World's Fair Mass Meeting.

The meeting at the Theatre yesterday afternoon, held by women in the interest of the Columbian Exposition was a success in every way. The Juvenile Band added greatly to the programme, Prof. H. S. Krouse acting charge of the musical department. Mr. Grant Hampton, Miss Jennie Hawley and Mrs. Agnes Olsen Thomas' singing pleased greatly. Mrs. Schoker's reminiscences of pioneer women of 1847 were effectingly told, and Mrs Corinne M. Allen was quite eloquent in her address of "What the World's Fair will do for Women." She referred to the remark that the brother "head of man must begin with the sisterhood of woman." Mrs. Allen made several telling points and was listened to with rapt attention.

Mrs. Alice M. Horne very interestingly told the audience about Utah's women. Mrs. Emily S. Richards, the Territorial president, gave a graphic account of what she saw and heard in Chicago, and Dr. Mattie E. Hughes delighted hearers in telling them of the Utah girls. Mrs. J. R. Thrall dwelt specially upon "What women will do for the Fair," and gave some happy illustrations of her ideas.

Dr. Romania B. Pratt spoke upon the capacity of woman for business and illustrated the subject happily.

The little band played and sang a national verse or two and the meeting adjourned sine die.

The purpose of this school is to give instructions in the theory and practice of Sunday school teaching and thus prepare young people for higher and more professional work.

No Inquest Will be Held.

Coroner Harris decided that it was not necessary to hold an inquest over the remains of Louis Ores, the unfortunate person whose death was chronicled in last evening's NEWS. The body was taken from the city jail by Undertaker Stevens and will be interred tomorrow.

THE TWO MURDERERS.

Ben Davis and Neilsen Received their Sentence at Provo Yesterday.

Deputy Marshal Monahan, of Provo, by whom Enoch Davis and August Neilsen were brought from Provo last evening, after sentence by Judge Blackburn, returned home today. Davis is the Vernal wife murderer who, according to present arrangement will be shot on December 20th and Neilsen has before him life-long imprisonment in the penitentiary, for the murder of a man named Buchanan.

In the course of a short talk with a NEWS reporter this morning Mr. Monahan said that Davis is certainly one of the most hardened criminals it has ever been his lot to meet. When sentence was pronounced upon him yesterday by Judge Blackburn he displayed an extraordinary spirit of bravado, and did not seem to trouble about his impending fate in the least. After the trial Davis' children—who were the principal witnesses against him—returned home and did not come to him again; neither did the father make any inquiry after them. The deputy is of the opinion, however, that Davis has made up his mind that the death sentence will not be carried out—that the motion for a new trial to the Territorial Supreme court, by his attorneys, will be granted, and that he may yet have "a chance" of getting off.

Neilsen, on the other hand, is stated to be broken down with grief. To him the verdict of the jury was altogether unexpected, as, at the most, he expected only a twelve months' sentence on account of the crime of forgery. On the way down from Provo, the deputy says, the man cried bitterly, and seemed the one who has lost all hope.

There are two more murder trials yet to come before the court at Provo, namely, Capt. Davis, charged with the Westwater killing, and Joseph Tolliver, indicted for shooting a man at Brown's Park, in the northeast corner of the Territory.

As to the place of Davis' execution, there appears to be some doubt among the deputy marshals as to whether it will take place within the penitentiary walls or at Provo. The prevailing idea is, however, that the latter will be the spot.

IN POLITICAL CIRCLES.

What Local Parties and Partisans are Doing.

The Liberals will peal forth at Bingham tonight.

***

There is a good deal of "debate talk" in Ogden, but it will be transferred to Salt Lake right away.

***

Ex-Governor West, Hon. Moses Thatcher, Hon. A. H. Cannon, Hon. Joseph F. Smith and many other visitors attended the debate last night.

***

J. H. Michaels and Mr. Smith, the man of many sleeps, have posted a bet of $500 on the presidential election. Michaels' money is on Cleveland.

***

An offer to bet that Judge Powers would not get 5000 votes in the Territory for his candidate, yesterday, was not taken.

***

"Things are more mixed than ever," observed a thoughtful politician on the street today. "If I only knew how it was going to turn out I needn't do another day's work as long as I live."

***

The Liberal rally at Murray last evening was one of the old time affairs, so far as can be learned. A streamer here the words, "Down with Statehood," and the speeches were as Boeotonia as any ever listened to.

***

The Republicans held forth in great style at the Theater last evening. The decorations were very fine and the house was well filled. Hon. C. W. Bennett presided and opened the ball with a forcible speech; he was followed by Grant H. Smith, candidate for county attorney; he by Hon. C. S. Varian, Scott Anderson and F. H. Stephens in the order named. Considerable enthusiasm was manifested at times.

The Jobes' Case.

Albert C. Jobes, backman, charged with the attempted murder of Jim Williams, appeared before Justice Gee this afternoon. He plead not guilty. Several witnesses were examined after which the case was continued until tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

No Trouble Anticipated.

