THE POLICY OF SPAIN

Statement of Minister Canovas Through the New York World.

A CONDITION OF CUBANS BY US

Would Terminate the Friendly Relations Between the United States and Spain.

NEW YORK, March 6.—The World will print tomorrow the following authentic statement of the policy of Spain as to Cuba and Congress, from Prime Minister Canovas. It is accompanied by a personal message to Joseph Pulitzer from the president of the council of state at Madrid authorizing its publication. The statement is as follows:

MADRID, March 6.—We have as people (Spain) a distinction of the independence of the American government, and consequently take sign notice of or protest by note against any of the proceedings of the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States. We have taken no official notice whatever of the proceedings and speeches in Washington during the past week.

We have we studied the European powers of courts regarding their support in any form. All we have done is to show to the American government and to Minister Taylor that we have endeavored to subject respect for the American legation and consulates, responding to clearly the assurances that we have received since the Maceio, Arcadia, Barcaena and Valeccia successities, schools and establishments whose students dare to make demonstrations hostile to the United States. We will send to prison and prompt trial all subjects and presents of such disturbances.

Nothing will be omitted on our side to show our desire to preserve cordial relations with America. I am convinced that we possess sufficient means to quell any hostile demonstration. The government of Spain regrets and has made all the amends possible for the Maceio affair, and has shared the indignation which the speeches at Washington naturally excited among the sever-proud people of Spain.

The situation now is one of extreme delicacy. Indeed, I cannot define how far it is possible for the government of Spain to permit admissible and careful modification of a foreign power, however honorable and disinterested it may be, without forcing the grave risk of being accused of submitting to outside interference, pressure and dictation in the midst of a civil war. The United States is a great power, and still it recognizes the object and sentiments hostile to the insurrectionists in Cuba it is friendly to Spain. After the recognition of the belligerents to Cuba by the United States, it would be impossible for the government of Spain to accept the good offices of President Cleveland, or permit any intervention whatever.

Nevertheless, I still hope some means will be found by the President to avoid alienating the friendly relations with the United States, which Spain has shown this week she prizes highly.

I am fully alive to the significance and the possible consequences of the vote of the United States Congress to the rebels, as well as to Spain, in her position to the United States, and especially in connection with the right of search on the high seas and in the matter of privateers and filibustering expeditions.

The only new and seemingly warlike preparations yet made by Spain are made simply with a view to equipping a fleet of warships and transatlantic steamers to chase filibusters and to guard the coasts of Cuba. That is the sole object in view. Gen. Weyler having sent he has enough troops, only the usual reliefs will be sent to Cuba until autumn, and no naval demonstration is contemplated.

The misapprehensions concerning General Weyler's character and methods as a soldier originated in a misstatement of facts in his career and of his instructions. Both in Cuba twenty years ago and in the Philippine islands since then, Weyler has only carried out the orders of his chiefs. Never has he left for Cuba the last time I saw and spoke to him and applauded his views. Consequently he has simply acted in harmony with the requirements of the war, in which the insurgents have not only set at defiance the rules of civilized warfare, but have violated the provisions of the treaty of 1795 between Spain and the United States, and the protocol of 1877 respecting the lives and the property of all real and alleged American citizens in Cuba.

We cannot admit that the slightest ground exists for the recognition of the belligerency of the Cuban insurgents, whose so-called president, the Marquis of Santa Lucia, and the members of his executive council, are nomads, like the rebel bands, ever on the move.

CANOVAS DEL CASTILLO.

PORTUGAL'S POSITION.

LONDON, March 6.—The Lisbon correspondent of the Times telegraphs under yesterday's date that the sympathy of the Spanish ministry in regard to the Cuban difficulty is unanimously approved in Portugal, and he quotes the Commercio of Lisbon as saying:

"The proceedings of the United States are unique and unexampled in history, and will cause a complete disturbance of international rights across all the nations of Europe free and just Spain."

MUST HAVE NO HAUGHOUR.

LONDON, March 6.—A Madrid dispatch to the Standard says: The press, with a few exceptions, advise the government to indulge in no illusions as to a long delay or an abandonment of recognition by the United States of the insurgents. The general impression in political and diplomatic circles is that President Cleveland will ultimately be compelled to carry out the resolutions of Congress, even if at first he takes friendlier steps to obtain from Spain guarantee of Cuban autonomy or of more lenient treatment of the rebels.

Investigation Burns.

NEW YORK, March 6.—The trans-Atlantic steamship companies have increased their rates for third-class or steerage prepaid tickets. The German lines have fixed the new rate at $30.50 from Bremen or Hamburg. The other lines are in proportion, and depending entirely on the point of embarkation. This is the highest figure ever had. A private ticket broker was purchased on this date at of the Atlantic of the new Teutonic purchaser who may be some the lines from for other sum. The increase to the German lines is more than 24.

One of the steamship agents, when asked today why the increase was made, said: "There are several reasons. One is that late will to all practicability to a record-breaking year for the Atlantic business. The steamship lines will have more dependent of steerage from than they can possibly accommodate. Another reason is that the restrictions placed on immigration, the $1 a head tax, which we have to pay the government, compels with the fact that we are forced to return many at our expense, has made the transportation of steerage passengers a profitable at the old rate."

Entry Arguments of Congress.

CHICAGO, March 6.—The Park Washington street appt Senator Hoar and Chairman Dingley and Cannon have been seated by representatives if the Senate meeting committee that if the House can conclude its work by May 1st, the Senate will not delay adjournment a week beyond that time.

Senate Leaves for Kansas.

