Fram M. Orem yesterday filed a suit against Edward McGarrick, asking $10,000 damages for slander.

It has been discovered that the wires connecting the ends of the rails on the Repid Transit, in the paved district are still intact after a lapse of nine years.

Dr. E. L. Colborn is suing the admin-istrator of the estate of Mary Jane Hepworth for $372, which he claims is due him for professional services rendered to the deceased.

President George Q. Cannon and party left for San Francisco this morning, en route to Honolulu, to attend the semi-centennial celebration of the introduction of the Gospel on the Hawalfan Islands.

David Nicol yesterday filed a com-plaint with the county attorney, charg-ing A. Dittman with threatening him with a shot gun. The case will come up before Justice McOmie of Little Cottonwood precinct.

Thomas C. Armstrong died at the advanced age of 83 years, yesterday af-ternoon in this city. He came here from England about forty years ago, and became associated with Henry W. Lawrence, which associations lasted up to the time of his death. The funeral will be held on Friday.

The debate was led by Clarence Hauxhurst, affirmative, and Harold Robison, negative, supported by Thom-as Merrill and Albert Williams. Joseph Shotwell, who drives a coal wagon, fell from the car at the Diamond company's yard last night, and received serious injuries. Dr. Beer was called to attend him and found one of two of his left ribs broken. -Shotwell will not be able to go back to work for several weeks. Regarding the statements in the Herald that Dr. Talmage is or is not a candidate for the board of education, the 'News' is requested to state the doctor makes a denial. He is not taking part in a controversy, and re-marks attributed to him are without foundation in anything he has said.

tations were held in the rooms of the Longfellow school. The children of the third grade had prepared a surprise for their teacher. Miss Connelly, in the form of a Thanksgiving banquet. This was very much enjoyed by the pupils and teachers. LOWELL SCHOOL.

WAS & BAD FALL.

Miss Lillia Zenger of 61 west Third North street, who is attending the Sait Lake Business College, fell in a faint on the stairway in the city and county building last evening. She was descend-ing the stairs in company with Mias Jessie Houck, when she suddenly pitched forward and fell headlong down the stairs. She was taken into an of-fice and Dr. Benedict was summored. It took him an hour to restore her to In the annual hour to restore her to ronsciousness, after which she was tak-en home. It was there discovered that she has sustained a slight fracture of the left wrist, a bad contasion on the left side of the head and some severa bruises about the lower ribs.
