ZELLA WILL TELL.

She Offers to Go Before the Lexow Investigating Committee

AND REVEAL CERTAIN SECRETS

Regarding Alleged Relations Between a Millionaire and a Gentleman of the Police Force.

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—It is stated Zella Nicolaus has sent to some newspaper with Lawyer Goff and his partner, Mr. P. Dunn, for the last three days. She will be ready to appear before Lexow investigating committee at an early date and she declares she will tell all she knows. What that is is known only to Zella, the committee, counsel and private detectives, but it is alleged her testimony will include an exposure of the social relations between a world-famous millionaire of this city and a man who was long known as the Chevalier Bayard of the police organization. She will, it is claimed, show all the connections existing between these two notable characters in consequence of which the latter, police protection of an extraordinary kind was bestowed on the former, and the machinery of the police force was employed to the accomplishment of a private end by an owner of irreproachable character. Miss Nicolaus said:

"I have consented to appear before the Lexow committee. I shall tell all I know, sparing no detail, sparing no one—the truth and nothing but the truth. The exact facts will be quite enough in this case without elaboration of any kind. I have been in communication with Mr. Goff and his partner. I expect to be subpoenaed immediately."

CHIEF FOX TALKS.

"Dance or Later" Says the People Will Have Free Coinage."

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Oct. 25.—An immense audience greeted Speaker Crisp tonight.

He said he had come to discuss some of the issues the Democratic party hoped to do, and give some reasons why, in the approaching election, allegiance should be given the interests of the Democratic party.

In regard to the financial legislation he discussed the action of Congress in repealing the purchase clause of the Sherman act, and said that candor compelled him to state that the result was a great disappointment to him.

"I have believed always and believe yet that the American people irrespective of party, demand a law which shall continue the coinage of silver for the use of the people. But this is a great country with a large population and laws must be the result of compromise and every man must not expect to get what he wants. The Democratic party, I believe, without exception approves of tariff law, some perhaps one way, some perhaps more it smaller. The discussion will go on, the people will be reached, their representatives will be instructed and sooner or later the people will have free coinage of silver."

Mr. Crisp then showed that the Populists would financially swamp the country if the bills the Congressman of that party had introduced into Congress could become laws and also showed the extreme insanities of the Populist party.

The Santa Fe.

TOPEKA, Kan., Oct. 25.—A very important action was taken during the night in connection with the Santa Fe scheme. Newman Erb and George R. F. Tracy, acting for the protective committee, went before Judge C. G. Foster of the United States district court and asked for an order restraining the stockholders from meeting during today until the court should decide whether the cumulative plan of voting could be exercised. Judge Foster granted a temporary restraining order accordingly. That is, he said the meeting could proceed if the cumulative plan of voting were exercised, otherwise not, and in this event he would set the hearing on the temporary restraining order for Monday, October 29th.

The petitions for the injunction was filed by Benjamin F. Tracy and Newman Erb of New York, Henry Wollman of Kansas City, Wollman & Dillon of Topeka, all solicitors for Winslow Pierce Smith of New Jersey, complainant. The defendants in the action, Thomas Sloan Ex-rel. Attorney-General Boyle, Henry H. Rouse of Chicago, Van Lear Black, Edward Winslow Taylor, executor, Edward J. Berwind, Percy Pyne, Samuel C. Lawrence, George Jay Gould, Alden W. Sparks and Jay Cooke, John Hodge, Wm. Foster, J. Pierpont Morgan, A. Augustus Healy, James A. Blair and F. D. Sturges of New York, all directors.

REAL CRAFTY WITNESSES.

Get Little Information Given to the Lexow Committee This Time.

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—Police Commissioner Sheehan was the star witness of today's session of the Lexow committee. He had been sent for this morning and instructed that he must appear at the afternoon session.

Patrolman M. J. Cooney of the Fourteenth precinct was sworn. Mr. Goff charged him with receiving a thousand dollars and a gold watch from Madam Richmond. He denied the allegation. Mr. Goff did not make any progress with the witness. Here is a sample of the detail:

"Do you know Madam Mars and people for her explained?"

"No."

"Do you not know you are lying?"

"No."

"Was a man was robbed of $300 in a panel house, did you not receive her?"

"No, sir."

"Was not Mr. Palmer who was robbed, threatened with a suit if he notified against you at headquarters?"

"Not in my presence."

After recess Mr. Goff conferred with the chairman a moment and called

"Commissioner Sheehan."

Sheehan at once took the stand, but before he could be sworn Captain Cantillon made a vigorous protest against his examination at the commencement, on the ground that his private duties necessitated his appearance at police headquarters. At this Mr. Goff waived Mr. Sheehan until tomorrow morning, as the commissioner had informed him that it was necessary for him to attend a meeting of the police board.

Commissioner Sheehan said it would appear tomorrow he might as well be examined today and have it over with, as he had more important duties for tomorrow than those enumerated for the other one.

Mr. Goff said: "Very well, the testimony will be proceeded with at once."

Mr. Goff then questioned the witness as to the duties of the different stations houses in his district. The commissioner's answers were given with some hesitation or sometimes refused on a small technicality, which Mr. Goff explained. Mr. Goff, in Mr. Goff's examination, showed the witness to be well versed in the duties of the station house as well as officers in charge.

