OUR OWN STATE.

OGDEN NEWS.

OCT. 13, 1899.

REMOVAL NOTICE.

The business office of the "News" in Ogden has been removed to No. 2[illegible] Twenty-fourth street, opposite the Union Pacific depot.

SENT TO REFORM SCHOOL.

Sequel of the Attempt Escapade of the Two Opera Girls.

Board of Education—District Court—Fire and Marine Discharged—Grand Opera—Opera Sociable.

The board of education held their monthly meeting yesterday afternoon.

The finance committee reported that $[illegible] had been received on the 1899 tax and $[illegible] on account of redemption of property sold for taxes, all of which was ordered placed to the credit of the sinking fund of the city. The committee also reported the issuance of warrants for the month of September to the amount of $[illegible]. The committee also reported cash on hand on the 1st inst. It was ordered that the city be advertised for bids for the purchase of school sites, the sites to be those recommended by the committee on sites, and the board adjourned for one week.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT.

In the district court before Judge Morris the following cases came up:

Lambert vs. Wangsgard. The demurrer of defendant to complaint was sustained, with exceptions, and two days given plaintiff to amend. The action of plaintiff in the matter of Thomas vs. Thomas, the hearing on the petition of plaintiff for a decree of divorce, and of Mary A. Hyde vs. P. W. Hyde, the hearing on the petition of plaintiff for a decree of divorce, were all continued.

Hyde vs. Hyde. The demurrer of defendant to the complaint was sustained, with exceptions, and two days given plaintiff to amend