The Thirty-ninth Star in the Union. TERRITORIAL ITEMS. THE DEAN EXAMINATION. EVENING : NEWS The Baltimore Times says editorial-ly: The admission of Dakota into the Union is a subject of much interest. In the debate upon the question in the United States Senate on December 18 last, and which is officially printed in the Congressional Record, Senator Vest, of Missouri, paid a high tribute to the merits of an article of world-wide repute which is manufactured by a Baltimore house. Coming from such a source, this praise is cratifying, al-though legislators of other countries have also publicly spoken in a similar manner,—among them, Hon. W. A. E. West-Erskine, of the South Australian, and Hon. Godfrey Sichel, of the South African Parliaments. Both of these gentlemen, like Senator Vest, said that the article referred to, St. Jacobs Oil, is an absolute cure for rheumatism and takes away all pain. It may be added The Baltimore Times says editorial-CULLED FROM LATEST EXCHANGES. Bonds Declared Forfeit .-- In the Third District Court this morning the bailiff shouted thrice, "George Q. Cannon!" and there being no response the name of his bondsmen on two charges of unlawful cohabitation, under the segregation process, were called, but no reply was made, neither Francis Armstrong nor H. S. Eldredge being present. At the request of District Attorney Dickson, the court ordered that the two bonds of $10,000 each be declared forfeit. From what be learned it is not that the bondsmen will pursue the cringing course of hastening to turn over the exorbitant bail, required under the defendant's protest, without first having the coustitutionality of the unreasonable and oppressive demand adjudicated by the proper tribunal.

After the Nuisances .- The city officers have commenced ussuing notices to persons who permit the existence of nuisances dangerous to health or offensive to the senses of their neighbors, such as stinking outhouses, cesspools, etc., to remove or disinfect them immediately on pain of prosecution for breach of the city ordinance. The investigations into existing nulsances have extended no farther than the central and more thickly settled portion of the city yet but the outer parts of the soon will be visited and city a similar course pursued in regard to them. People who value their own health and that of their families and neighbors and the friendship of those by whom they are surrounded ought not to wait until reminded by the visit. of an inspector before removing anything in the shape of a unisance that may exist upon their premises, and it is to be hoped that citizens generally will take the hint and clear up around their habitations,