"Do you not know that it is a fact that the chief of police of the city of New York" asked Mr. Goff.

"No, sir," replied the witness quickly.

Mr. Goff then showed the Tenderloin district contained eight precinct stations and asked the witness if it was a public position.

He answered that it was and when it appeared for the third time that the witness was not in the habit of reading the daily newspapers, Mr. Goff asked the law given him, Mr. Sheehan said he did not know the law. Mr. Goff then showed the witness to be a man of average intelligence and to have served in the department for over twenty years. Mr. Goff then showed the witness to be a man of average intelligence and to have served in the department for over twenty years. Mr. Sheehan was asked if he was a member of the firm of John C. Sheehan & Co., composed of John O'Brien and himself. The firm was doing a business in Long Island City, the nature of which witness refused to state.

A hot time occurred between Mr. Goff and the commissioner in regard to Inspector Williams's connection with the Long Island City business in his efforts to secure a commissionership. Adjournment was taken.

IN THE FACE OF DEATH.

Czar Alexander Learns that He Cannot Recover.

BERLIN, Oct. 25.—Tuesday, Petersburg correspondent to the Cologne Gazette telegraphs that the czar received with courage the intimation of his physicians that there was no hope of saving his life. The same correspondent adds that a few days later when he was feeling better, his majesty remarked: "It is sure that a man of my years should have to die, though personally I am not strong enough to live. It is still dreadful to me to my country to will make me well."

This statement was one which was attributed to the czar after the railroad accident when his strength. He was very proved by the fact that the car in which he traveled was constructed of steel.

The czar, according to the Cologne Gazette correspondent, then gave orders for the settlement of an important question in connection with the succession to the throne and at the same time expressed a wish to personally bestow his blessing on the little heir and the czarewitz. It is also reported here that the private marriage of the czarewitz to Princess Alix has been postponed for a short time and that the ceremony in imperial may take place on Monday.

Militia Officers Tried.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Oct. 25.—The military court of inquiry which was appointed by Governor Markham to investigate the conduct of the national guard at Sacramento during the late railroad strike, today issued its report. Major-General Dimond is held mainly responsible for the business on July 10, when the soldiers failed to dislodge the mob from the depot. Brigadier-Generals Shanklin and Dickinson and Colonel Pedrick, Second Infantry are also criticised for their lack of military knowledge and general blunders.

In Favor of a Populist.

OMAHA, Neb., Oct. 25.—Hon. J. C. Dahlman, Democratic candidate for mayor of Omaha, today withdrew in favor of the Populist nominee, John W. Wilson.

ILLEGAL REGISTRATION.

Cannot Be Prosecuted in a U. S. Court, Says an Attorney.

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 25.—According to an opinion by Assistant United States District Attorney Dyer, received this afternoon, the registering at the November election can go on uninterrupted as indictments, without the slightest danger of prosecution of offenders by the United States authorities. The opinion was given on the request of Chairman Owen of the Republican County Central Committee of Jackson county, he anxious to be assured of an election officer who have been detected registering two or three times under assumed names. After receiving the opinion and consulting with the committee meeting on the subject, Mr. Dyer said:

"I have been unable to find anything in the statutes authorizing the United States to prosecute persons for irregular registration except with a view to the forfeiture provision, known as the citizen act. I find that this section has been repealed."

Mr. Dyer then read from the Congressional Record section which was actually left out when the section was repealed. He added: "Under the circumstances I can do nothing except to refer Mr. Owen to the Prosecuting attorney of the county."

"Is a man making two or three votes as 'Pedro' does was convicted, can he be punished?" Mr. Dyer was asked.

"No, not in the United States courts."

"Does the government cannot interfere in an election even where interference of a Congressman is involved?"

"According to this construction it cannot."

According to the conclusion reached by Mr. Dyer, very person may vote as often as the judges will let him, with certainty that he will not answer for it before Judge Pardigle.

Faulkner's Mission a Failure.

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—Senator Faulkner, chairman of the Democratic congressional campaign committee, returned to Washington today. He admitted prior to his departure that his mission to New York had been a failure so far as the Democratic congressional situation in that city outside was concerned. He has been unable to bring the factions to an agreement. Congressman Dunphy's retirement from the Eighth was the one act and will have no bearing on the situation in other districts.

Mr. Hicks is one of Utah's oldest pioneers. He came into the territory with an ox team in 1850. In an interview with the writer Mr. Hicks says:

"In 76 while working on the Walker Opera House I fell from an 81 story of about forty feet and broke my right leg which became so the condition of my blood deemed to a running sore. I have suffered terrible pain night and day for years. All my friends and acquaintances know the condition I was in. The very best of care in Utah did all in their power for me from time to time during the past thirteen years, but they all failed to cure me. Sometimes I was so bad I had to quit work entirely.

MR. JOB N. HICKS, 417 EAST NORTH SOUTH STREET, CITY.

"Work I was induced by one of Drs. Shores I was in such terrible pain night and day that I was not myself at all and was unable to do anything.

"I have been under Drs. Shores & Shores' treatment and have been using their vegetable medicines that one month now and the result seems almost miraculous.
