Dr. McCarthy Will Resist Parnell—O'Brien's Statement.

DUBLIN, Feb. 11.—The McCarthyites, or members who were seen in the House of Commons today, say that any of them who may decide to follow Parnell's refusal to come to assistance will stiffen their attitude and will increase the resolution to resist any concession to Parnell. It is not certain that all the clubs will be settled at tomorrow's meeting.

Timothy O'Brien has issued another long statement on the Irish situation. He says: "The experience of the past few weeks, gathered from personal interviews, letters and newspapers, completely confirms the conviction that only reason can save the Irish cause."

Referring to the recent Boulogne conference, he says: "Some Irish hot-heads cry out that Irish feuds must end; a settlement so vital. Ship-wrecked at the last moment by a mere error of words and phrases, a comfort error of words and phrases, a comfort error of words and phrases, a comfort
