. In Washington, Senor Mata, ex-minister of foreign affairs in Chile.
In Philadelphia, F. P. Prudhomme, expert marksman; born 1845.

JULY.

10. In Bloomfield, N. Y., G. W. Bunker, lawyer and orator.
In Port Gibson, Miss. Gen. Carl Gustavus Rodney, Union officer; born 1818.

AUGUST.

12. In Boston, Wash., George O. Morgan, noted engineer.
17. In Dodge Ferry, N. Y., Gen. W. Field, of Lincoln's bodyguard.
18. In Springfield, Mass., Rev. Terry Clarke, prominent writer.
In London, Theodore Cook, founder of an opinion company.
19. In Milton, Mass., ex-Governor H. J. Gardner of Massachusetts.
20. Very Rev. John W. Mulroy, vicar general of Portland, Ore.; born 1841.
In Washington, Anthony Kennedy, ex-senator from Maryland; born 1815.
In Leadville, Gen. S. S. Fry, Union soldier; born 1834.
21. In Quincy, Ill., Gen. John Tillson, editor of the Quincy Whig.
24. In New Haven, Gen. W. P. Trowbridge, Columbia college professor; born 1811.
In New York, Josephine Pollard, authoress; born 1842.
25. In Catonsville, N. Y., Myron H. Clark, ex-governor of New York; born 1806.
In Brooklyn, E. L. Lord, architect of Mark Twain's house; born 1852.
In Lexington, Dutch Island, George William Curtis, noted author; born 1824.
27. In Philadelphia, Colonel Dougherty, colonial soldier and lawyer; born 1816.
In Portland, Me., Judge Nathan Cutler, prominent Maine lawyer; born 1815.
28. In Isle of Shoals, N. H., Gen. J. R. Anderson, ex-Confederate soldier.
In Hampton Falls, N. H., John Greenleaf Whittier, poet; born 1807.
In Utica, N. Y., Francis Kernan, ex-senator from New York; born 1816.
29. In Brooklyn, Dr. M. K. Fisher, he was the oldest practical Elks Mason in America; born 1822.
31. In San Francisco, William Dresser, California cattle king; born 1836.
In Montgomery, Ala., Thomas H. Watts, ex-governor of Alabama; born 1819.
In Peach, N. Y., Gen. Daniel Ullman, Union veteran; born 1810.
In Dubuque castle, scotland, the Duke of Pitlochry.
28. In Scandinavia, O., Gen. John Pope, U. S. A., retired; born 1822.
29. In St. Louis, Patrick Scanlan Gilmore, celebrated bandmaster and composer; born 1829.
In Peekskill, N. Y., Gen. J. W. Husted, prominent New York politician.

OCTOBER.

2. In Paris, Ernest Bigot, French philosopher; born 1818.
In Washington, Dr. J. H. Douglas, physician to Gen. Grant during his last illness; born 1824.
In Portland, Me., Rev. Samuel Longfellow, the poet's brother; born 1819.
In London, Sir Alfred Tennyson, poet laureate; born 1809.
In Bay City, Mich., Gen. R. F. Pettigrew, ex-
Springfield