THE NEW GRAND.

The Popular Little Play House Promises Well Under Mr. Mulvey's Management.

The New Grand, the popular little play house which has given Salt Lake much first-class amusement in its brief and somewhat checkered career, promises well under the management of ex-Congressman Mulvey for the coming year. Its doors will be thrown open to the public on the evening of September 26th, with Charles Hoyt's A Trip to Chinatown as the drawing card. This piece is a farce-comedy that established the reputation and ability of Mr. Hoyt as a farce-comedy writer.

Mr. Mulvey has enlarged the orchestra this year from five to eight pieces, Professor Coleman, who was conductor during the Thatcher stock season engagement, will wield the baton, and the music will be a music artist, in all work, taking the wings, and more pretty music from the music can be required. Up-to-date in the history the small crowded chairs have been replaced, and comfortable benches put in instead, while the carpets and drapery give the interior a decidedly more comfortable appearance.

Mr. Carnahan will continue to act as treasurer, and cater to public wants as heretofore. He is a fixed fact in the minds of the patrons of the house, and they would regret very much to see him disappointed. Now to Will the assistance of a leading New York theatrical agency he has made bookings for the end of the year. Mr. Lee will remain with the institution as press agent and publisher of the program.

Congressman King on Politics.

Mr. Pleasant Pyramid, Congressman W. H. King was in Mt. Pleasant a couple of days this week on his return from a journey into Pitts county. He says he has been approached to enter a legal consultation with a client who should make suit. Mr. King says, but who failed to look over the ground thoroughly to locate over the ground from a political standpoint, and ask the question, is the ground fertile for business and prospects of his party.

To a Pyramid reporter he expressed the firm opinion that the Democratic party would carry everything in the State making a clean sweep of the important offices. He predicted a Democratic majority in the state of from 1,000 to 2,000 votes. The strongest combination of the two factions of the Republican party by means of the covering in the platform of a silver plank, he said, would prove a failure, according to Mr. King's views, and the State convention there would be war between the factions with possibly a serious result for the party.

Sunday School for Soldiers.

Samuel Russell of this city writes to the "News" saying that by letter from his brother, Isaac Russell, now at Manila, he has received the following:

While on guard a little class was formed and the work was carried on with zeal and pleasure. Before leaving Manila conditions were perfected with Wm. Benson of Honolulu as superintendent, and Sheet of the Life Saving Service as teacher. Sunday school is to operate from since disembarking. The pursuit of study is encouraged and is certainly a standard Christ's pleasure, selling work to make the journey agreeable and profitable, and to keep up a good feeling and spirit of cheerfulness and comfort. It has proved helpful and cheering and is a thing which took all the spare time of the responsible officials."

KENNETH KERR'S CONDITION.

Friends of Kenneth C. Kerr, the well known Tribune reporter, will be pleased to know that he is rallying nicely from the effects of the operation for appendicitis which he underwent on Thursday evening at the home of his father, Hyrum Kerr, and Whitney, Mr. Kerr and Dr. Jones allow for a few days though the patient is doing well. The operation was performed next Thursday afternoon, when it became apparent that the disease was rapidly growing worse. The operation was taken to the Holy Cross hospital, where he is now convalescing and prepared for the recovery.

The sympathy of the best wishes are extended to Mr. Kerr and the hope expressed that his recovery will be speedy and complete, so he may thoroughly recover to health.

BURGLARIES BY NEWSBOYS.

One Arrested This Morning Charged with Being a Party to the Offenses.

They Were After Cash and Got It at Savage's, Grimes's and the Keller Candy Kitchen.

For the past week or so, numerous petit burglaries have been perpetrated in this city, right in the business district. The police were notified of the thefts and have been working on them for several days past. This morning their efforts were, in a measure, successful, and a newsboy named Jesse Wilkes was arrested by Officer Perry charged with being a party to the offenses.

The stores burglarized were Savage's bakery, C. E. Savage's and the Keller candy kitchen, Grimes's and the latter taken a few dollars in cash, the rest always sticking for the money drawer. These losses have been continued on several different occasions lately, the thieves entering a back door or window, taking what money they could get, and safely escaping.

In an endeavor to capture the guilty ones, some of the officers spent a night or two in the stores mentioned, but on those occasions the burglars failed to put in an appearance. It was thought by the store owners, however, that they had left a pass behind them on leaving the premises.

Young Wilkes was arrested in the office early this afternoon, when his hearing was continued until Tuesday at at 2 p.m. Other arrests may follow.

Surprised a Veteran.

The seventy-sixth anniversary of the birth of Bishop Richard Quinley, for many years bishop of the Fifth ward, was fittingly remembered last evening by the family and a few intimate friends evening down upon him at his home, 34 W. The evening was pleasantly spent in social intercourse, refreshments served, the showering of congratulations and good wishes upon the guest of honor, while the music of Lake's band served to all present. Bracket Quinley is an old tabernacle, so to speak, in Salt Lake City, and is respected and his life esteemed with him every reverent, of peace and fulfilment and happiness.

