will be Known as the "Merchants And Manufacturers' Association" -Many Expressions Heard.

From now on there is to be a new factor in the development of Salt Lake City. It is to be known as the "Merchants & Manufacturers' Association," and is to have as its purpose the studying of Salt Lake's facilities to support manufacturing concerns, and the exploitation of these facilities. It is to throw a dragnet out for capital meeking investment, and try to anchor here in Sult Lake, where it is held that the possibilities are among the greatest in the west for quick returns on inments in manufacturing plants and

The new association was formed at a meeting last night in the Commercial club, at which sixty representative merchants and manufacturers were resent. In the preliminary organiza-on, O. F. Hewlett, J. The meeting was called to order at 8 o'clock by O. H. Hewiett who introduced Fisher Harris as chairman of the evening. Mr. Harrls in taking the chair, pointed out the great beiefits to come to Salt Lake as a result of the awakening of interest in its commercial rossibilities. As for the city's cial possibilities. As for the city's future, Mr. Harris declared that there was no city with a brighter one, and assured the men present that the Com-mercial club was back of any movement towards a greater Salt Lake.

HARTENSTEIN SAFE IN FOURTH PRECINC

Council's Canvass of Returns Gives Him a Lead of Nine Votes Over Ferry.

ARE STILL TALKING CONTEST.

Come Candidates Make Slight Gains-Robert Roden Named as Inspector of Work on Conduit.

After considerable routine work had been attended to by the city council last evening, the canvass of the returns of the recent city election was commenced, and, upon the request of Hartenstein, the returns from the Fourth precinct were canvassed first. No changes were made during the canvass, which will affect the final result and Hartenstein still maintains his lead of 9 votes over W. Mont Ferry, the "American" candidate for councilman "American" candidate for councilman for the long term. Among the members of the "American" party present during the canvass were Secy. S. P. Armstrong, H. J. Dinniny, Auditor-elect Rudolph Alif, Councilman-elect C. J. Crabtree of the First ward, W. Mont Ferry and Perry J. Anson.

SLIGHT GAINS MADE. Hartenstein explained that a great deal of interest was centered on the results in the Fourth ward as the race there was very close, and there had been some talk of a contest. He, therefore, asked as a favor that the returns in that ward be taken up first. His request was granted and President His request was granted and President Hewlett then named Preece, Wells and Black as tellers. There were only two or three errors found, none of which will change any of the results hereto-fore announced. Alff gained one vote in the Thirty-eighth district and five in the Forty-third, making a total gain for him of six Buckwalter gained five him of six. Buckwalter gained five votes in the Forty-first district. It was found that an error had been made in the total of Peabody's vote, it being 784 instead of 794, as at first reported. There were several discrepancies on the face of the poll books in regard to the total number of votes cast, and several of the poll books were not signed and sworn to by the judges, but lit-tle attention was paid to those mat-

STILL TALKING CONTEST. Mr. Ferry was invited inside the rail-Councilman Hartenstein and was given a chair near the clerks of the council and was deeply interested in the canvass. There is still some talk in the canvass. There is atill some talk by Secy. Armstrong of a contest against Hartenstein, but whether or not it will be carried into court remains to be seen. The canvass will be taken up again tonight at 7:30 o'clock, when the returns of one of the other wards will be commenced. The regular council work will be taken up again on Wednesday evening, after which the canvass will be proceeded with. Following is the official vote of the Fourth precinct:

COUNCIL BUSINESS.

The following routine work was transacted by the council: Upon recommendation of Assistant City Attorney Bramel the council ap-propriated $1,200 for the purpose of paying the judgment recently entered against the city in favor of Katherine Gillespie. The amount of the judgment was so small that the attorney did not consider it worth an appeal to the supreme court.

INSPECTOR OF CONDUIT WORK. The board of public works notified the council that it had employed Robert Roden as chief inspector on the con-struction of the Big Cottonwood con-duit, and asked that his salary be fixed at $120 per month instead of the usual wage of $3 per day paid the inspectors in the city. The recommendation was concurred in. Upon request, the city auditor was authorized to employ one additional clerk and the city treasurer two additional clerks to finish up the work of the offices so that they will be ready to turn over to the new administration.

PAY FOR JUDGES.

The pay rolls for the judges of elec-tion and for the rental of polling places were referred to the election committee with power to act.

The sum of $200 was appropriated upon the recommendation of City Sexton Heber H. Davis for the purchase of two devices for lowering bodies into graves at the city cemetery.

tory, in which he said: "We learn this one very essential and "We learn this one very essential and all important fact, that some how or other the world is interested to learn something about the Jew. Enough interest still attaches to him and to his story that people will take him from their life efforts to come together to enter upon this study. It is all because there is something connected with the remarkable personality of the Jew that arouses the interest of the people. The Jew's former activity and his present doings do not show him as a curiosity. Jew's former activity and his present doings do not show him as a curiosity. In this world, as time has gone on, the Jew has been misunderstood and misrepresented. He has been looked upon as a curious phenomenon. All are the children of God. But the Jew as he is today is not ready to be shelved—he is not yet a fit specimen for a museum. He is not an archaeologic reliction to the is deeply interested in the work but he is deeply interested in the worl of the world. The Jew is a part of the of the world. The Jew is a part of the world's history, although he has not lived apart from it. Efforts have been made to thrust him off, to do him all manner of injustice. But however treated he may have been, he was ever ready to show that he was a necessary portion of the earth's activity, that he was ever ready to take part in the world's work, and not ready to live away from the world, as many of us think."
