BRIDE AND GROOM

Robbed of $700 on a Union Pacific Railway Train.—The Thieves Escape.

Yesterday morning Mr. Adolph Schwartz, a passenger on the Union Pacific No. 7, which arrives in the Union depot at Ogden at 10:30 a. m. was robbed when near Evanston of $700.

Adolph, is a native of Germany and several weeks ago, accompanied by his young, fair-haired wife, left Rotherhand, bound for California. The young couple when they left their little fortunes together had to them, quite a neat sum, amounting to $700. In their journey over land and sea Adolph acted as treasurer and carried the money safely stowed away in an inside breast pocket. Yesterday morning his wife became anxious and requested the custody of the cash. After considerable persuasion and when near Evanston, Schwartz unbuttoned the pocket book containing the money, from his pocket and in the presence of his wife, the little bride gazed at the temptation. Mrs. Swartz placed the packet in a small hand satchel which she held in her hand for some time and then carelessly tossed it into the hat rack.

As the train pulled into Evanston the young couple having become thirsty during their long inland ride, left the car in search of a saloon or two. When they returned their complexions had fled into thin air. The doors of the coach were locked and upon reaching Wasatch a dispatch was sent to Marshal Dimick, asking him to meet the train. The officer notified the train as it came to a stand still in the Ogden yard and searched every passenger without reward, the thief two disappeared as completely as he money.

Swartz and his tearful bride continued their journey towards the Golden West with only forty cents in cash in their possession.

Heber Stiner is the name to which a tall and sinewy and brutal young man of twenty-one years responded in the Police Court today when called before the Justice for assaulting and using abusive language to his mother. When asked if he was not ashamed to insult and abuse his mother he replied blustfully—"I don't know that the woman is my mother. I am a half-bred German and I guess that makes a difference, for as Dutchmen are quick tempered fellows."

Attorney Clark—"Look here, young man, you know that the old lady is your mother."

The defendant (with another billetty gibe)—"Don't know—don't remember that for tacks.

Attorney Clark (hastily)—"You answer direct.

The defendant—"She is my mother in the best of my knowledge but I worked for her and she would not pay me for my work. I earned the money she owed me but wouldn't pay me.

The wretch escaped with the slight punishment of $5.

REPORT FROM THE CHOLERA DISTRICTS.

A South Colony in Wyoming.—Building Proposed Water.—Other Items.

By Telegraph to the NEWS.

A MURDEROUS ASSAULT.

Manager Frick Shot by a Disgruntled Assassin.

PITTSBURG, July 23.—At 5 o'clock this afternoon H. C. Frick, manager of the Carnegie Company, was shot by a man, name unknown, supposed to be a Hungarian. The man came into Frick's office and fired without warning. It is not known how dangerously Frick was wounded. He is conscious and able to talk. The man has been arrested.

There are four wounds: one in the neck, two in the back and one in the ribs. The man had a knife. At only the shot was seen to fire, it is supposed the fourth wound, just in the side, was from the knife. The physicians in charge are operating now but cannot tell whether the wounds are fatal. Frick's condition, however, is regarded as very serious. The wounds are scattered over the entire back of Frick's office and was witnessed without question. Frick and he were alone together. What passed between them is unknown.

Secretary Leadman rushed to where the shots were heard and after a struggle succeeded in holding the man and turned him over to the police. There is much excitement and crowds surround the office.

IDENTIFIED.

The man's name is Alexander Berkman, 21 years of age and lives here. He is a Russian Jew, and supposed to be an Anarchist. He has been hanging around the office several days. Asked by a reporter why he did the deed, he composedly said, "You know why."

The Homestead Strikers.

HOMESTEAD, July 23.—Now that the Duquesne men have either, the best part of the strikers are back in the mills in Homestead and many of them have gone there to labor with the workmen to come out. They have strong hopes of meeting up the Edgar Thompson works. Then they propose to turn their attention to the Frick coke workers. In fact, a strong fight is to be made all along the line, though it is doubtful if the coke men can be induced to come out.

There is also a report to the effect that several freight engineers have been warned that if they attempt to haul a period of steel from the Homestead mills, their wife will be shot. This is denied by the officers.

There is evidence of increased activity in the mills this morning.

A COLLIERY RAY RESULT.

In case Hugh O'Donnell is released on bail the citizens propose to welcome him home with a parade and a big demonstration. The sheriff declares that he will allow no such affair, and that the Pinkerton force will be employed. The men declare they will not submit to any interference and a collision may result.

THE HEARING OF O'DONNELL.

PITTSBURG, July 23.—The hearing on application for release of Hugh O'Donnell and Hugh Ross, the Homestead strikers, was begun in mill hegen this morning. Many of their friends were in court. Forty witnesses were subpoenaed including officers of the Homestead mill workers, reporters and policemen. It was announced that the application for discharge would be resisted. Judge Magee said the information did not charge murder in the first degree and must be presumed to be the second degree until otherwise proven. Among the witnesses called are John Cooper, New York; Frederick Pelmer, Phila.; C. W. Biddell, Brooklyn and W. H. Bell, Chicago, Pinkerton men. They testified that O'Donnell was on the bank before and after the firing began. F. W. Hevlect, a reporter, said O'Donnell was present, but so far as he saw, did not take any part in the riot. Samuel Stewart, clerk for Carnegie said that Weihe and O'Donnell advised the men and half an hour later, the men quit firing and the Pinkertons surrendered. Rosen and Frick shot
