A SHOOTING AFFRAY.

Shocking Affair Near St. Louis Yesterday.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 14.—A serious shooting affair occurred near Bridgeton, thirteen miles out of the city, on the Wabash railroad, yesterday, caused by reports involving the name of Miss Christiana Amelung, a young lady of 19, daughter of William Amelung, a farmer. Mr. Amelung had had a colored man, Taylor Pointer, in his employ and, as the story goes, Pointer had been boasting of intimate relations with Miss Amelung. This report was first heard three weeks ago, and the Amelung boys, John, William, Edward and Frank have ever since determined to punish Pointer for telling such stories. They called to their assistance their brother-in-law, Otto, Christ, Herman and Luke Asmus, and yesterday they started out to find the offending Pointer.

A call was made at the house of Creed Hall, but Pointer had gone with Ehler Hunt to the house of Ralph Bivens, to visit Miss Miss Amanda Bivens, who had been confined to her bed for four months with dropsy. There he was found. Bivens answered the knock at the door and was told they had COME TO ARREST POINTER.

Bivens begged them not make a disturbance, as his daughter was sick. Herman Asmus rushed by him into the house, revolver in hand, and, leveling it at Pointer, said that was warrant enough for him. Mrs. Bivens seized a shotgun, when Otto Asmus rushed in and attempted to take it from her. Bivens came to her assistance and a terrible struggle ensued, during which two of the Amelungs seized Pointer, who was defending himself desperately.

He was struck over the head with a revolver and knocked down with a chair, when he grabbed a flat-iron, with which he struck Herman Asmus on the head. The men then ran out and began firing through the door. Mrs. Bivens, who had run into the kitchen, screamed, and Pointer, picking up the shotgun, ran to her assistance. Otto Asmus was in the doorway, revolver in hand. Pointer fired full in his face. He fell back and was carried away by his friends. Pointer escaped to Bridgeton, where he gave himself up, as it was feared he would again be attacked. The wounded man received the full charge in his face, both eyes being shot out.

Wholesale Slaying.

MARION, Mo., Jan. 14.—In a street fight today with revolvers, between Morris Norris and Dr. W. G. Larribee, three persons were wounded, two of them it is feared fatally. The fight was caused by a dispute over a bill in Dr. T. J. Norris' drug store, between the proprietor and Dr. Larribee. The latter refused to pay the bill, claiming an error. After some words had passed, Dr. Norris ordered Dr. Larribee from the store. The latter soon returned and called the proprietor to the sidewalk. Morris Norris, the doctor's son, feared trouble, and grasping his father's revolver from the counter, followed him to the sidewalk. Dr. Norris had no sooner reached the pavement than Dr. Larribee drew a revolver and commenced firing. Morris Norris returned the fire, and shot Dr. Larribee in the left arm and right leg. Deputy Sheriff Pearson was hit by a stray bullet, which passed entirely through his body, producing a fatal wound. Another bullet struck S. M. Wiggins, a farmer, in the leg, inflicting a slight wound.

A Chicago Swindle.

CHICAGO, Jan. 14.—The matter of the fraudulent failure of Deimel Bros. was again on hearing today. Attorney Mayes said it is utterly impossible, in view of the complicated condition of affairs, to get at the bottom of the swindle for some time. Since June 1st, last, the firm has purchased nearly $300,000 worth of goods, although knowing they were insolvent. These goods have been stored in warehouses and they borrowed money thereon.

Stanley and Emin.

CAIRO, Jan. 14.—The Khedive to pay conferred upon Stanley the Medjidieh decorations.

Stanley said that Emin Pasha was animated in a desire to serve the Egyptian government and some appointment would be the best medicine for him. The Khedive assenting, Stanley suggested that Emin be employed in a purely administrative capacity at Suakim, Wadyhalfe, or wherever it was desired to conciliate the natives. Emin, he said, would be invaluable with a strong executive in other hands. The Khedive promised to telegraph Emin Pasha. Stanley speaks enthusiastically of all his own affairs. The terms upon which Soudan was surrendered, he said, amounted to a political crime. The wisdom of choosing the Congo route had been incontestibly proven.

Blown to Atoms.

LONDON, Jan. 14.—At Festiniog, Wales, today, a gasometer at the gas works exploded. The manager was blown to atoms and many persons were injured.

Assault Upon an Editor.

