POOR STROHMAIER!

He Attempts to Flee From Justice and Is Nearly Frozen to Death.

As a result of an attempt to evade the ends of justice, with apparently no regard for the loss which his bondsmen would have sustained in the event of his disappearance, George Strohmaier, the German over whose head now hangs an indictment for fornication alleged to have been committed with a woman of identical nationality and named Miss Longg, now lies in the county infirmary in a most pitiable condition.

Strohmaier, who has been living at the home of Louis Hobein, one of his sureties, ever since his examination before Justice Harvey, disappeared very suddenly one week ago last Thursday, and as two or three days elapsed without his return, Mr. Hobein and W. A. Sidney, his other bondsman, were finally forced to the conclusion that he had gone and left them in the lurch. They accordingly notified the sheriff and a warrant was issued for his arrest, but nothing was learned of him until last Friday, when Bill Stratmen, a trapper who holds forth in a cabin in the east mountains, dropped into Hobein's saloon and in the course of conversation related a circumstance of a man who had come to his cabin a few days before nearly frozen to death.

Stratman stated that his clothing was frozen to his limbs and that he was literally covered with a coating of ice. The man gave as the cause for his condition, the story of his wandering through the mountains for a period of six days without food, and in storms of the severest kind. The description given by Stratman of the unfortunate man tallied so closely with the description of Strohmaier that Hobein concluded that it was surely he, which afterwards proved to be the case. Yesterday he was brought to this city and his condition being such as to render immediate medical assistance absolutely necessary, he was ordered sent to the county infirmary by the county physician. It is feared that both legs will have to be amputated.

FEDERAL COURT WORK.

Attorney Baum Must Stand Trial Before Judge Marshall—List of Petit Jurors Drawn.

Judge Marshall held a busy session of court yesterday and transacted a considerable amount of business. A large number of cases were set and some were continued. The motion to dismiss the case of Attorney Peter M. Baum, on account of a lack of jurisdiction, was overruled, and the accused will therefore be obliged to stand trial.

The following list of petit jurors was drawn from three hundred names deposited by Clerk Leigher and Jury Commissioner John C. Cutler, the drawing being done by United States Marshal Brigham Marsh Smith. Midway; Nephi Jacobson, Nephi; H. DeFries, Fairview; Sylvester Reeves, city; L. D. Lyman, Price; John R. Fisher, Bountiful; Heber C. Iverson, city; J. C. Ostler, Nephi; Edward Boys, Heber; Newell Knight, Provo; Chris Diehl, city; W. A. Sherman, city; R. Duke, city; A. J. Warner, Ogden; W. G. Child, Ogden; H. M. Bacon, city; Charles H. Clark, Morgan; John T. Oxled, city; Benjamin Goddard, city; George D. Pyper, city; Hector Haight, Farmington; W. J. Stone, Ogden; George C. Lambert, city; W. D. Robinson, American Fork.

It was announced that Judge Adams of St. Louis would be here on the 11th inst. to assist in trying cases.

ANOTHER PETIT JURY LIST.

Judge Street has issued a venire returnable April 20th, for the following petit jurors for service during the April term of the Third district court: George A. Lowe, J. E. Edmonds, L. M. Earl, R. Knudsen, F. Webb, Counts Brown Jr., J. H. Woodmansee, J. L. Hoke, F. W. Jennings, M. J. Cheesman, H. S. Young, C. J. Brasolli, O. P. Miles, Henry Seigel, H. D. Bleasdale, F. S. Harris, H. S. Margetts, S. H. Auerbach, J. D. H. McAllister, J. M. Whittaker, E. M. Duncan, A. W. Harvey, M. Kopp, A. C. Slater, S. F. Walker, I. J. Starbuck, F. E. Schoppe, Edward Johnson, Frank Mayne and H. F. Sampson.

Judge Street Goes to Tooele.

Judge Street left for Tooele this morning in company with Deputy Clerk Loomis. His honor expects to be absent several days, as he has a number of criminal cases set down for hearing.

The Democratic Convention.