SATURDAY IN THE PIT.

It Was a Day of Fair Trading at Firm Figures.

NUMBER OF STOCKS IN GOOD DEMAND.

Schools Should Visit the Hall of Relics—Mercer Mining Matters—Miscellaneous Items.

Saturday, the closing day of another week, found stocks fairly active in the pit, sales being made in Dalton-Hock, Four Aces, Dexter, Colorado Point and Sunbeam. The day's business indicated a growing demand for certain securities, and the figures at which sales were made, gave evidence of a firm market, not a few of the stocks noted registering gratifying advances.

To begin with, Anchor maintained a good degree of strength in a bid of 38 cents, with no offerings. Then came Alice, which was wanted at 46 cents but could not be had under 49. Dalton-Hock being quoted, a sale was made at 16, while the stock stood firm and was wanted at 15.85, as against closing offerings at 16.25. Four Aces three days a thousand at 15, cents was wanted at 5, but at the close sellers demanded 6, thus shutting off further business in this security. Although the company had made several efforts, apparently of favorable figures, nothing where made transfers, in spite of the fact that some, Mammoth and Mayflower among them, seemed to be eagerly sought after.

Colorado stocks sustained the tendency of Colorado Point and caused sales in this at 2.50 and 2.45. Dexter was taken up at 1 cent, 1 million shares changing hands at 1.05, while Sunbeam kept time to the music and handed out to the shares at 1.5 cents. In the silver-lead branch, excitement on usual strength and growth Dexter had a bid of 2.17½, but could not be had under 2.25. Yellow looked well among its associates.

Schools Should Visit It.

A gentleman who can be credited with being a little thinking occasionally, suggests to the "News" the idea that it would be a good thing if matters could be so arranged as to give all the school children in the city a chance to visit the mineral exhibit at the Hall of Relics. The "News" agrees with the gentleman in this matter, believing as it does that it would be an excellent idea for students worth a whole year in the class room. The display of minerals should not be confined to the students of the geological conditions in the State, there should a complete library of books, and as a means to interest the youth of the rising generation, it would be the best of any that could be otherwise be imparted. When the schools open, the "News" trust it will be the duty of the principals consider this and if necessary petition the board of education for a special day, that the visit there may be made with profit.

BIG COTTONWOOD CREEK

Union Light and Power Company Made Defendants in a Suit Today.

TEMPORARY INJUNCTION IS GRANTED.

A. Lauritz and Others Allege an Obstruction Thus Causing Damage to Their Crops—Area Estate Matter Settled.

A complaint was filed in the Third district court today by E. A. Cantin, H. Kinsman, Charles E. Wilson, Joseph Cathcart, T. P. White, J. R. Carlisle and the Utah Power company, as beneficiary, against the Union Light and Power company, the Union Light and Power company, in which it is alleged that the waters of the Big Cottonwood Creek are going to waste, to the detriment and damage of plaintiffs, and a prayer is made that a writ of injunction issue, and that the court adjudge and decree the rights of plaintiffs and defendants and declare water to be permanent.

The complaint sets forth that plaintiffs are the owners of large areas of agricultural lands, aggregating about 1,000 acres in Salt Lake county, which will not produce crops without artificial irrigation, that Big Cottonwood creek is a stream of water which rises in the mountains southeast of the lands, that it is supplied with water from melting high water along the 15th of May of each year, and falling to the low water mark on the last of July or first week year, and so continuing until about the following March.

That about the 15th of October aforesaid the waters of the Cottonwood creek as a power to operate a flour mill, and that a little now remains appropriated the whole of the stream for the purpose of generating electricity with which to run the street railway system in Salt Lake City, that the water from the creek is distributed into a great system of canals and ditches and each of the plaintiffs had a stream of water to irrigate at a time with which to irrigate their lands.

It is then set out that these appropriations of the defendants constituted an entire plant, which has interrupted the flow of the water, for the obstruction of which plaintiffs are greatly damaged, the stream flows at irregularly that some of the plaintiffs obtain water one day and the next day not at all and the rates. The flour mill has had to cease operating and the Utah Power company is shorter than it has offered. It is further alleged that the other persons interested are having their crops ruined for lack of water, and each are thereby damaged.

The complaint then goes on to allege that the defendants have made no attempt to construct a reservoir or reservoirs, or dam, so as to be able to use the water from of the stream. Repeated requests to remove the alleged obstructions have been made, but with a refusal.

TEMPORARY WRIT GRANTED.

Attorney Watkins Van Cott submitted to Judge Judge Morrill the matter of a temporary injunction, and he granted it, stating that he would be willing to sign the order on Friday next, but that Mr. Van Cott said the matter of a temporary injunction was a very important one, and that the gentleman was on the wheel, he desired an early hearing. The court granted the request, and set the hearing down for Friday next.
