TELEGRAPHIC.

SAVAGE WARFARE.

Spaniards and Cubans Guilty of Barbarities.

MEN AND WOMEN TORTURED.

Soldiers Allowed to Shoot and Bayonet Villagers—Americans Killed.

HAVANA, April 8.—At the farm of El Potingue, province of Malaccia, the insurgents captured the proprietor, Joaquin Martinez Parejo, and in the presence of his daughters who were crying and begging them not to kill their father, the insurgents carried the unfortunate man to the woods. His daughter Amelia followed her father, and thereupon the insurgents fastened her to a tree, and to her pressure cut off her father's arm and slashed her neck. This, according to the story, caused the young girl to faint, and she was then outraged. The insurgents afterwards burned the farmhouse.

An insurgent convicted of treachery in the pay of Spain at Pinar del Rio, was executed today.

Jose Cantera, also an insurgent, convicted of treachery, will be shot in Cabrinas fortress tomorrow.

FRENCH REPORTS.

LONDON, April 8.—A Paris dispatch to the Daily News says: A French resident of Chile, writing to the Petit, gives a lamentable picture of the frightful character the war has assumed under Weyler. He believes, however, that the rebels will eventually shake off the Spanish rule. He states that Weyler allows the troops to shoot and bayonet villagers suspected of harboring insurgents.

"A few days ago," he continues, "a band of volunteers, in defiance of the resolutions of the American Senate, shot six sons of an American farmer at Caigueu. The United States consul-general is inquiring into the matter."

INDIGNATION IN ENGLAND.

Protests Against the Expulsion of Missionaries by the Porte.

LONDON, April 8.—There is much indignation in England over the intention of the Sultan of Turkey to expel Christian missionaries from Asia Minor.

A special meeting of the Armenian relief committee was held today to give expression of opinion on the subject. The Duke of Argyle presided and he stated that the Duke of Westminster had received information that hostile measures against the Christian missionaries were contemplated by the sultan.

The secretary of the committee reported that an trade had apparently been signed destroying the missionaries should be banished, and that Rev. Mr. Knapp's withdrawal was viewed with concernedness by his colleagues and would be most disastrous in every way.

After hearing these statements of the situation, which were confirmatory of the news published in the press, the meeting adopted a resolution protesting against the measures threatened by the sultan, and urging the British government to do its utmost to secure the immediate withdrawal of the threat. The case of Mr. Knapp was made the subject of a special expression.

The Chronicle says: According to private advices from Constantinople, the palace party is thwarting the pledges with the porte has given to Sir. Philip Currie, the British chargé-d'a, and to Mr. J. W. Riddle the United States chargé d'affaires. If it be found another organized massacre will occur in the Christian provinces.

SUPPOSED PATTISON.

A Letter From the Chairman of the Democratic National Executive Committee.

CINCINNATI, April. 8.—The Commercial Gazette will print tomorrow a communication, with a Philadelphia date, from H. C. W. H. Harrity, chairman of the Democratic National executive committee, to support ex-Gov. Robert E. Pattison of Pennsylvania as Democratic candidate for the Presidency. Mr. Harrity says: "The Democratic candidate must be a man of broad views, unimpeached integrity, and with an inflexible purpose to meet the highest demands of the position. Mr. Pattison will be found to be all the qualified one of such a leader. Nothing in his private life or official career has rolled for examination or representation. Scotch blood and has been every inch tried by honest and desperate political interests in more than one working caldron."

Demonstration in Germany.

WASHINGTON, April 8.—The prime-ministry movement on in Germany seems to have been described in a report to the state department by United States Commercial Agent Mors at Wetzlar. He says that on March 14th the economic committee of the Imperial Reichstag decided to bring in the following resolution:

"The Reichstag shall declare that international bimetallism best answers the interests of Germany, and request the imperial government (German Reichstag) to do all that is in their power to secure to establish and secure by international convention a fixed proportion of value between silver and gold."

Venezuelans Talk War.

NEW YORK, April 8.—A special from the World from Caracas says: Should the British whip Corsica, Mosquito is called up the Orinoco river the Venezuelans then says Fort Bolia, which has been newly armed, would blow her out of the water.

The Turnbull incident has caused another outcrop of popular hot feeling against England. The newspapers pronounce it arbitrary and forcing an instance of British aggrandizement. They say the time has passed when we ships and guns can come here to force Venezuela to make a decision of commercial. Venezuela's economic exact assistance from the United States.

KILLED THEIR FATHER

And Then Went to a Dance and Surprised Themselves.

LEAVENWORTH, Kan., April 8.—Young Conrad Lambert and Annie Lambert, his sister, who are in jail here charged with complicity in the murder of their father, have made full and complete confession of guilt. While not admitting that they were the actual slayers of their aged father, they confess to having actively assisted the man who struck the blow, which was dealt by Conrad Lambert, jr., the lover of the girl and the friend of the brother, who is also a prisoner in the county jail here. Old man Lambert was murdered at his church in Fall Lent township, this county. On the night of February 16th, Davenport crept in through the rear door, and with the butt of an old dismantled fowling piece knocked the old man down and with the butt of an old dismantled fowling piece knocked the old man down and with the butt of an old dismantled fowling piece knocked the old man down