The past week has been somewhat lame in comparison with the round of the preceding one—the long list of marriages and accompanying functions, filling the previous seven days with brilliant events.

The decrease in number has been made up in the pleasant nature of the present week's functions—some delightful occasions having taken place.

Amongst the pleasantest affairs was the evening party given by Miss Mary Wightman on Monday in honor of the graduating class of the high school.

The house and grounds were prettily decorated—the parlors and halls being lit with gaily tinted Chinese lanterns, and the rooms totally transformed with a profusion of roses, sweet lilies and cactus.

The game of "Pretoria" was the chief amusement of the evening, which was most pleasantly spent.

Another pleasant event of the week was the reception held at Bowlsen Hall on Wednesday night—the occasion being the usual annual reunion of the seniors, graduates, and faculty of the institution.

The hall was prettily decorated in garden and hothouse flowers—the result of the artistic arrangement being due to the teachers and pupils.

A large number of friends of the absolvitory were present, an enjoyable time being spent by all.

The birthday of Mr. John Sharp, Jr., was celebrated on Monday evening—a delightful card party being given at his home.

The rooms were beautifully decorated with snowballs and peonies which were used in profusion throughout the rooms.

As the card contest the ladies prize was won by Mrs. Walter Jennings, and the gentleman's by Mr. G. F. Paterson.

Rev. R. A. Mahaffey was the recipient of a pleasant surprise on Monday evening, members of the parishioners of Trinity Church gathering unexpectedly at his home—where a delightful social evening was spent.

Mr. Mahaffey has had charge of the Shakespeare section of the club during the year, and it was in recognition of his reward for his leadership that the members concerned planned a pleasant reward of the evening being the presentation of a purse to the class, as a more substantial evidence of their appreciation.

Mr. and Mrs. John Scott, Jr., whose wedding took place last week, in St. George, have returned to Salt Lake, where they will reside.

The bride is the daughter of R. C. Lund of St. George, and the groom a well-known resident of Salt Lake.

On Wednesday Miss Emily D. Miller and Prince Clay, Jr., were married at Park Ridge, Illinois, Miss Miller's sister and Miss Mary Parish taking part as bridesmaids.

The ceremony was performed at high noon—the young couple leaving in the evening for an extended eastern trip.

Mrs. Francis M. Bishop was the hostess at a pleasant social affair on Monday—the event being in honor of Mrs. Gwathmey.

The wedding of Miss Josephine Sidwells and Clarence E. Robbins occurred on Thursday, the ceremony being performed in the Temple, and a pleasant reception being held in the evening at the home of the bride's parents, on the corner of Fourth West and Third North streets.

The parlor in which the wedding party was received was beautifully decorated with pink and white roses and carnations—the residence being transformed in alcoves for the array being especially attractive. The bride was attired in a gown of white satin, and her bridesmaids, who also acted as ushers, were dressed in pink—the bride receiving for Mrs. Alice Dunbar, Miss Cartwright and Miss Grow.

A large number of friends were present, the event being a most delightful one in all respects.

Mr. and Mrs. Robbins will reside at 128 B street.

Mrs. Willie W. Flint gave a delightful luncheon on Thursday in honor of Miss Anna Mae McMillan.

Mrs. Nevin McCune and Miss McCune entertained at a card party last Thursday.

Among the pleasant functions that have attended the end of the school year in Brigham City was the card party given by Hattie Lorenzo at her home on Thursday in honor of the graduates and faculty of the institution.

The place was beautifully decorated, and a delicious repast served—approximate remarks being made by the guests, Dean Halsey, Mrs. Jennings and Miss Calhoun.

Among the weddings of the week was that of Miss Angie Gabbel and Professor Robert L. McGhee of the University, who were married on Thursday at the home of the bride's parents.

One of the early marriages of June will be that of Miss Ethel Gabbel and Robert L. McGhee of the University.

The engagement of Miss Bessie Grey and James G. Cunningham has been announced.

One of the prettiest of June events is promised for an event planned by the Ladies' Literature society, for the first future.

The grounds of three neighboring homes are being transformed for the occasion—and, prettily as and unusual, will make a charming scene for the proposed entertainment.

Miss Fiona Griffin has issued invitations for an afternoon party to be given next Tuesday evening in honor of Miss Spencer of Tennessee.

Mr. Samuel Newhouse entertained at a tea party at the Theater on Tuesday evening—and afterwards at a pleasant supper at his home.

Mrs. A. B. Emery was the hostess of a tea party at the Theater on Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Jane Darrow has with her this week, Miss Addie McNeely of Durango.

Miss Judge returned from the East this week.