KANSAS CITY, Jan. 14.—Charles Jones assaulted a man named Hammersbough in the street today. Jones is a son of Major Jones, superintendent of the National Water Works Company, and Hammersbough is proprietor of the Kansas Globe. Hammersbough did not strike back, but contented himself with guarding his face. The men were finally separated and Jones was taken to the police station, where Hammersbough preferred charges of disturbing the peace, and Jones gave bail for $100. Articles which have appeared in the Globe, and which Jones considered derogatory to the honesty of his father, inspired the assault.

The Peruvian Concessions.

LIMA, Jan. 14.—The two million hectares of land granted to the Grace bondholders for a settlement of the debt are given on condition that the concessionaires bond themselves to devote the land to agriculture or industrial purposes, and colonization shall begin within three years and be completed within nine. It is proposed to divide the concessions into four nearly equal portions, situated in different parts of the republic, so there shall be four large colonies established. The colonists shall be of the European race and be exempt for ten years from all taxation.

Censure.

PARIS, Jan. 14.—The papers have unanimously censured the policy followed by England in the dispute with Portugal, as a violation of the act of the Berlin Conference.

CHAPTER OF ACCIDENTS.

A List of Casualties Which Occurred Here and There.

NEENAH, Wis., Jan. 14.—A family living on Daly Island, who a week ago ate heartily of pork from a newly slaughtered hog, have been taken down with a violent case of trichinosis. One man has died and three others of the family are in a critical condition.

THROUGH THE STORM.

DETROIT, Mich., Jan. 14.—A special from Chatham, Ont., says the storm of yesterday blew a flat car out of the Ontario & Quebec railroad yard at Jeannette's Creek. The car rolled rapidly westward until within two miles of Chatham. There it crashed into a construction train filled with laborers. The construction train consisted of an engine, pushing two box cars and drawing a box and flat car. Three men were probably fatally injured and twelve received injuries more or less severe.

DERRICKS DESTROYED.

PITTSBURG, Jan. 14.—The severe wind storm of yesterday and last night played havoc with the oil interest of this section of the State. A great number of derricks were destroyed, and in some sections the loss has been so great that all work of drilling wells has been suspended, owing to the loss of derricks.

DRUNKENNESS AND ITS RESULTS.

ERIE, Pa., Jan. 14.—Tonight Mr. and Mrs. Rogalinski left their four children at home with Mrs. Rogalinski's brother while they went out to make a call. The little ones' uncle was intoxicated and laid a lighted pipe down on the bed in which the children were sleeping. The bed took fire and the house was consumed. The drunken man escaped, as did Mary Lowinsk, owner of the house, but the children were all suffocated.

SEVERE WEATHER.

ST. PAUL, Jan. 14.—Severe weather is reported generally throughout the northwest. A blizzard is raging at Beardsley, Minn., and drifts are being piled twenty feet high. Train and wagon traffic is at a standstill. The first great storm of the season has struck Grand Rapids, Minn., extending all over the upper Mississippi region. At Walhalla thirteen inches of snow fell. From Neche comes an account of a blizzard which raged for thirty-seven hours, rendering all travel impossible through heavy drifts.

TWO OF THEM.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 14.—In the coal bins of the burned steamer Sucrobosco, the bodies of two missing members of the crew were found. Chief Engineer Kirens, who was thought to have perished, turned up alive.

A STEAMER'S DISTRESS.

NEW YORK, Jan. 14.—The steamer La Bourgogne, from Havre, experienced very heavy weather throughout her passage. On Sunday the 5th inst., at 1:30 p.m., it came in collision with the British steamer Carrhin. La Bourgogne received serious damage.

ROUGH WEATHER AT SEA.

LONDON, Jan. 14.—The British steamer Oxford, from Baltimore, experienced a hurricane January 3rd and 4th. She was hove to for sixty-eight hours. The seas were mountainous and deluged the vessel. She lost 157 head of cattle, and a life boat, gig and bridge were carried away.

Messrs. Lorentzen Bros.

Gentlemen—I have tried the Hungarian Blackberry Juice, and can say it is a good one. It is the first preparation of a similar nature that I have found to be free from alcohol, which I detest, hence the difficulty in finding a good one. I can recommend it for diarrhoea and bowel complaints. Respectfully yours,

A. A. HAMILTON, M. D.