DENVER, March 6.—Cardinal Satolli and a 7 o'clock this evening over the Santa Fe route for Kansas City. A large number of the leading Catholics, both clergy and laity, made his office at the Union depot. During the day the national delegate of the Catholic schools and hospitals, and received visits at the residence of Bishop Matz. Among the many petitions received by him, was one from Wyoming praying that Vicar General Comiskey be made a cardinal. Petition for and against the rebellion of Bishop Matz in the act of Denver were received, but so far as shown action of them was held by the Cardinal White here.

GEN. WEYLER'S PROCLAMATION.

Written Proofs Required of the Guilt of Accused Persons.

HAVANA, March 6.—(Copyrighted, 1896, by the Associated Press.)—Gen. Weyler has issued another historical proclamation from which the following is a quotation:

"The authorities and army officers will require in the case of every one who is arrested, proofs enough to establish his guilt. Written information must be made, with all the best that can possibly be had, through verbal or confidential information.

"These informations and material proofs will be sent to the office to prosecuted accordingly. I hereby determined that I will hold strictly responsible any officer who does not furnish the proofs required in the case mentioned.

Pulitzer Silent.

PHILADELPHIA, March 6.—When asked today as to whether or not he is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for the governorship, Governor R. E. Pattison said:

"I appreciate greatly the compliment which has been accorded me by the mention of my name in connection with the nomination for President by the resolutions of the recent gatherings of the Democracy of Pennsylvania, but I must decline at this time to discuss the question."

No Women Suffrage in Iowa.

DES MOINES, Ia., March 6.—The senate today effectually ended in the movement for female suffrage in this state. The senate joint resolution to amend the constitution was defeated by a vote of 25 to 24.

VENEZUELA QUESTION.

A Synopsis of the British Blue-book Just Issued.

LONDON, March 6.—(Copyrighted, 1896, by the Associated Press.)—The British bluebook on the Venezuelan boundary dispute was laid on the table of the House of Commons today. Following is a summary of the position of Great Britain, as published in the work referred to:

First, Long prior to and at the time of the treaty of Munster, in 1648, the Dutch founded settlements in various parts of British Guiana, particularly on the coast.

Second. The only Spanish settlement prior to them was Santo Home de Guayana.

Third. During the whole period from 1648 to 1796 the Dutch and subjugated possession of the entire coast line and the river Orinoco in Guiana.

Fourth. During the same period they had explored the upper portions of nearly all the rivers, and made many settlements to adjacent districts.

Fifth. Prior to 1726 there was no settlement of Spaniards east of Santo Home de Guayana.

Sixth. Between 1724 and 1750 Capuchin missions were established southward of the Orinoco, and gradually extended eastward through the Dutch territory, the furthest point occupied by the Spaniards being Tumeremo, founded about 1766.

Seventh. Before 1796 the Dutch had settled far up the Cayuni, a Dutch post was established near the Cuyuni, and the Dutch had full control of the whole basin of the Cayuni.

Eighth. Except for the settlement of Santo Home de Guayana and their missions, the Spaniards exercised no authority in the territory now in dispute.

Ninth. Great Britain, on becoming possessor of the colony, succeeded to all the rights of the Dutch.

Tenth. After 1796 Great Britain extended her settlements and exercised over the territory originally claimed by the Dutch all the rights whereby nations usually indicate a claim to territory.

Eleventh. Neither Spain nor Venezuela, after the latter had declared her independence at any time and possession of or dominion over the territory in question.

Twelfth. Great Britain, while maintaining her just rights, has consistently shown a disposition to enter into arrangement with Venezuela in regard to the boundary.

Thirteenth. The claim of Venezuela later to the whole of the Essequibo is quite in case of a claim to be unsupported by facts, and cannot be justified on any reasonable ground.

The foregoing that established Great Britain, to her strict right to be entitled to the territory extending to Barima, including the watersheds of the Essequibo, Cuyuni, Yacuari, Pomaruon, Waini and Barima.

The blue-book contains nine maps. The maps were prepared in order to illustrate the various boundary lines referred to in the correspondence.

In Favor of Manderson.

OMAHA, March. 6.—It was decided today to hold a meeting in Omaha Saturday night of Nebraska Republicans as a demonstration in favor of Gen. Manderson for President. Gen. Manderson returned from Washington today. He says:

"Those who keep their fingers on the pulse of the political junction say that it is growing more and more certain every day that neither Mr. Reed nor Mr. McKinley can be nominated by the next national convention of the Republican party. In that event, it is felt sure that the combination will go to a Western man. Among the Western men the contest will combine be between Senator Allison, Senator Davis and myself."

Spain Fitting Out Ships.

NEW YORK, March 7.—A dispatch to the Herald from Madrid says:

The Spanish Trans-Atlantic Steamship company has ordered eight vessels to fast steamers. Their speed is twenty knots and they will carry 8inch and 10-inch guns and also rapid firing and smaller calibre.

The Pelayo, Alfonsus, Oquendo, Vizcaya and Infanta Maria Teresa are to start for the Antilles as soon as their preparations have been completed.

A large number of mules are to be deported at all Spanish ruling stations. It has been suggested that the Spanish government for pro-electing, with a capital of one hundred millions of pesetas.

Gold and Silver on the Gravel.

CHICAGO, March 7.—The Daily News says:

The gravel to be used at the St. Louis convention is now in the possession of the national Republican committee. It makes a long from Carthage, Ill., was in the city today receiving from attendants upon the Rapp in pieces which he had to make on one side of the mallet, made from Wood of Lincoln's rail cabin, a gold plate, and on the other side a silver one.