Cats in Circulation.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—It is said at the treasury department that every possible effort is being made to satisfy the steadily increasing demand for one and two dollar notes. Over six and a half millions of these are now in circulation. The increase since July, 1891, is 21 millions. Besides this there is over sixty-one and a half millions standard silver dollars in circulation, and nearly sixty-five millions fractional silver.

Shipments of currency have averaged over $250,000 daily for the past few days. Acting Treasurer Whiting says the heavy demand for small notes indicates unusual business activity in anticipation of increased trade during the coming holidays.

Married, Divorced, Killed.

LAFOYETTE, Ind., Nov. 4.—The dead body of Mrs. Coon (Ina) was found on the banks of Clear Lake, this city, this morning, and the dead body of her husband at the home of his parents about the same time. THE BROOCH CASE.

Mrs. Leader Gets a Verdict of $500 Damages.

LONDON, Nov. 4.—The jury in the Leader-Smyth case returned a verdict of $500 damages to Mrs. Leader.

The court was crowded as usual with an aristocratic throng. Counsel for Mrs. Leader finished his argument. The sympathies of the audience were evidently with Mrs. Leader and the court was obliged to severely reprove the manifestations thereof. Justice Day summed up the case strongly in favor of Mrs. Leader, saying that if the case had been a criminal one against Mrs. Leader, he would have dismissed it without allowing it to go to the jury. The jury was out twenty-five minutes bringing in a verdict as above.

The decision was received with outbursts of applause.

A large crowd outside cheered her, as she entered a cab and drove away. The damages awarded together with costs and expenses will amount to at least $2500.

The Stranded War Ship.

LONDON, Nov. 4.—A dispatch from Ferrol yesterday evening stated that the British war ship Howe, which stranded on the Ferrol bar had been floated. This morning private dispatches say the ship has been floated and total loss is inevitable. The vessel is falling over on starboard side decks at such an angle that her guns are shifting against the starboard bulwarks. Divers state that if the keel is destroyed it will be impossible to repair her.

Labor Trouble.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 4.—Late last night, the Amalgamated Association ordered a meeting of the committees of the various labor organizations this afternoon for the purpose of ordering a general strike, alleging that the merchants and boss steamboat refuse to acknowledge the labor union. On the other hand the merchants claim that the hands refused to return to work according to the agreement made by the committees on Wednesday. They are free in their determination not to yield their right to select their own employes. They are raising a fund to protect those who desire to work in case a general strike is ordered.

The Amalgamated council, at a meeting this afternoon ordered a general strike for tomorrow, but it is hoped that all orders will not join. If the strike takes place, it will involve newspapers, electric light companies, taxicabs, street cars and all other branches of industry and throw 25,000 men out of work.

RAILROAD RATES.

The Union Pacific—Will Not Cut Three Bucks.

OMAHA, Nov. 4.—General Passenger Agent Lomax of the Union Pacific said this morning that notwithstanding the Union Pacific had been out of the Transcontinental association since Nov. 1st, he proposed to be very conservative regarding rates, and would maintain them as long as the other roads adhered to the agreement.

"People anticipated that I would cut rates" said Lomax, "when we went out of the association, but instead of this, I have put in the winter tourist rates at slight advance over last year. This will be our policy throughout. As to paying a commission to brokers on the Western business that is absolutely untrue. We are not engaged in the pastime of cutting rates.

For Good Roads.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—The executive committee of the National League for good roads, appointed last month in Chicago, held its first meeting in this city yesterday. The first step taken was the appointment of committees from different cities. Similar committees were appointed from the wagon and bicycle manufacturers. Committees were appointed to visit the Grangers national convention at Concord, N. H., Nov. 16, and the Southern interstate road congress, Memphis, on the same date.

THE IRISH FUND.

The Bankers Must Have Authority to Give it Up.

LONDON, Nov. 4.—Monroe & Co., bankers of Paris, who have been in possession of the money known as the Paris fund belonging to the Irish parliamentary party, have written a letter to Justin McCarthy, in which they say they have consulted counsel in regard to the claim of the fund. Counsel advises them that they cannot part with the money, unless authorized to do so by the Tribunal of Selse. A compromise between the two sections of the Irish parliamentary party regarding the disposition of the fund, they add, can free them from their responsibility. Matters may stand before the Tribunal of Selse gives a decision in the matter.

LOOKS BAD.

Conflict Threatened Between State and Federal Officials.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Nov. 4.—The appointments of United States Marshal Walker and the subsequent telegram of General Shelley, chairman of the Democratic campaign committee to the chairman of the Dallas county committee to arrest the deputies should they come within thirty feet of the polls, cause apprehension that there will be a conflict between the state and federal authorities on election day. General Shelley is determined to make the law paramount in the management of the election. Marshal Walker is equally firm and determined that the United States statutes shall control. He has so instructed his deputies.

ORDER ISSUED

For the Arrest of a Supervisor of Elections.

