LOCAL NEWS.

Murder in the First Degree .- The Hopt case was given to the jury shortly after four o'clock yesterday afternoon. and after being out about an hour and a half, the jury returned with a verdict of guilty of murder in the first degree. Sentence will be pronounced on October 15th

Continued Until To-morrow.-After the close of the Clawson case in the Third District Court this morning, the cases of W. A. Rossiter, S. W. Sears, Edward Brain, Aurelius Miner and A. H. Cannon were called and were continued until to-morrow morning, at 10 o'clock, to which time the witnesses were excused.

An Appreciated Courtesy .- Brother John Kirkman favored the NEWS editorial corps to-day with some samples of his garden products consisting of "orange" peaches and luscious grapes, of the "Bucklin's Sweetwater" variety. The tenth ward bench, where his drawn into any criminating admishome is situated, is a good place for the raising of fruit, but this year his her statement was contradictory of crop was somewhat damaged by a late hailstorm.

Indicted .- This morning Robert Weston, who was placed under bonds after an examination before the justice of the peace, for an attempt to commit rape on a four-year-old girl, was brought from the Penitentiary and arraigned to plead to an indictment found by the grand jury. He entered a plea of not guilty, and, having no means to employ counsel, Judge Sprague was appointed to defend him.

The Next Attraction. - Wednesday evening next commences a three nights' engagement of one of the popular successes of the day, "A Rag Baby." The Boston Telegram says of the piece:

Locusts .- We learn from a resident of the south end of Cache Valley, that the seventeen-year locusts visited that locality in June last in considerable numbers, but did no damage, nor did they remain very long as they were devoured by swarms of sea gulls. Strange to say the birds did not interfere with the ordinary locusts, or grasshoppers as they are usually called, which also prevailed there and did some damage to gardens; nor yet with the crickets, which came down from the mountains and infested the fields and gardens for sufficient to bring forth devastating awhile

A Witness Arrested .- Yesterday Miranda Cutler, an important witness in the case of the United States vs. John Nicholson, unlawful cohabitation, was arrested at Lehi, by Deputy Marshals Vandercook and McDonald. Bicycle vs. Wheelbarrow .- This morning a young man was coming down town on his bicycle, and when at the corner of Fourth East and Third South Streets, he met a man trundling slong with a wheelbarrow. The two years, may almost be regarded as a fixcame together at a bridge, and each turned out to pass the other. Unhappily for both, they turned to the same side and came in collision, and all went foundering on the sidewark, An examination on arising showed that the men had both been bruised, the bicycle had several spokes knocked out, and the wheelbarrow alone was unscathed. The bicyclist was exceedingly wrathy over his tumble, but the temper of the other gentleman seemed unruffled, and he smilingly continued his way, alto the scene. though somewhat lamed by the accident.

one-third of this amount was raised without irrigation. Dry farming has been carried on to some extent for some years in that region, and this year it has been more than usually successful. As a result of the heavy yield of grain, a large proportion of the farmers have been under the necessity of building more granaries, and it is very pleasing to learn that many of them are disposed to hold on to their grain and not sell it at the low prices now prevailing. In view of the fact that the grasshoppers have been very numerous in that region of late and have probably laid eggs them.
