OGDEN.

OGDEN, UTAH, - Nov. 29 1894.

A Romance and Lawsuit.

A suit was commenced in the Fourth district court by Messrs. Rhodes and Tait. The plaintiffs in the action are Robert Furniss Jun., Smith Furniss, Mary Allred and Ann Myers, and the defendants Mary Ann Furniss, Ephraim Furniss and Tobias Furniss, children and heirs-at-law of Robert Furniss. It is alleged that on the 14th of this month Mary Ann ——, who was acting as housekeeper for Robert Furniss, was married to the deceased, Robert Furniss, who died on the 15th. It is alleged that on the day previous to the marriage, while in a dying condition Mary Ann Furniss induced deceased to execute a deed to her for certain real estate owned by him and valued at $1,500 and household and personal property valued at $500. The suit is brought to secure a temporary restraining order to prevent Mary Ann Furniss from disposing of any of the property and also asking that the alleged marriage be adjudged and decreed fraudulent and void and be annulled and that she be disinherited. The plaintiffs reside at Evanston, Wyoming.

Probably Fatal Accident.

What is now reported to be a fatal accident, occurred at the Rio Grande Western yards yesterday. Michael McCabe, a switchman employed at the Rio Grande Western yards, was doing some necessary work between the cars. The engineer, thinking the work completed and that McCabe had stepped out from between the cars, backed his engine. McCabe was knocked down, and fell with his right arm across the rail. The car wheels passed over his right arm, crushing it in a frightful manner and also crushing the big toe of his right foot.

Dr. Armstrong attended the unfortunate man, after which a special carried him to Salt Lake City. McCabe has a wife and family in Ogden. Word has come to Ogden that the unfortunate man died last night. He was much respected by his fellow workmen, having been employed at the railroad yards for a long while, and being one of the oldest hands there.

Privileged to Marry.

Licenses to marry were issued to Geo. Barr and Miss Annie Mangle; John Sheppard, 23, and Miss Jannette H. Lewis, 19; Joshua S. Roberts, 21, and Miss H. M. Keckson, 20, all of Ogden.

Afforded Relief.

A tumor that weighed forty-eight pounds and which had caused Mrs. Rudolph Vanderbum untold suffering, was removed by Drs. Rich & Rich. The operation was successful.

PROVO.

PROVO, UTAH, - Nov. 30, 1894.

Lockwitz's Damage Suits.

Wednesday afternoon after all the evidence for plaintiff had been heard in the case of A. Lockwitz vs Patrick Shea, Mr. Sutherland of counsel for the defense moved for a nonsuit, and Judge Smith granted it, as he did not think the testimony of Messrs. Dunminy and Jacobs should be admitted. The plaintiff took an exception.

Forty days was granted to prepare and serve statement on motion for a new trial, and a stay of proceedings was granted.

A jury was empaneled in the case of Adolph Lockwitz vs C. W. Clark. The suit is brought for $5,000 damages, claimed to have been sustained by plaintiff on account of remarks made by defendant accusing plaintiff of setting fire to the property burned in Eureka on July 19, 1893. Several witnesses testified that Mr. Clark had said there was no question but that Lockwitz set the house on fire.

The case was continued today.

Court Notes.

V. S. Hay vs R. C. Camp et al; judgment by default for $517.72 and costs.

In the case of the Mammoth Mining Co. vs Juab county et al, a stay of proceedings till the 15th of January, 1895, was granted.

In the case of the People vs George Hughes; time to file bill of exceptions on appeal extended to December 10th.

R. C. Edwards, E. A. Wedgwood and S. A. King were appointed to committee to examine C. F. Barrell as to his qualifications for admission to the bar.

Will Not Act.

The board of education has had a meeting at which it considered the instructions from the Utah Commission as to the connection of the board of education in the way of paying expenses, etc., with the coming school election. The instructions were published in the News a few days ago. The board decided to take no part in the election whatever, and will not be guided by the instructions formulated by the Commission.

Notes and Personals.

J. E. Wilson, of Phoenix, Arizona, has written to Sheriff Brown asking if his (Wilson's) brother is in jail here, and what offense he is charged with. The man enquired after is Talton Wilson, bound over to await the action of the grand jury by Justice Billings, of River Dale, Uintah county, on a charge of horse stealing.

The complaint sworn out before Justice Wedgwood, last Wednesday, by Mrs. Catherine Jacobs, against Mollie Brown, charging the latter with stealing a cloak, has been dismissed. Defendant had gone to collect an account, and failing in this had taken the cloak. She returned the cloak to plaintiff.

A young man giving the name of Chas. H. Whitcomb has been bound over to await the action of the grand jury in $500 bonds, by Justice Boyer of Springville, and in default of bail is in the county jail. He is charged with stealing a horse from S. H. Love of Salt Lake county, and was caught near Santaquin on his way south.

Last Wednesday evening Deputy Marshal Fowler, Sheriff Brown of this county, Sheriff Holiday of Wasatch county and Sheriff Carter of Sanpete county, left on the R. G. W. eastbound train for the San Rafael mountains. They will be joined by Sheriff Lloyd of Carbon county, Sheriff Burgess of Emery county, and possibly others. It is their intention to institute a vigorous search after Moroni Kofford and James Mickel, the murderers of Sheriff Burns. Sanpete county has advanced money to pay the expenses of the officers on the trip.