Miss Nella Burton of Ogden is visiting friends in the city.

Miss Maggie Swan left on Wednesday for a few weeks' trip in Idaho.

Mrs. A. H. Tarbet and Miss Gaughen left on Thursday for Bath, Mich. They will be absent several weeks.

Miss Lucy Grant came home from Farmington on Thursday to witness "Me and Gil" at the Salt Lake Theater.

"Cupy" Williams returned from the East on Tuesday.

Mrs. A. D. Cope of Denver, is in Salt Lake for a short time, she will be the guest of her sister, Mrs. Chas. H. Hirschman, of 156 E street.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Rolle left on Tuesday for a short visit to the coast.

Mrs. Ira Lewis returned home this week.

Mrs. C. H. Hoyt has for her guest this week, Mrs. John Moore, of Iowa.

Mrs. L. C. Vanderwalker left last week to pass the summer in Ellis, Wash.

Mrs. Jacobs, who has been attending school in Troy, N. Y., returned home this week.

Mrs. Jessie A. Moore left this week for California, where she expects to spend the summer.

Miss Jessie has for her guest Miss Lucie, the sister of Lieutenant Lucie.

Miss Maude Pierce is visiting in Provo, Mr. is the guest of Miss Bertha McIntyre.

Miss Ida F. Curtis left on Monday for Oakland, Wash., where she will remain several weeks.

Mrs. J. R. Letcher left last week for Boise, where she will visit with relatives during the summer.

Mr. Frank Knox returned on Tuesday from Caldwell.

Mrs. S. S. Kingsbury left yesterday for Duluth, where she expects to reside permanently.

Mrs. Frank Shepherd and Miss Belle Parsons will spend the summer in Salt Lake as the guests of Rev. Hoyt Sherman.

A large number of friends were present, the event being a most delightful one in all respects.

Mr. and Mrs. Robbins will reside at 128 B street.

Mrs. Willie W. Flint gave a delightful luncheon on Thursday in honor of Miss Anna Mae McMillan.

Mrs. Nevin McCune and Miss McCune entertained at a card party last Thursday.

Among the pleasant functions that have attended the end of the school year in Brigham City was the card party given by Hattie Lorenzo at her home on Thursday in honor of the graduates and faculty of the institution.

The place was beautifully decorated, and a delicious repast served—approximate remarks being made by the guests, Dean Halsey, Mrs. Jennings and Miss Calhoun.

Among the weddings of the week was that of Miss Angie Gabbel and Professor Robert L. McGhee of the University, who were married on Thursday at the home of the bride's parents.

One of the early marriages of June will be that of Miss Ethel Gabbel and Robert L. McGhee of the University.

The engagement of Miss Bessie Grey and James G. Cunningham has been announced.

One of the prettiest of June events is promised for an event planned by the Ladies' Literature society, for the first future.

The grounds of three neighboring homes are being transformed for the occasion—and, prettily as and unusual, will make a charming scene for the proposed entertainment.

Miss Fiona Griffin has issued invitations for an afternoon party to be given next Tuesday evening in honor of Miss Spencer of Tennessee.

Mr. Samuel Newhouse entertained at a tea party at the Theater on Tuesday evening—and afterwards at a pleasant supper at his home.

Mrs. A. B. Emery was the hostess of a tea party at the Theater on Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Jane Darrow has with her this week, Miss Addie McNeely of Durango.

Miss Judge returned from the East this week.

Miss Nella Burton of Ogden is visiting friends in the city.

Miss Maggie Swan left on Wednesday for a few weeks' trip in Idaho.

Mrs. A. H. Tarbet and Miss Gaughen left on Thursday for Bath, Mich. They will be absent several weeks.

Miss Lucy Grant came home from Farmington on Thursday to witness "Me and Gil" at the Salt Lake Theater.

"Cupy" Williams returned from the East on Tuesday.

Mrs. A. D. Cope of Denver, is in Salt Lake for a short time, she will be the guest of her sister, Mrs. Chas. H. Hirschman, of 156 E street.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Rolle left on Tuesday for a short visit to the coast.

Mrs. Ira Lewis returned home this week.

Mrs. C. H. Hoyt has for her guest this week, Mrs. John Moore, of Iowa.

Mrs. L. C. Vanderwalker left last week to pass the summer in Ellis, Wash.

Mrs. Jacobs, who has been attending school in Troy, N. Y., returned home this week.

Mrs. Jessie A. Moore left this week for California, where she expects to spend the summer.

Miss Jessie has for her guest Miss Lucie, the sister of Lieutenant Lucie.

Miss Maggie