GENEALOGICAL.

To Latter-day Saints who are interested in Genealogical Matters.

By and with the consent of the proper authorities, I have concluded to go to the Eastern States during the present winter, to obtain the genealogies of such Saints as may wish my services, and who may furnish to me, on my arrival in Washington, the names of two parts, population myself with facilities that will enable me to obtain genealogies which, for correctness, completeness, and in reasonable time, will be a matter of interest to the Saints. At the same time, the expense will be but a very small portion of what it would cost to do the same thing separately. This is a course I have pursued for the Saints from New Brunswick, Canada, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, or Saints whose ancestors were natives of those States, to procure genealogies at a small cost. A circular, stating terms, will be sent on application.

CONGRESSIONAL.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, 1.—Mills alluded to the Boston navy yard scandal of several years ago.

Baker had his affidavits read. The first was by Ingram Coryell, charging that Polk had promised him an interest in certain claims, provided he would resign his position as clerk. Polk was interested in these claims. The second statement was made by Mark A. Duffy, assistant superintendent of the document room to a similar effect, and that Polk had told him he had a corner upon Congress in the way of appointments. He could get anything from the committee of accounts.

The Speaker said the committee on rules was already overburdened and could not do this work.

Whitthorne expressed belief in the honesty of Polk.

McMahon defended the committee of accounts. Polk had always acted in a gentlemanly manner with the committee.

Roberts said that if this was a political question he would state that under the republican rule the extra employes were paid out of the appropriation for the folder's room, which was now cut down from $100,000 to $11,000.

Wright said he had one man appointed by the doorkeeper, but the man was stationed as messenger in the committee room, and he had to pay him himself. Wright continued in a semi-comic strain, to the great amusement of the members, discussing Beecher and hell, and addressing the reporters, for which he was called to order, amid laughter. He said the doorkeeper undoubtedly did the best he could, for no mortal was ever so oppressed by office seekers.

Ellsworth and Frye objected to Polk making political appointments and excluding republicans.

Wright said they were following in the footsteps of those who went before.

Clymer said that during the forty-fourth Congress the contingent expenses of the Senate were $3,688 for each senator; of the representatives $1,013.

Finally the investigation was placed in the hands of the civil service committee and the affidavits were omitted from the record, Baker objecting to this leaving out of a part of his speech.

The vote was reconsidered and then the motion to expunge the affidavits was declared out of order.

After being in committee of the whole on the private calendar, the House adjourned till Monday.

EASTERN.

Terrific Destruction of Property and Loss of Life by Storm.

NEW YORK, 1.—The storm has been fearful and the dispatches report damage and disaster all along the Atlantic coast. At Coney Island there has been great destruction of property and eight lives have been lost. A scene of great calamity was at the Manhattan beach property, where the storm struck with the greatest violence, fairly sweeping everything before it. About half a mile east from the big hotel were two shanties, where 7 men named Wynne and Brannan lived with their families. Shortly after 10 o'clock, the men, who were employed as watchmen by the hotel company, left their homes for the purpose of reporting the alarming state of affairs to Weed, head watchman, and during their absence the shanties in which they left their families were swept away and the unfortunate occupants, numbering three women and five children, perished. The victims were Mrs. Wynne, and three children, aged 5 and 3 years and an infant but a day old, Mrs. Brannan and two children, aged 2 and 4 years respectively. The third woman who perished was the nurse of Mrs. Wynne. There were three tidal waves, which followed in quick succession, and not a vestige of the shanties was left. The bodies of the unfortunates were carried to sea, with the exception of Mrs. Wynne, which was picked up at Sheepshead bay this morning. The tide rose five feet higher than any previous recorded flood. At other parts of the island the damage done has been excessive. The drive along the beach known as the Foxcourse, is completely undermined and unsafe for horses.

Later reports from Sheepshead Bay state that the bodies of Mrs. Brannan and children have been found there.

LONG BRANCH, N. J., 1.—Almost every building on the shore between Sandy Hook and Long Branch has been more or less damaged and all the hotels and dwellings on the beach had their grounds badly washed. The bath houses are all gone and many beautiful summer houses were either washed away or blown to pieces by the gale.

ASBURY PARK, N. J., 1.—The most terrific storm known in years has been raging along the coast. The brig Etta M. Tucker came ashore yesterday morning and is a total wreck. Her cargo of coffee, said to be worth $80,000, is in the undertow.

The heavy sea reached over the sand bar and has almost completely destroyed the county bridge connecting Asbury Park with Deal. The railroad bridge over the same stream is badly damaged, and last night, while the passenger train of the Central road, from New York, was proceeding with great care, men with lanterns going ahead, the engine turned over into the stream, and John Bateman, brakeman, was thrown under the engine and drowned. The engineer and fireman escaped by swimming. Long Branch is reported to have suffered severely by the storm.

