judge is responsible; he should be held responsible for Glenn's shortage.

ANOTHER EMPLOYE GARNISHEED.

The Mayor reported that a garnishment had been served upon him in the case of C. S. Rigby et al. vs. W. S. Sherman, a policeman, in which a judgment had been rendered against the defendant for $175.25 and costs, and referred the matter to the Council for such action as they may desire to take. Committee on police.

SEWER EXTENSION DEFEATED.

The city recorder reported that sewer extension N. 14 for the construction of sewer on E street from South Temple to a point on E street midway between Second and Third streets had been published in accordance with the law. He also attached the protest from John Sharp and others representing $25 feet which was sufficient to defeat the intention as advertised.

A JUNKETING TOUR.

The joint city and county building committee recommended that the city engineer and architect be sent to San Francisco to investigate the fire proofing scheme.

Lawson—I move that the communication be filed.

Rich seconded the motion and said that he was opposed to the heads of departments being sent away. If anybody went a special committee from the City Council should be sent to investigate the question. He moved that the matter be referred to the joint city and county building committee with instructions to select a committee from the council and make the trip referred to.

EXTENSION OF WATERMAINS.

The city recorder reported that the notice of completion for the extension of watermains on certain streets, viz., South South, First West, Eighth West, etc., had been published according to law and submitted the matter for final confirmation. Confirmed.

CITY OFFICIALS' REPORTS.

Several reports from heads of departments were read and referred to appropriate committees.

ECONOMY CONTEMPLATED.

Rich moved that the committee on sanitary regulations and quarantine be instructed to bring in a report with a view to securing greater economy in the health department. Carried.

SCHOOLHOUSE SEWER.

City Engineer Dremus submitted a communication signed by nine members of the board of education pledging themselves to reimburse the city for the cost of a sewer on E street. He stated that certain property owners would defeat the construction and the communication was intended as a proposition to pay the costs of the entire sewer provided the work was proceed at once. Sewer committee with power to act.

After transacting some more unimportant business the Council adjourned until Friday night next at 7:30.

Wonderland.

The usual souvenir custom was observed at this popular house this afternoon, the ladies being one and all presented with a very necessary gift. The sensation of the hour is the anticipated visit of Mr. Dudley Foster the famous midget man who weighs but eight pounds and is the only one of the little folks known to the world who is smaller than the renowned Mexican midget, Louis Borel. The popular stock company appear in the very laughable comedy of "My Turn Next." Altogether it is a big bill.

WHISPERS OF HENDERSON.

Stockholder Brown's Runaway Bookkeeper Said to Be in or Near Mexico.

It is reported that A. C. Henderson, Studebaker Bros.'s absconding cashier and bookkeeper, has been traced to Mexico's border. Detectives are said to be advancing close upon him, and that not a stone will be left unturned to bring the fugitive defaulter to the bar of justice. Yesterday afternoon some of the belongings of the Henderson household were sold to satisfaction of a $[illegible] judgment recently obtained against the defendant in the Third District court. These, however, realized many dollars short of the required amount, namely, $481 only. Among the effects sold were two horses.

The law officers seem sanguine as to Henderson's ultimate defeat, and their own triumph in his arrest.

A Lesson to Stockowners.

James C. Nelson, a Farley's canyon farmer, has been fined $25 by Commissioner Pratt, for permitting his cattle to foul the waters of the creek there. A hope was expressed that this would be a warning to other farmers in the same locality.

The Air of Liberty.

The latest discharges from the Utah penitentiary are H. C. Creasy and Carl C. Rasmussen. The first named was committed from the First district court on October 19, 1890, three years for assault. Rasmussen was sent up also from the First district. His sentence was one year for burglary, passed on March 10, 1892.

CITY PRISON BIDS.

They Will be Received at the Office of the City Recorder up to February 2nd.

The City Council has advertised for sealed proposals which will be received at the City Hall up to and including February 1st for the construction of a new city jail.

The plans and specifications for the work are now on exhibition at the office of the city recorder and at the office of William Carroll, the architect.

It is required that each proposal shall be accompanied by a deposit of at least 10 per cent of the contract price which shall be forfeited to the city if the bidder fails to comply with the terms of the proposal after the award is made to him. The Council reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

Two of the Banks.

At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Deseret National bank there were represented some 270 shares out of the 5000 shares in the company. The old board of directors was re-elected for the coming year, L. S. Hills, Moses Thatcher, Wm. W. Riter, George Romney, James T. Little, John R. Barnes, James Sharp, John C. Cutler, John R. Winder, Henry Dinwoodey, Frank W. Jennings, David H. Peery and E. R. Eldredge. The directors will hold a meeting next week for the election of officers.

The directors of the Utah National bank made a quarterly dividend of two per cent on the capital stock. John M. Sloan was re-elected president, Alexander Rogers, first vice-president; P. L. Williams, second vice-president; A. H. Jones cashier; and the following board of directors was chosen: P. L. Williams, George Y. Wallace, Alexander Rogers, Boyd Park, J. M. Sloan, Thomas Carver, W. H. Rowe, T. R. Williams, Guy Lombard, W. F. Colton, J. A. Groesbeck, W. H. Lyon, A. H. Jones, C. E. Jack, Colonel M. M. Blunt, C. L. Hawley, Joseph Hawgarten.

The Federated Trades.

At last night's meeting the Homestead committee of the Federated Trades it was decided to give a benefit ball during the first week of February. The following committee was chosen to make the arrangements: J. L. Morris, Oscar Lehmann, E. McKendrick, J. H. Dallas and J. L. Franks. Messrs. Franks, Morris, W. Sadler and W. Dixie were appointed a committee to visit unions not affiliated with the Federated Trades, and request them to send a delegate to the next committee meeting. This will take place at the Federated Trades Hall on the evening of the 24th of January.

Against the Earls Company.

The Joseph Peters Furniture company has recovered judgment against the Earls Furniture & Carpet company, by default, for $109.75. A judgment was also rendered against the same defendants for $264.35 in favor of the Wood & Kraemer Furniture company. In the case of J. H. Coudes Chair & Parlor Furniture company vs. the Earls Furniture & Carpet company, judgment has also been rendered by default in favor of the plaintiff for $146.45.

World's Fair Meeting.

The regular meeting of the Salt Lake County World's Fair Association was held at the Groesbeck block, Tuesday, January 10th.

President E. B. Wells called the meeting to order. The roll was called and the minutes of the foregoing meeting read and approved.

A very pleasing and encouraging report was received from the chairman of the committee on industrial arts.

Mrs. M. I. Horne, chairman of the committee on charities and philanthropies, gave a report of their work.

Miss N. V. Davis, chairman of the committee on ethnology, gave an exceedingly interesting report of what they intend doing and how their work is progressing.

Mrs. E. B. Wells reported the efforts which had been made in regard to having the Salt Lake Temple in suitable condition for the World's Fair, and stated that the Temple committee had not only the woman's building, but the Utah building. Referred to the sacrifices of her people, Queen Isabella pledged, in old Columbus's great enterprise, thought we might be willing to hold our money, time and ideas to make our representation complete.

Suggestions were made by several ladies in regard to raising funds to carry on the work.

Treasurer Bertha Bamberger gave a financial report of the association.

Other business having been transacted, and committees appointed, meeting adjourned to the second Tuesday in February at 2 p. m., at same place. MARGARET A. CAINE, Secretary.
