LOGAN.

LOGAN, UTAH. — MAY 8, 1895.

Cache Stake met in well attended quarterly conference on Sunday and Monday, and interest and good feeling the entire week. Elder Heber J. Grant was the only visitor from Salt Lake City, but he was more than a good service, speaking at every session during the conference. The illness of Elder Moses Thatcher's family did not permit his presence, and Elder M. W. Merrill is seriously ill. The farmers are observable in crops somewhat more advanced at this season than usual. Notwithstanding the muddy roads and unsettled condition of the weather, it was filled to overflowing.

The concert given on Monday evening by B. C. Evans and other local musical celebrities, called up the latchstrings early, was a success in every sense of the word. The results were sufficiently large to form a very extra addition to the purse of the beneficiary, Mr. Chas. M. Harris, who departed for Germany to the purpose of completing his musical education. The stock company from the Grand opera house at Salt Lake City is expected, and are likely to create a social reception tomorrow evening, when they appear in Captive. Place is the title of the opera to be put on the boards by the Pyne Conlin Opera company next Monday evening.

Two paintings have been killed during the past few days in Cache by lightning, logan district, by a bear. Two particular from is not likely to stay serious better this year, as the sometimes have received themselves into a committee of hunters and trappers for the benefit.

A selected sample of ore from one of the mines in Paradise Park recently assayed at the Agricultural College, showed 1,700 ounces silver, and a trace of gold and copper. Work was prosecuted on the claim during the winter, and the mine boasts of two best strata. If the sample assayed is not more than 10 per cent better than the average, which is not likely, the owners have a good thing, as the claim is close to the road, and a large stream in the neighborhood would furnish ample power for hoisting of mill purposes.

The action of the police on Sunday, when they arrested fourteen men for playing ball, indicates that Sabbath breaking, at least of the flagrant kind, will not be countenanced in Logan.

The court house was insured on Monday for $10,000, and the former five were all in two. The insurance was in no in Logan, and a rate in raise of from fifty to fifty per cent will be made on all cases where the risk is not together.

Whether for not to build a county purchase was a question that has caused the county court. While the chance case been lower supporting the pro, there are still quite a number of the county poor old women crawling up and down, and it is believed a county poorhouse and farm would prove a source of economy.

The death of Brother Preston T. Maxwell has caused a postponement of the opening of the Aforementioned school, which is going to be taught by his daughter, Miss Rosie Maxwell.
