Sewerage at Bingham—The state board of health has received notice from the Bingham town authorities that the demands of the board for sewerage will be complied with. Applicants must be physically sound, and be not less than five feet five inches in height, without boots or shoes, and weigh not less than 130 pounds without overcoat or hat.

Orchestra Concert—The Salt Lake Symphony orchestra concert, the first of the present season, occurs Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Mr. Shepherd's final rehearsal was attended by many musicians who were especially enthusiastic over the work of the men and who heartily applauded the beautiful "Madam Butterfly" selection.

New Band Instruments—The boys of All Hallows band have received two large boxes containing 18 military band instruments from the factories of C. G. Conn, Elkhart, Ind. Governor Was Hunting—Gov. John C. Cutler returned yesterday from a hunting trip in Utah and Carbon counties. Sheriff Harmon, Game Warden Brigham Madsen and Postmaster James Clove were the other members of the governor's party. Deer were hunted on the borders of the two counties, but his excellency has discovered that there is a vast difference between hunting and fleeing. Emulating the president, the party of gunners went into the mountain fastnesses in search of the fleet-footed and antlered herds. No fatalities are reported.

Deadly Glanders Bacilli—Secy. Beatty of the state board of health, has a collection of the bacilli of glanders under his microscope, that is remarkably perfect and well defined. The horrible little creatures resemble beaded jets, with noses like long prongs. They do terrible execution if they once get into the circulation of a human being, as they ulcerate the liver, infect the lungs and attack the entire muscular system. Death is certain. Horses become infected at watering troughs where all kinds of horse flesh has access; and the bacilli are also inhaled from dust and any atmosphere that chances to be infected.

OFFICER TOO ROUGH.

Two Men Arrested for Interfering at Auditorium Rink.

In Judge Diehl's court yesterday afternoon, E. T. Gove, 450 Elm street, associated with the Utah Amalgamated Copper company, and T. J. Everill, with the same company, residing at 238 west Fifth North, were arraigned on the charge of interfering with an officer. The accused pleaded not guilty and their case was set for tomorrow afternoon.

The complaint against Gove and Everill was sworn to by Special Officer Middleton, employed at the Auditorium rink on Richards street. The officer says that one evening last week T. J. Goodyear created a disturbance at the rink, and as Middleton is employed to maintain order, he promptly arrested Goodyear. The officer says that Gove and Everill then interfered and tried to take Goodyear from him. The man was placed under arrest and put up a bond of $5, which was forfeited. Middleton says he then decided to learn the names of the two men who interfered with him. He did so and the arrest of Gove and Everill followed. The accused deny the statement of the officer and claim that he was entirely too rough in arresting Goodyear.

CRUSHED UNDER TANK.

Little Daughter of J. C. Wood Seriously Injured in Accident.

Mary Wood, the four-year-old daughter of J. C. Wood, of 850 south West Temple street, was seriously injured yesterday afternoon by having a heavy water tank fall upon her. The house next door to the Wood home was recently vacated, and Mr. Wood was engaged doing some repairing in the premises. The child was romping in the rooms and seeing the projecting pipes, she said she was going to "play horse." The father saw the tank begin to sway, but before he could utter a word of warning, it fell, crushing the girl to the floor.

The tank was resting squarely across the child's back, and it seemed that she must be fatally hurt. The nose was broken and blood streamed about her, and there were severe cuts and bruises on the head. Dr. Stewart was summoned, and he declared the injuries to be not necessarily dangerous. The little one is resting easily this morning.

NO EXCUSE.

Circumstances are not an excuse for failure to own your own home, for under the terms we offer the possession of a comfortable house is made easy for every one. If you are flush and do not own your own home, there isn't any reason for your neglect, and this is equally true if you are just in fair circumstances, for you are obliged to pay rent anyway, and that is all that the payments on our houses amount to.

We built them ourselves as an outlet for our funds on choice security, they are well built and modern in every respect and we are willing to make a long time loan on any one of them. Above the smoke, above the drainage, near to the business district, convenient to the schools, facing south, east or west, as you desire, and on the line of the next street car extension on Ninth avenue, they are the most desirable houses we know anything about. Get the keys to them at 458 C street and examine them for yourselves. You can purchase them of any reputable real estate man in town, or from us direct.
