Death of Joseph Sullivan, the Oakland, California, Giant.

BRUTAL MURDER OF A WOMAN.

The Chief Clerk of the Idaho House of Representatives Indicted for Forgery.

Fruit trees are getting quite numerous at Provo, Utah. They are offering $10 to $20 per ton for green fruits delivered at warehouses.

The four-year-old son of Albert Rodgers, who resides six miles south of Milton, Ore., on Sunday fell off the porch into a barrel of water and was drowned.

The citizens of Rawlins, Wyo., are making preparations to celebrate the Fourth of July. It is the intention to have horse, foot, bicycle and foot race, and a baseball game with some outside team.

The Industrial Exponent company has been incorporated at Denver for the purpose of publishing a journal of general information to the industrial trades. The company is capitalized at $5,000.

A seven-year-old boy was badly mangled by huge saw mills north of Salina, Western Kansas, the other day. He was in the bed of a wagon when discovered three old sows had bitten down and were proceeding to devour him. It is thought that he will recover.

The community of Hoxie, Kan., was startled on Tuesday by the news that Henry Roesch, living ten miles north of the place, had committed suicide by hanging himself to a tree. Mr. Roesch only arrived in the county two weeks ago, coming from West Bend, Neb., with his wife and two children. The cause was despondency.

The proposition before Congress to reserve the west of the Yellowstone park by over 1,000,000 acres will meet an uncompromising disapproval of every resident of Montana, says a dispatch from Cheyenne, Wyo. The people of Wyoming are in favor of restoring the original wild grazer of the park.

George B. Smith, of Reese river, has been killed in Nye county, Nevada, by being shot through the side and the end of the nose with a shotgun, says the Austin Avalanche. He left home yesterday morning to go into the adjacent five miles above his home, where some sheep were missing, and carried a gun. His wife, several hours after, went to the hills and found his dead body, which was brought to town today. It is not known at the time of going to press who did the shooting.

The most brutal murder committed in Lincoln county, Utah, for many years was perpetrated near Lakeside on Monday night. Ellen Robinson, an aged widow, living on her ranch, was stamped to death and her house ransacked. Her body was found outside the door, the lower jawbone broken and all but two of her ribs crushed. The skin and flesh over the fractures showed the nail marks of a boot heel. The bed clothes and contents of a trunk were scattered in confusion about her bedroom. The police are investigating.

Charles H. Reed, chief clerk of the Idaho house of representatives, has been indicted by the Canyon county grand jury, on a charge of forgery. It is alleged that he raised a school warrant for $4 to $104, secured the money and, it is understood, subsequently returned it, but this did not serve to stay the prosecution. It is expected the case will be heard at the term of the district court now in session in Caldwell. The accused has held many positions of trust and responsibility, and the indictment is a great surprise to his friends.

The work of excavating a canal for utilizing the water of Honeyville lake for irrigating purposes has begun in earnest, says the Lovelock, Nevada, Jive Era. Three hundred feet of canal have already been cut, ranging in depth from seven to twenty feet, and in width twenty-two feet at the top to eight feet at the bottom. A dam has been placed in the bay slough to keep as much water as possible away from the meadows while running the canal north from the slough. The lake front is dotted with cabins, and a number of claimants have carried lumber through the water to islands to build houses by which to hold 160 acres when the lake is drained.

The San Francisco Chronicle records the death of Joseph Sullivan, the "Oakland giant," which occurred on Monday morning. Sullivan was a well known character. He came from Chicago when quite young, and was about 25 years old at the time of his death. His measurements, taken a short time ago, are as follows: Height, 7 feet 2½ inches; girth of neck, 19 inches; chest, 4 feet; around, length of arm, 3 feet 3 inches; from tip of hand to chin, 15 inches; around the waist, 4 feet 1 inches; from tip to tip of fingers with arms outstretched, 8 feet 7 inches; weight, 350 pounds. Sullivan has a small mark on a mole of his side. He wore a 9 shoe. When taken from the little house where he died it was found impossible to get his body around the narrow passages in the second story, so it was hitched to one end and lowered by means of a pulley. Since death the body has attained enormous size. There was not a coffin large enough in Oakland to carry the remains. As a result the undertaker is change this to a coffin box to be made for the purpose of carrying the immense coffin, which was 9 feet long, 19 inches deep and 7 feet wide at the broadest.