The Democratic State convention will meet in this city June 8th at 11 a. m. for the purpose of electing six delegates and the same number of alternates to represent Utah in the National Democratic convention to be held in Chicago July 7th to nominate candidates for the offices of President and vice-President of the United States respectively. The basis of representation to the State convention shall be one delegate for every forty votes cast for Hon. John T. Caine, for Governor, at the November election in 1895, apportioned among the various counties as follows: Beaver 8, Box Elder 17, Cache 41, Carbon 4, Davis 15, Emery 12, Garfield 5, Grand 1, Iron 8, Juab 11, Kane 2, Millard 9, Morgan 4, Piute 3, Rich 2, San Juan 2, Salt Lake 163, Sanpete 35, Sevier 14, Summit 21, Tooele 8, Uintah 6, Utah 54, Wasatch 11, Washington 13, Wayne 5, Weber 45.

The different county committees have been requested to call county conventions at least ten days before the convening of the State convention. The State, precinct and county conventions are all requested to elect new committees to serve for the ensuing year with the plan of organization adopted at Ogden September 5, 1895.

AMUSEMENTS.

The people of Salt Lake are an amusement loving set and they patronize liberally entertainments of merit as witness the big turn out at the various places of amusement last evening. Everything almost that one could desire was presented at one place or the other and all seemed to be appreciated.

MANSFIELD AT THE THEATER.

It takes an attraction like that of Mansfield to fill the Theater with as fashionable and critical an audience as the one assembled there last evening. Everybody went there to see a high-class performance and they were not disappointed. From the moment the curtain arose attention was riveted upon the play and upon the entrance of Mr. Mansfield the welled up enthusiasm burst forth and at the close of every act he was called before the curtain, sometimes two or three times before the applause would subside. His easy, graceful manner and the finished acting of the members of his company were evidences of the careful training received and stamps the production of Beau Brummel, the comedy of manners, by this excellent company as an artistic success. As all are artists in this company all should be praised for their work.

Beatrice Cameron as the meekly loved maiden was captivating in her delineation of the character of Mariana Vincent. Mr. Harkins as the prince, Mr. Lyons as Abrahams, the shylock, Mr. Johnson's youthful lover and Andrews as the valet, all were good. The costumes of the ladies were gorgeous and the effect in the minuet was pleasing. The piece was well dressed in every particular and the production a high artistic success. Tonight A Parisian Romance will be given, with Mr. Mansfield as Baron Chevrial.

It is especially requested that the audience be seated in proper time tonight, as great annoyance was caused those seated by late comers stalking in after the performance had commenced.

AT THE GRAND.

Standing room only was the order of the evening at the Grand last night, the popular house being crowded to its utmost capacity, the revival of Queena, that ranks among the Grand's foremost successes of the season, being witnessed by an enthusiastic audience, the drama as produced last night being identical with the former production, even down to detail of costume, the only change in the cast being that of John Henry Wilkins, which in the hands of Geo. Edeson, vice Hugh J. Ward, had the effect of relieving the tension incidental to the emotional situation of the play.

Miss Warren, although not at her best, was of course the central figure, her insane scene at the end of the third act being rewarded with a hearty curtain call.

Messrs Ingersoll, Edwards, Miss Cooke, Jerome and little Jessie Conrad each contributed naturally and intelligently towards the meritorious rendering of the drama, whilst Messrs. Tucker and Hathaway partook of the audience's enthusiasm to the extent of surpassing their former efforts.

Queena goes again tonight and tomorrow night, after which date hilarious Niobe will hold the boards until Saturday night.

TABERNACLE.

The Tabernacle concert drew a fair sized audience last evening and a feature to be commended was the application to the program and the finishing of it at a reasonable hour. The trio by Miss Cooper, Mr. Ashworth and Mr. Eastige was commendable and the solo of Master Charlie Pike, the boy soprano, was good. Fifteen hundred voices in the great Tabernacle with the organ accompanying, always produces an electrifying effect, and last night was no exception to the rule. The choir will leave for California April 13th and be gone ten days, giving concerts in the principal cities of the state.

