TELEGRAPHIC.

TROLLEY ACCIDENT.

Two Young Passengers at an Uniontown Car.

MEETING IN FALL INJURIES.

Lost a Possession of the Sale of Sixty Kits at Sea—Cause of the Casualty.

UNIONTOWN, Pa., March 31.—Three young men instantly killed, two injured and one above eighty and on the Lough Trolley evening of leaving from a heavily loaded car on a memorable night.

The accident was due in part to a panic among the passengers who crowded about the conductor and the motorman on the outgoing car. The trolley coming off the wire, the car was left in the dark, leaving down the incline. The trolley Bells applied the brakes, but the crash occurred. He was crowd was thrown out. That remained in the wreck and the injured before assistance could be rendered. The dead are: Frank Hoffman, aged 20, Jacob Hoffman, aged 18, and Jacob Hoffman, aged 18. The injured are: Jacob Hoffman, aged 20