OGDEN.

OGDEN, UTAH. - JUNE 19.

NEWS BUREAU at 2054 Kiesel Ave., where correspondence for insertion or advertising can be made.

THE NEWS is delivered by carrier or post and is on sale at the depot, on all trains and at all newsstands.

FRIGHTFUL ACCIDENT.

A Man Crushed to Death Between the Cars on the Union Pacific Railroad.

Webb Moore, an employe of the Union Pacific road, was last night crushed to death, in attempting to pass between two freight cars on the Union Pacific track.

The train was being switched and Moore was engaged coupling the cars when the accident occurred. The engineer did not see the deceased go between the cars, neither did any of the train men. His shrieks attracted their attention. Moore was unmarried and twenty-seven years of age. His only relative in Ogden is a brother. No blame is attached to the engineer or train hands.

City Council Meeting.

The City Council met in regular session last night. All the members were present. The mayor's report of the charity fund was read, showing a balance of $1.50 on hand. On motion $250 was voted to the fund.

The petition of James Iverson to keep a dog without a license was reported unfavorably by the license committee.

City Attorney Kimball, to whom the question of whether the water company could not be compelled to extend the watermains when the property owners agreed to pay the required eight per cent, gave his opinion which was in effect that when the city council approved of an extension the property owners can compel the waterworks company by a writ of mandamus to lay the pipes. The report was adopted.

The petition of the Christian church that they be allowed the use of Lesler Park pavilion for religious services on Sundays during the months of July, August and September was granted.

McGaw, VanDyke et al called the attention of the council to the deplorable condition of the Weber canal between Twenty-sixth and Twenty-eighth streets. Referred to committee on water supply.

Residents of the Third ward asked that an electric light be placed on the canyon road one block from Washington avenue. Committee on streets.

The property owners on Patterson avenue petitioned that the avenue be graded between Washington and Wall. Committee on streets.

A committee of five was appointed locate a site for a market booth where country people could dispose of their produce. The new license bill passed and will be advertised the specific time required by law. The petitions asking to grade Thirty-first street from Washington avenue west and to place an electric light at the intersection of Washington avenue and Thirty-first street, were granted. The police committee recommend that the police force be reduced three men. Referred back to committee with power to act in the matter.

The claim of F. O. Groom against the city for $3000 damages, and referred to the city attorney, came up for consideration. The following is the attorney's report: "On July 30th, 1882, Ogden city leased to F. O. Groom the land described in the annexed affidavit and warranted to him the quiet and peaceable possession of said lands during the period named in affidavit. I do not think that this was a warranty that he should have water during that term for the purpose of his tannery, and all negotiations between him and the mayor prior to the execution of the lease above named were merged in that lease. If Mr. Groom has lost any rights I do not deem the city responsible." Ordered filed.

Marshal Metcalf submitted his report for the past two weeks, which was as follows: Number of arrests, 53; convicted, 29; discharged, 7.

Several bills were allowed and one or two miscellaneous items attended to after which the council adjourned till Thursday night.

Board of Education.

A special meeting of the board of education was held last night.

The matter of appointing teachers was deferred until tonight.

Emerson introduced a resolution recommending that French, German and Latin be added to the high school course. Carried. Patterson moved that a commercial course, including stenography and typewriting, be added. Carried. Patterson also moved that only male teachers be employed as principals in school buildings of four or more rooms. Carried.

The board will meet again tonight.

Police Court Items.

Charles May was arrested by Chief Metcalf last night on the charge of petit larceny.

Peter Selman and Jake Catelin, two drunks, donated $5 apiece to the city treasury.

T. W. Roach and Thomas Decker were arrested yesterday for vagrancy.

Notes and Personals.

David J. Watts, representing Geo. Q. Cannon & Sons, is in town canvassing for Whitney's History of Utah.

The boy who wandered from home on Friday last was found three miles out of the city yesterday.

Councilman C. E. Westland of Salt Lake passed through here today on his way back from the World's Fair.

A carload of negroes from the south passed through here yesterday on their way to Los Angeles, Cal.

The musical and festival given at the Fifth ward Institute last night under the direction of Squire Coop was a pleasant affair.

C. R. Fell of Salt Lake was in Ogden yesterday. Tonight the Golden Hour club will give a ball and festival at the Lester Park pavilion.

Jim Williams and T. L. Silverthorn will meet tonight in an eight round glove contest. The winner is take sixty-five per cent of the gate receipts.

The Knights of Pythias are holding their annual gathering in Ogden today. Delegations from all over the Territory have arrived. Salt Lake is particularly well represented.

PROVO.

PROVO, UTAH. - JUNE 19, 1893.

CITY COUNCIL.

The Street Railway to Run.—Removing Unsightly Poles, Etc.

A session of the city council was held last night and the following business transacted:

The saloonkeepers represented that times were hard and asked to have their licenses reduced from $500 per quarter $250. Not granted.

The mayor returned, without his approval, the revenue ordinance, and suggested several amendments, which were made and the ordinance again passed.

On the report of the committee on streets and alleys, an order was made providing for the removal of all the telephone, telegraph and electric light poles from the middle of all five rod streets to within ten feet of the curb stone; and all poles erected in the future to comply with this order. An exception was made to the general order by allowing the telegraph poles on 1 street to remain.

An order was made allowing W. F. Bennett to run the Provo street railway during the summer months, on the payment of $10 monthly into the city treasury.

The Relay Race.

The bicycle relay race resulted satisfactorily to the boys at this end of the line. They were pleased with the courteous greeting sent down by Mayor Baskin, based with the reply of Mayor Duesenberry, pleased with the time of three hours and three minutes made in coming down, and pleased with the time of six hours and thirty-two minutes for the entire trip, although they had hoped that it would have been cut down to six hours. The boys crossing Provo bottom were somewhat delayed by sand and mud, but they made good time nevertheless. In the evening, a banquet was given at the Hotel Roberts to the mayor, city council and others. Speeches were made by Mayor Duesenberry, several of the council, editors and others.

Notes and Personals.

An onyx claim has been located at Pleasant Grove by P. A. Johnson and P. W. Eckstrom.

A mass meeting of citizens is to be held at the court house this evening to take into consideration the celebration of the glorious Fourth.

William Waters, an insane asylum patient, escaped on Sunday, helped himself to Dr. Pike's horse and buggy and drove to Salt Lake, his old home. His folks resided at 524 east Fifth South. Arrangements have been made to have him brought back.

A concert is to be given by the Tabernacle choir at the insane asylum on Wednesday evening. Supper and dancing will follow. The patients—many of them—seem to take quite an interest in some little entertainment of this nature to vary the monotony of asylum life.

Elder A. O. Smoot, Stake president, is very feeble in consequence of the recent blow he received on the back from a falling tree. He occasionally suffers great pain in the region of the kidneys. The hot weather seems to be especially distressing to the aged veteran, and many fears as to his ultimate recovery are expressed.
