CORRESPONDENCE.

CELEBRATION OF INDEPENDENCE DAY AT LEHI.

Editor Deseret News:

At dawn of the morning of the 5th, the citizens of Lehi were aroused from their peaceful slumers by the firing of cannon. At daybreak the stars and stripes were unfurled to the breeze, immediately afterward our city was serenaded by the brass band, under the leadership of Mr. Alfred M. Fox; also the string band, under the direction of Mr. Jos. Kirkham. Both discoursed sweet music.

Our bands took breakfast (specially prepared for them) at the House of Alderman, Geo. Webb.

At 9 o'clock a. m. a salute was fired for the assembling of the people at Mr. Robert Gilchrist's Grove (east of the co-op store) for public services, where a suitable stand had been erected and tastefully decorated with flags, a large painting of the Bird of Freedom, flowers, evergreens, etc., for which credit is due to the sub-committee Mr. W. Goates, Jr., and Miss Rosey Taylor.

Seated upon the stand: Committee of arrangements, his honor the Mayor and members of the City Council, orator of the day, reader of the Declaration of Independence, and a large number of other leading citizens.

The grove was conveniently, and well seated. All appearently seemed comfortable.

The following programme of exercises began at 10 a. m.

Opening piece by the brass band.

Prayer by the chaplain, A. J. Evans.

"Away, away," by the choir, under the leadership of Prof. J. L. Gibbs, assisted by the brass band.

Reading of the Declaration of Independence by Mr. A. B. Anderson.

"The Star Spangled Banner" was nicely rendered by Mr. Isaac Fox, Jr.; oration, Mr. David J. Thurman; song by Mrs. Mary Wanless; recitation, Dr. Wadsworth; music, string band, Kirkham Bros.; burlesque oration by Mr. Edwin Evans; song, Mrs. Mary Robinson; recitation, Mr. John Woodhouse.

Music by the brass bands.

Remarks on the liberal institutions of our country by Mr. Thomas R. Cutler.

Reading of toasts and sentiments by Hon. Geo. Webb; closing piece by the choir.

Benediction by chaplain.

At 2:30 o'clock a great number of our citizens and many of our American Fork neighbors with quite a few strangers, gathered upon the street in front of the co-op. store to witness the afternoon exercises, which consisted of a cricket match between the Lehi Cricket Club and the Lehi Base Ball Club, and after a well contested struggle of about three hours for the masters, the game resulted in a triumph for the cricket club. Two innings each, 61 runs for cricket club, 54 for base ball club.

There was also horse racing, in charge of J. J. Thomas; foot racing was indulged in by many of our boys and girls, and by some of the ladies, who received suitable prizes.

A good deal of fun was made by some of the boys climbing a greasy pole and greasing a greased pig. The successful contestants of the pole received a fine hat, silk pocket handkerchief, pocket knives, etc. The one who caught the live pork received it for his prize. Many good prizes were given, about $50 worth in all, were dispensed amongst the winners.

At 8 o'clock in the evening all who desired attended a public dance in the Music Hall. The room was filled, good order prevailed, and to the credit of our committee and all participating, I am happy to say no round dancing was indulged in on the occasion. I saw no one inebriated.

Credit is due to the committees who spared no time nor pains in making arrangements for the celebration of our nation's birthday a success.

Committee of arrangements: Thos. F. Trane, Peter Loutensook, Edwin Evans, Mrs. Sarah Taylor, Miss Sarah Simmons. WM. SOUTHWICK, Reporter.

SOUTHERN STATES MISSION.

Missionaries Met Opposition.

SHADY GROVE, Jasper County, Miss., June 29th, 1886.

Editor Deseret News:

Since I left my mountain home, on the 14th of April, 1885, I have labored altogether in the Mississippi Conference, travelling through Jasper, Scott, Smith and Clark Counties, but mostly in Jasper, where we have a few members and quite a number of friends who seem to be fully convinced. But owing to the opposition which has always followed the Gospel of Christ wherever it has been preached to the world, they are backward in coming forward and taking upon themselves the responsibility of serving the Lord.