RALEIGH, N. C., Nov. 4.—An order for the arrest of A. W. Sheffer, chief supervisor of elections for this district, has been issued, having been secured by G. B. Ruff, the registrar of elections, who was arrested by Sheffer. This was done in conformity with the opinion of the state attorney general that the arrest was illegal. The matter will probably lead to a conflict in the courts, as to federal and state jurisdiction. The case will go before the state courts. The feeling against Sheffer runs high. The state will assert its rights in what promises to be a notable case.

FLAMBEAU CLUB MOBBED.

Mrs. Lease Appears and Jones Skips.

TOPEKA, Kas., Nov. 4.—The Democratic flambeau club, while marching in the Weaver procession last night, was rotten-egged and stoned all along the route. Several were injured. Chairman Jones of the Democratic state committee left the Weaver meeting because of a misunderstanding with Mrs. Lease, who demanded permission to speak. There was a lively time. After Weaver's speech the crowd began calling for Mrs. Lease. Jones said she was compelled to leave to catch the train. Just then Mrs. Lease appeared on the stage shouting: "Mrs. Lease is here and demands permission to speak to the people of Kansas."

Senator Peffer and General Weaver tried in vain to pacify her. She began her speech to the crowd amid wild enthusiasm. She denounced the politicians who were running a fusion campaign, and declared the people must assert themselves. After the meeting Mrs. Lease hunted up Chairman Jones and declared she would cancel all her Kansas dates.

The Iams Case.

PITTSBURG, Nov. 4.—The final arguments in the Iams case were heard this morning and Judge Porter delivered his charge to the jury. The charge was strongly favorable to the accused, the court holding that they could not find Colonel Hawkins and Hussey guilty of assault, if they acted under orders of superior officers, nor under any circumstances, unless Iams' punishment was inflicted unlawfully and maliciously.

Trials of the Homestead rioters on a charge of murder begin next Wednesday. Sylvester Critchlow will be the first one tried for the murder of Jack Gifford.

A Mortgage Seated.

LEXINGTON, Miss., Nov. 4.—The supreme court today denied the mandamus asked by D. J. Cassidy, chairman of the Democratic state central committee to compel the Democratic council to receive the appointment of election inspectors in that city. The court holds the council had full power in the matter.

TROUBLE AT THE POLLS.

Special Deputies Sworn in, in Case of Emergency.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—Members of the Democratic national committee fear trouble at the polls if the marshals carry out the United States law this year as they have in the past. The national committee has approved the action of the state committee in arresting citizens to arrest marshals who attempt to force these parts of the federal states which conflict with the state laws. It is stated that Chairman Harrity of the Democratic national committee will issue a manifesto on the subject.

At the Republican national and state headquarters it was said today that the marshals would certainly go within the rails at the polls, and that no authority, state, or city, had any right to prevent them.

At the Democratic headquarters it was said that Lieutenant Governor Sheehan's instructions would certainly be carried out and the marshals arrested if they went within the rails. Sheriff Gorman has began swearing in special deputies in case of an emergency.

"LA PRINCESS AMERICANE."

She is the Authoress of Another Sensation.

PARIS, Nov. 4.—Another great sensation developed in the Deacon case season as the tribunal of Seine delivered the decision dismissing Mrs. Deacon's suit for divorce and ordering the oldest child then in the convent to be delivered up to Mr. Deacon. Mrs. Deacon hastened secretly to the convent Arcueuil, in the department of Marne, lent upon carrying off the child, and thus defying the authority of the French court, and baffling Deacon. The sympathies of the nuns of the convent and the people of the neighborhood have been with Mrs. Deacon who is known to the latter as "La Princess Americaine" and much beloved for her goodness and kindness to the poor and suffering. When Mrs. Deacon arrived the news of the court's decision was unknown at the convent. Mrs. Deacon was admitted as usual, Mrs. Deacon had a carriage at the gate and seemed calm and serene as usual, evidently suppressing her emotions in order not to excite suspicion. She asked and obtained leave to take the elder of the children for a ride and after kissing the younger tenderly walked with the former to the carriage. At first she drove slowly but increased the speed as the convent and adjoining group of houses disappeared from view.

Mr. Deacon drove to the convent shortly after the wife had gone. He was astonished and maddened when he learned the situation, but no more amazed than the lady superior was when she learned the strategy of Mrs. Deacon. He at once appealed to the police who readily joined him in attempting to overtake his wife. It seems impossible that she can escape from France as the police everywhere have been warned to be on the lookout and to arrest her and the child, wherever found. Deacon is determined to get possession of the child.

There was a very large attendance at the Republican mass meeting which took place at the Theater last night. The principal speaker was C. S. Varian, who devoted some portion of his remarks to a tribute for Hon. J. L. Rawlins, and addresses were also given by F. H. Critchlow, Grant H. Smith, Scott Anderson and F. H. Stephens, the last named, of whom dwelt upon the McKinley bill. All the speeches were warmly received.
