By Telegram to the News:
The Fisheries Squalor.

OTTAWA, Dec. 12.—A telegram has been received by the government from Foster, the dominion minister of fisheries, stating that he is en route from Washington to Ottawa. The fact that the commission has adjourned until January 4 is understood.

It is not known whether Sir Charles Tupper and Mr. Thompson will return to Ottawa, but it is fully expected that they will.

British Train Trade.
LONDON, Dec. 12.—The Mark Lane Express, which was the best of the weaker and the demand is lessened, while the damp weather has tended to deteriorate the condition. Sales of English wheat during the week were 56,888 quarters at 3s. 2d. against 58,745 quarters at 3s. 1d. during the week ending Dec. 5.

Foreign wheat is in demand, but the weather on the Baltic and Black seas enables a continuation of extensive shipments, with the result that the stock and increased arrivals of wheat as flour, made trade slack.

Corn and quiet trade. Values of English and foreign wheat are quoted, but all kinds made slow sales. Flour, dull; corn, dry; oats, slow.

A Cabinet Formed.
PARIS, Dec. 12.—M. Tirard, yielding to President Carnot's appeals, has consented to make another attempt to organize the ministry.

M. Ferry has almost entirely recovered from his wound. The new cabinet is a moderate republican body. M. Tirard is opposed to the autonomy of Paris and to the separation of church and state.

The Journal, official, will tomorrow publish a list of the new cabinet.

SAME SENTIMENT.
The passage of the Franco-German foreign policy is couched in the most pacific terms.

The cabinet's reply to the message will declare that the government's desire is to commence the exhibition year with peace abroad and concord at home.

Aubertine, the man who shot Ferry, before the judge today, showed lunacy. The examination was postponed.

BANTAM SLUGGERS.
Weir and Warren fight a 20-round draw.

MINNEAPOLIS, Dec. 12.—A 20-round fight with hard gloves between Tommy Warren, American champion featherweight, and Ike Weir, English champion featherweight, drew an enormous crowd at the rink this evening.

The fight was a long and hard one, and both men were exhausted. Warren was the victor, but the fight was a draw.

Warren's nose, Warren countered on the nose. Weir was knocked down by Warren's left hand, and Warren landed heavily on Weir's chest, nearly lifting him from his feet.

After some heavy blows were exchanged, Weir landed heavily on Warren's left eye and followed with a light blow on the right eye, which slightly staggered him.

From this time to the tenth round no blows were nearly even, although Warren was in one or two blows on Warren's chest, drawing more blood.

The tenth round showed Weir was the fresher man. Warren showed the effects of the punishment. Weir was in his left on Warren's chest, and the clinch was thrown to the floor.

On the whole he had the best of the round. Light fighting followed until the thirteenth round, in which there were two clinches, in which much

Time was called and the fight declared by the referee to be a draw. Great applause followed. Weir's backers want to match him to fight to a finish with Warren at any time.
