Shareholders Up in Arms.

In the Third district court on the application of N. Weingarten and a large number of other plaintiffs, equitable suit against the Western Loan and Savings Co. and the National Building and Loan association, of Salt Lake, praying among other things that the property of the above named associations be placed in the hands of a receiver, and that the plaintiffs and all other stockholders of the National who may join in the action, that the mortgage of the Western be declared void, and that the National be also declared void. The appointment of a receiver is asked for and granted, and that he be authorized to pay to Geo. M. Wilcox drawing attorney, $250, and to Wade Bros. their clerk, whatever is sufficient amount to receive to pay such a salary. The petition recites that the Western is insolvent, and that the stockholders are entitled to a receiver, and that the National, Plaintiff further claims that the defendant companies are insolvent, and that the Western loans and other securities appertaining to certificate of the National Building & Loan Association.

TWO MORE DIVORCE SUITS.

A Husband of 71 Years Wife is Very Bitter Towards him.

Two divorce suits were filed in the Third district court this afternoon, and one of them was another in the courts.

AFTER TWENTY-THREE YEARS.

In the first case the plaintiff is Catherine Hessel Hartley and the defendant Clarence Hartley, and divorce is sought on the grounds of cruelty and drunkenness.

The marriage took place twenty-three years ago, and for the [illegible] it by those a father, but at present he is employed as a bar-tender in this city. Plaintiff says that in spite of everything, years ago she has backed him loyally in his endeavors to make a name and fortune. Without cause he has treated her with extreme cruelty, repeatedly called her vile names and in these occasions has used violent language and on her knees begged for his life. Other grounds are for a divorce, alleging, with other cruelties and evils.

Evans, Hiles and Lippman are the plaintiff's attorneys.

A FIFTEENTH ANNIVERSARY.