Medical Society.

The Eclectic Medical Society of Utah held their annual meeting for the election of officers at the office of Dr. Hasbrouck, No. 101 East Temple street, this city, at which time the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, A. L. Davison, Mt. Pleasant, Sanpete county; vice president, R. A. Hasbrouck, Salt Lake City; secretary and treasurer, James Taylor, Salt Lake City. Discussions were had by some of the members present upon various subjects connected with the science of medicine and surgery.

Among the subjects presented to the society was an article upon Pathalitis by Dr. James Taylor. Dr. A. L. Davison read a paper on Hepatic and Painters, or Lead Colic. The Medical and Surgical treatment of Hernia and Hydrocele was presented by Dr. R. A. Hasbrouck.

Agricultural College Notes.

The spring term opens with the usual decrease in attendance.

The dropping off is mostly from preparatory and sub freshman classes.

Regular college classes have been about as follows for the year: Freshmen 30, sophomores 23, juniors 12, seniors 6.

Many of the college students are classed as specials, pursuing some studies of one year and some of another, a condition inevitable in a new institution.

Many of the sub freshmen, and some of the preparatory classes, have one or more studies with the college classes.

A vacation from April 4th to April 7th is given on account of conference, or to allow students to take advantage of conference rates.

Lieut. and Mrs. Styer spend the vacation with Major Walker's family in the capital city. Lieut. Styer expects to sever his connection with the college in a few months, the term of his detail expiring.

Prof. Paul has returned from a short lecturing tour in Southern Utah. In three days he spoke five times. He reports the college in great favor in the localities which he visited.

The Bertha Wilson entertainment drew a paying attendance Friday and Saturday evenings, in spite of the severe storm. As an amusing impersonator Miss Wilson is successful, as an elocutionist she could hardly be said to excel the talent at the college.

Lyman Martineau addressed the students on Friday morning, his theme being the relation between earnest effort and success. Several other visitors were present.

Mrs. Professor Richman, assisted by several other ladies, entertained the faculty and their families on Wednesday. About fifty were served with an elegant dinner.

Fenstermaker vs Tribune.

The Tribune Publishing Company was granted a re-hearing in the Supreme Court yesterday afternoon in the Fenstermaker-Tribune case. The justices of the Supreme Court were disqualified and Judges Street, Young and Higgins sat as a Supreme court. Fenstermaker sued the Tribune some time ago for $15,000 for an alleged libelous article that appeared in its columns relative to the ill-treatment of a little girl he was taking care of at his ranch in Tooele county.

A jury in Judge Bartch's court returned a verdict for the defendant. Fenstermaker then appealed to the Territorial Supreme court, which reversed the judgment and granted a new trial.

Provo Team Defeated.

The football game between the Provo Brigham Young Academy team and the Utah University eleven played on the campus of the latter yesterday afternoon resulted in a victory for the home kickers. The score stood 12 to 4.

"There is Danger in Delay."

Since 1861 I have been a great sufferer from catarrh. I tried Ely's Cream Balm and to all appearances am cured. Terrible headaches from which I had long suffered are gone.—W. J. Hitchcock, late Major U. S. Vol. and A. A. Gen., Buffalo, N. Y.

Ely's Cream Balm has entirely cured me of catarrh when everything else failed. Many acquaintances have used it with excellent results. Alfred W. Stevens, Caldwell, Ohio.

The latest results of pharmaceutical science and the best modern appliances are availed of in compounding Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Hence, though half-a-century in existence as a medicine, it is fully abreast of the age in all that goes to make it the standard blood-purifier.

A person is prematurely old when baldness occurs before the forty-fifth year. Use Hall's Hair Renewer to keep the scalp healthy and prevent baldness.

As baldness makes one look prematurely old, so a full head of hair gives to mature life the appearance of youth. To secure this and prevent the former, Ayer's Hair Vigor is confidently recommended. Both ladies and gentlemen prefer it to any other dressing.
