NEWS OF THE WEST.

A Nevada Prospector Starves to Death.

CONDUCTOR KILLED BY A TRAIN.

Governor Caverly at Florida—Asking About Nauvoo—the Next Irrigation Congress.

Coconino, Arizona, has a vigilantee committee.

Mary Reed was crowned Tuesday Alturas Cal., and her body was laid out lay at her side, close to the casket from which she was wedded.

The Rich Hornage Miner says some of the Salt Lake bands buy Sheet Valley, Wyoming, butter in preference to any other brand, because of its superior quality.

A carpenter was doing some repairing in an ancient Pueblo, Arizona, building a low cage such, sawed into a wall and discovered stored away in a hole only 200 in cash.

E. V. Helm, a hotel man of Layton, Ut., and well known throughout this county, was thrown from a horse Wednesday afternoon, receiving injuries which it is thought will prove fatal.

Guy Godfis, manager for the Vivian Pa'ch'ouski, was sewed with a gentlemanly in Wednesday, for a duel with the violinist had attended with the violinist had attended with years ago. Paderewski without serious injury.

H. G. Hilger, a prospector, was found dead in his cabin near Silver City, Lyon county, Nevada, Tuesday night. An examination of the premises showed a total absence of food, indicating that death resulted from starvation.

The Los Angeles, Cal., Herald is authority for the statement that the county officials of five seven southern counties are taking a hand to enforce the law which gives the sheriffs power to call out the law providing for the county of the law providing for such emergency four years.

Dr. E. H. Stanley, of Port Angeles, Ca., has completed preparations for the establishment of an extensive oyster plant, at Dungeness bay, where he has leased 400 acres of land from the government, including a lagoon covering 100 acres. The under proposes to propagate on the park system which has been extensively adopted in Japan.

Says the Los Angeles, Cal., Times: Has Diego has a man who laughs all the time. Although crazy he is not confined a 5 person for a plausible reason. Nothing appears to operate on this laughter. He laughs at good news and at bad news. He does not seem to know the meaning of the word worry. When arrested on longbeat charge he was amused at the idea of being jailed. Mirthe supposed to be some one who plots away their days worrying or brooding over fancied troubles might almost envy the insane man who can laugh at everything.

E. D. Pillsbury, one of the oldest employes of the Atlantic & Pacific Railroad company, was killed Wednesday at Williams, Arizona. Mr. Pillsbury was coming up the mountains with a train, the first section of the Canyon fast freight, and the train being unusually heavy, was overtaken by the second section, which was light. The latter ran up close to the first section to couple on for assistance, and Pillsbury, in trying to make the coupling, fell under the pilot of the second engine, and was killed. The pilot had to be removed to get the body. The deceased leaves a young widow and one child.

Wednesday evening at a mass meeting of citizens, presided over by Colonel Committee-man James H. McClintock, at Phoenix, Arizona, a committee of fifteen business men of the city was selected to take in charge preparations for the meeting of the fifth Territorial Irrigation congress to be held next winter. The committee is politely will at once be shown to be work commenced on the improvement of the resolve throughout the Union. The present plans embrace a display at the time of the congress of the products of the territory, and a novel and complete exposition of topographical features of the irrigable arid west.

Henry Lund, the Swedish consul at San Francisco, on Wednesday notified the Geographical Society of the Pacific that he had written the Royal Geographical Society of Stockholm, as well as the society of Christiana, asking information as to the truth or falsity of the rumors circulated last November, that the North Pole expedition under Nansen had been explored or discovered by Greenlanders, who said approach the vessel because of several miles of ice. The scientific world has been anxious ever since for news of the expedition, and Consul Lund hopes to obtain all the facts that are known regarding the matter. He expects a reply in about six weeks.

A midwinter carnival is to be held at Phoenix, A. T., from February 19th to 22d. The program is varied enough to suit everybody. One of the attractions will be an Indian encampment, where representatives of all the tribes living in Arizona will be gathered. One day will be devoted to the cowboy and his sports, including exhibitions of lassoing and bronco riding. Among the other sports will be bicycle races, baseball and football contests. One evening will be devoted to what is promised will be the best display of fireworks ever seen in Arizona, and on that evening there will be illuminations and an electrical display. The festival will close on Washington's birthday.

A few that is always assessable is a box of Simmons Liver Regulator, the "King of Liver Medicines." It keeps the liver active, the bowels regular, promotes digestion, and promotes digestion. In fact helps keep you well. "I have watched its effects in families where I have practiced, and find it invariably well adapted to family use."—Dr. T. W. Mason, Macon, Ga.

Appetite Was Poor.

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, Jan. 20, 1896. My appetite was very poor and I was pale in face, and had dark lines under my eyes. A friend advised me to use Hood's Sarsaparilla and I took three bottles, when my appetite increased and I became fat and hearty."—Ray Smith, 309 W. Second North street.