The Lord-Hicks Mansion Illuminated.

The World says the Hicks-Lord mansion, to-night, was thrown open for the first time since the marriage. American flags were flying from the windows. To-night the house is brilliantly illuminated.

Wool Market.

PHILADELPHIA, 1.—Wool is steady, demand moderate, supply light for the season. Colorado washed 18 @ 25, unwashed 17 @ 18, extra and merino pulled 37 @ 40, No. 1 and superfine pulled, 30 @ 33. Texas fine and medium 20 @ 25, coarse 14 @ 16½. California fine and medium 25 @ 30, coarse 22 @ 27.

Quartz Discoveries.

FORT McKENNEY, Wy., 1.—Great excitement prevails here over new quartz discoveries on Crazy Woman's Creek, 28 miles from this post.

A courier from Fort Keogh, Gen. Miles' headquarters, arrived here to-day. He brings no important news from that locality.

Returning Board Anderson's Trial.

NEW ORLEANS, 1.—In the Anderson trial, to-day, several witnesses testified, rehearsing the testimony which came before the returning board in 1876, and giving their version of the facts of that controversy. It was testified that Anderson was present when the Vernon Parish returns were opened, and knew their condition.

The Survivors of the "Metropolis"

NORFOLK, VA., 1.—Captain Ankers, of the Metropolis, telegraphed to Mayor Tucker, of this city, that the survivors, in all 150, will leave Coinjack to-morrow for this city. This makes about 100 unaccounted for, including the bodies which have washed ashore and been interred by neighbors.

The citizens of Norfolk held a meeting, this afternoon, to take measures to provide for the survivors. A suitable building has been procured and mattresses, blankets, &c., furnished by the navy department.

Fatal Railroad Accident.

CLEVELAND, 1.—The rear end of a freight train, bound east, on the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Railroad, was run into by a snow plow propelled by two engines, near Ashtabula, this afternoon. Both engines and four cars were wrecked. Joseph Brant and George Clemens, of Erie, Pa., was killed, and John Sutter, Tim Sullivan, and a fireman named Jones, was badly injured, all were railroad employes.

General Miles Preparing to Move Against Sitting Bull.

CHICAGO, 1.—The Times' Bismarck special says: A private telegram, from a reliable source at Tongue River Post, reports that General Miles is preparing to move against Sitting Bull about the 10th of February. The force consists of eight companies of cavalry, six or eight of infantry, with all the obtainable Crow Indians. The weather is splendid. There has been no snow this winter.

N. B.—This seems to favor the idea, which was believed ridiculous in official circles in Washington and Chicago, that Sitting Bull has really crossed into the United States.

Public Debt Statement.

WASHINGTON, 1.—The public debt statement for January shows a decrease in the debt for the month of $1,668,076, and the following balances in the treasury: Currency, $3,170,490; special fund for redemption of fractional currency, $1,000,000; special deposits of legal tenders for the redemption of certificates of deposit, $31,115,000; coin, $126,882,989, including coin certificates, $42,733,800; outstanding legal tenders, $349,110,424.

The payments made from the treasury by warrants during the month of January, 1878, were as follows: On account of civil and miscellaneous, $5,624,227; war, $3,452,076; navy, $1,343,503; interior, Indians and pensions, $778,024.

The above does not include payments made on account of interest or principal of the public debt of the United States.

Wholesale Shooting.

TRENTON, Ohio, 1.—This afternoon, Philip Wenzel shot and mortally wounded his wife, seriously wounded his son, slightly wounded his daughter and then shot himself in the head. The cause of the trouble has not transpired.

FOREIGN.

GREAT BRITAIN.

The Debate.

LONDON, 1.—The debate upon government's motion for a supplementary vote was resumed in the House of Commons this afternoon. George Otto Trevalyn, liberal member for Hawck district, strongly supported Forster's amendment to government's motion. The house was not as full as last night.

Lord Beaconsfield was vociferously cheered this afternoon by a crowd numbering several thousand persons, which collected about the approaches to the House of Lords.

Servia and the Peace Conditions.

The ill feeling excited by the Russian peace conditions is so intense that it appears decided that Servia shall disregard them and continue the war until she holds the whole of Old Servia.

Russian troops are continually arriving at Jassy.

FRANCE.

The Russian Advance.

PARIS, 1.—The Temps states that the Sultan has sent several dispatches to the Czar during the past few days, begging him to stop the advance upon Constantinople.

GREECE.

The Greek Provinces Suffering.

ATHENS, 1.—The following official announcement is published: The Hellenic government, moved by the suffering of the Greek provinces of Turkey, has given orders for an army of 12,000 men to cross the frontier to-morrow morning.