Since we held our conference, which was on May 19th and 20th, the people have been stirred up a little more than usual, and my companion, D. S. Emery of Salt Lake City, and myself thought we had better try and keep them so. In order to accomplish our purpose we got permission from some of our friends to hold meetings in a school house in what is known here as the Brady settlement, June 13th we held our first and also our last meeting at this place. While holding meeting, however, we gave out an appointment for the following Sunday to preach at the same place. Next morning we started out to visit our friends in the Shady Grove district. On our return we found that the devil had also been stirred up and had burned our house down. At the appointed time, however, we were on the ground with the intention, if any should come, of holding meeting under some large trees close by, but no one came, and we pearsuaded were obliged to retire, somewhat crestfallen, but not discouraged.

We had considerable chance for fireside talk, but it is difficult to get a house in which to preach.

We have two appointments out at present, one in an old school house close by and another in a private dwelling.

On the 20th of this month we were agreeably surprised to meet Elder Levi Harmon, of Washington City, Washington County, Utah, who arrived here in good health and spirits and with full determination of honoring his mission in spreading the Gospel message with which he has been entrusted. For the last five weeks President Emery and I have travelled together, but on the arrival of Elder Harmon, who will now be my companion, President Emery will be released to visit the rest of the Conference.

The news, our ever welcome friend, arrives regularly twice a week.

Your brother in the Gospel, JOHN MORTON.

PAROWAN STAKE CONFERENCE.

Convened in Parowan, Iron County, June 19, 1886, at 10 o'clock a.m.

There were present: Of the Stake Presidency, Second Counselor Morgan Richards, Jr., nearly all the members of the High Council, Bishops and other leading Elders and a good number of Saints.

After the opening exercises, Counselor Richards said he was pleased to see so many present at the first meeting. Alluded to the circumstances of her being left in charge, yet trusted that we should be found through an outpouring of the Holy Spirit.

The time was occupied by the Bishops giving in their reports, which were quite encouraging, taken together, and making each speaker at their ease to offer; and by members of the High Council, and a few other brethren, all of whom spoke with much freedom, and the spirit of the instructions as were suited to our present wants.

The general and local authorities were sustained, and unanimously sustained by a vote of the conference, as also our [illegible]

Meeting commenced at 2 p.m. on Sunday evening, and a meeting to instruct our home missionaries held between the afternoon and evening meetings.

The services were well attended throughout, and a general expression at the close that we had passed a good time together was manifest.

Our choir, under Brother Thomas Durham, was in full attendance, and, needless to say, added greatly to our comfort.

Sunday evening was occupied by our young folks in a quarterly conference.

WM. H. HOLYOAK, Stake Clerk.

"The Through Land Route to Europe" is likely to be a popular line for travel before another generation has come and gone. Major Powell's report to the Secretary of the Interior shows how a railroad can be constructed to Alaska, and then to Asia by the way of Behring Straits. The straits are only 45 miles wide, and interspersed with islands, so that, if not quite practicable to bridge the inter-spaces, the ferriage would be for a short distance, and during most months in the year, the ice would present a surface sufficient to bear up railroad trains. Commenting upon this subject the Boston Globe says: "We may yet live to see the time when we can take a drawing room car here in Boston and go through to Chicago, San Francisco, Sitka, Kamschatka, Hong Kong, Irkutsk, Bombay, St. Petersburg, Berlin, Paris and London without change of cars."

The Journal of United Labor has lately published a series of articles on the labor question. The following paragraphs from them will give some idea of the views entertained and propagated by that paper in reference to the social structure:

Present society is based upon police, spies and informers; the magistracy, the army, journalism and cavilledeply-rooted and fatal elements; and I fear that their gangrene has so far eaten into the human mind, manners and customs, that it will take a long time to eradicate it, for the police, spies, informers, produce the abuse of confidence, calumny, denunciation, blackmail, suspicion and treachery.

The magistracy produces quarreling, suspicion, accusation, incrimination and base cowardice.

The army produces brutality, vanity, folly, rapine, barbarity, brigandage and assassination.

Journalism produces lying, jealousy, slander and defamation.

Courts of law produce equivocation, chicanery, insinuation, insincerity, double-dealing and dishonor.

So long as the people believe that they can obtain any benefit whatever by upholding these half-dozen demoralizing institutions, society will continue to be treacherous, cowardly, hypocritical, brutal, lying and barbarous.

Such is my conviction.
